Volume in progress · further sections are added as new talks arrive

Start here

This book turns a series of video talks into plain-language lessons for someone starting from zero. Each video is one section, and every section uses the same layout, so you always know where to look:

Part	What it gives you
The big idea	The whole talk in a few sentences
Key teachings	Each idea taught, in plain words, in the original order
The method	What to actually do, step by step
Questions answered	Every audience question, answered in plain language
Remember	The few lines to carry with you

Ideas that return in later videos are not re-explained; the section points back to where they were first taught (for example, see 1.3). The teaching's vocabulary — the structure, hologram, pull out, crystallize — is collected once in the Toolkit at the back, along with the master principles and a daily practice. The Toolkit grows as sections are added.

Each section is also checked against four companion books. Where a book confirms or deepens a teaching, a short From the books note appears, marked with the book's initials:

Mark	Book
SD	The Scientific Downloads
NT	Nano Technology: The Constructive Elements
DP	Downloads & Predictions
HR	The Harmonic Reactor

Seasons

The talks come in seasons. Season 1 has 19 sections, Season 2 has 27, and Season 3 has 40. The Detox and Juicing Guide stands on its own, after the seasons. Section numbers start again at 1 in each season, so a reference to Season 1 is written with S1 (for example see S1 2.1), to Season 2 with S2, and to Season 3 with S3.

SEASON 3 · SECTION 1

Synchronizing Platforms

A new download on the geometry inside every molecule: −1 + 1 = zero point, how portals and the torus form, why time is an illusion, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

Season 1 gave 1 + 1 = 3; this download adds −1 + 1 = zero point. Frequencies of similar vibration combine into a swirling waveform: one swirl goes inward like a cone (−1), the other goes outward (+1), and between them is the zero point. Seen from above, the two turn in opposite directions and merge into the geometry at the centre of the flower of life. This happens inside every molecule, and every dot it touches is a new universe, so realities overlap and 3D and 5D exist at the same time. The inward and outward swirls are also the two sides of a portal, the torus; and the small delay between one hologram and the next is what we experience as time.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

1.1 Why this download matters

Every pixel of this reality is its own hologram, its own Earth, and you shift moment to moment into a new one according to the vibration you sent two seconds ago (see S1 1.3, S1 7). Knowing the geometry behind that explains the "now": why everything is happening at once. It came in the early morning, "very technical"; information arrives according to how well the group is learning.

1.2 −1 + 1 = zero point

Similar frequencies combine into the trinity, the magnetic and gravitational field (see S1 2.2). They don't simply add up: they form a waveform that swirls. One part goes inward, narrowing like a cone: that is negative one. The other goes outward: positive one. Between the two lies the zero point. Viewed from the side it looks like two cones; viewed from the top, two triangles turning in opposite directions that connect and merge: the geometry at the centre of the flower of life. "This is what's happening inside the molecule", and inside it is all possible geometry, expanding on 360 degrees, with every point a location (latitude and altitude, see S2 15.4).

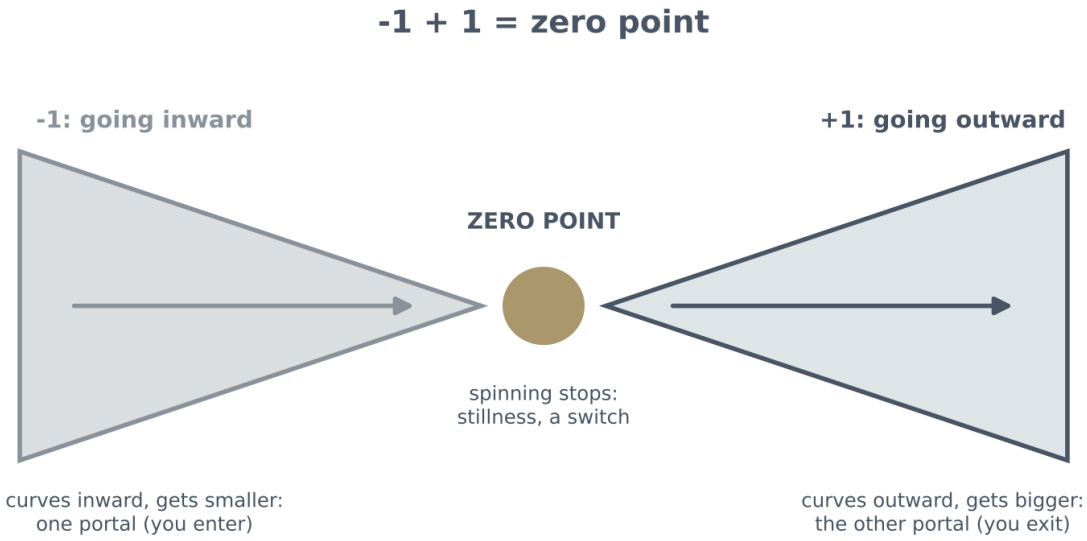

Fig. S3-1A — The inward swirl (−1) and the outward swirl (+1) meet at the zero point.

1.3 Every dot a universe; realities overlap

As the waveform comes out, it touches different dots of the matrix, and each dot repeats the same in-and-out structure: "a brand-new pixel of a universe, with infinite universes inside". Because one swirl is always going out while another, overlapping, is coming in, you get reality within the reality: everyone has their own reality, overlapping with others', and 3D and 5D exist at the same time (see S2 20.1). Repetition happens because the waveform gives force like a fractal momentum, reprinting the same geometry in a similar vibration: you fluctuate between versions until, by action, you make one permanent (see S1 3.3).

1.4 The switch at the zero point

Before reaching the zero point, the swirl is at its most potent: "spinning, spinning, spinning", until it reaches complete stillness. That stillness is a switch: another universe, a shift of timeline. The negative and positive inputs together create the zero point; with only one, it's off balance. It can never be perfectly balanced, so consciousness corrects itself by adding more of one or the other. The push to a new structure of similar vibration goes on "to infinity", fractally (compare S2 24.3).

1.5 Portals, stargates and the torus

The inward swirl creates one portal and the outward swirl the other: you go in through one and come out of the other. This is the geometry of stargates, and it is the torus. Why the signs? +1 gives a curvature outward, growing bigger as it exits; −1 curves the opposite way, growing smaller as it goes in. Technology can do something similar, but it must be measured, because it works through matter. (Asked about the merkaba: "it was blank"; no information was given.)

> FROM THE BOOKS SD and NT describe "2 toruses in the light structure of the magnetic and gravitational field" that "are connecting with portals" as "a unit of 1 single operation".

1.6 Time is a delay between holograms

Moving from one hologram to the next, the fractal momentum has a slight delay. Repeated and looped, that delay creates the illusion of time. Knowing the structure, even without understanding it fully, plants a seed in your consciousness: "you're remembering what you already know", and it makes your manifestation more potent.

> FROM THE BOOKS HR: "There is no time. Time is an illusion of the contradictory brain given as a module computer to decode the frequency waveform of time."

1.7 Anger: you're powerful, not broken

Someone "riding waves of anger" takes in energy very strongly and all at once: "that's not a sickness"; you need to learn to control it. The moment you get angry, remove yourself from the situation. Release the pressure safely (music, a video, a punching bag in another room) for as long as it takes, even an hour, until you're no longer upset. Don't act until you're calm, because an action taken in anger is built on that resonance and loops. Then thank the situation (you projected it, so you can't reject it) and switch (see S2 18.6).

The method — Training Anger Down to Zero

1. Notice the anger rising: that's the signal.
2. Leave the situation: another room, a walk outside.
3. Release the pressure safely: music, a calming video, physical exercise.
4. Wait until you're calm, however long it takes. Don't act before.
5. Thank the situation: it's your hologram, and it lets you practise.
6. Switch to a positive emotion; set a half-hour reminder to check yourself.

Questions answered

How does this relate to the merkaba?

No information was given (1.5).

Is this the same as torus energy?

"This is exactly the torus energy" (1.5).

How do we use sacred geometry in daily life?

Knowing it embeds the seed, so you use frequency more potently (1.6).

I've struggled for months to get a work visa. What should I do?

Until you're 100% sure what you want, you'll fluctuate, and the outcome isn't constructed yet. Act daily toward it without expectations of how or when: expectations block the flow (see S2 23.8). Feel now that you already have the job ("very happy, ecstatic") and act from that; use the meditation in S2 16 with the job as its focus.

To clear crystals at a full moon, must they be outside?

Ultimately it's your belief system; you don't even need the stones. Outside, you'll perceive more potency.

I'm joining group meditations to help heal humanity. What else can I do?

Anything your heart desires, but first heal your own heart. A reading suggested sound: listen to opera and to Bach, and to bass-guitar music, whose tonality pushes the frequencies in the right direction and lays the foundation of your frequency; once that layer is steady, the next notch is Mozart. Listen to bass music daily, at least two hours a day for three months; then take a two-week break; then start listening to Bach. And before you speak, prepare the thought, then the sound, then say it.

I've felt drawn to orchestral music lately. Why?

Symphonic music, with fewer layers, will be the music of the future.

Can distilled water come in plastic bottles?

"A distiller is better, but plastic is also okay. I buy plastic." Distilled water flushes the chemicals out of the body. (That day she also began 20 days only on juicing: each morning she juices five or six big jars of fruits and vegetables, separately, and invited anyone to start with her.)

> Added safety note
>
> Check with a doctor before any juicing period or fast, especially with diabetes, blood-sugar problems or medication.

Any tips for lucid dreaming?

She recommends the books on lucid dreaming listed in the store on her website (one is by Nick Barrett, also on YouTube); studying those two books, she woke up lucid in the second week. Start without expectations: some people wake up within two days, she took two weeks. When you open a portal in a dream, focus your intention until it opens or closes: it looks like a circle of frequency (see S2 27.11).

I'm riding waves of anger. What's happening?

See 1.7 and the method.

How do I stop being so lazy, so I can progress?

Thank you for your honesty: without it you can't peel the layers. If you keep failing on your own, have someone push you on a real schedule for two weeks, like a boot camp: it takes about two weeks for a new frequency to gain potency. If it doesn't hold, repeat.

Could the authorities threaten citizens in my city?

Things will escalate in many places, but the end result is positive: attempts will be subsided through synchronicity. Individually, you experience what you resonate with.

Small things trigger anxiety, nausea and difficulty breathing. Why?

Read as blood sugar dropping quickly: see a doctor or nutritionist to check levels and nutrients. No detox for her.

> Added safety note
> Breathing difficulty needs prompt medical attention. Don't detox or fast with suspected blood-sugar problems except under a doctor's supervision.

How is my dog, who lives with my ex?

Happy, and missing you. Picture him and talk to him; listen for the answer: you're creating a version of him in your hologram.

My son's other parent keeps violating court orders. Should I act now?

He is 16 and was read as able to choose to be with you; don't expect too much from the courts.

> Added note
> This isn't legal advice: talk to a family lawyer about your options and your son's say at his age.

What does the council say about this year's energies?

"Right on the path": we did good.

I have pain in my lower abdomen and kidney.

"You need intervention": see a doctor (inflammation was seen).

In hypnosis sessions we remove entities. What happens to them?

Their higher selves and guidance decide; once removed, they can't re-enter that person's hologram.

I dreamed the council spoke to me about my home's frequency. Was it contact?

Yes: a dream is another version of this reality. Listen to dreams meant for you.

For energy devices, does coil spacing (0.6 mm) matter?

With matter, different physics applies; potency depends on how thick the coil is.

I saw crystals appear one by one when I closed my eyes. What is it?

In meditation, let your consciousness pick up the crystals' geometry, not someone else's; then move them, twist and open them, and listen for quick, knowing thoughts.

Should I look for a new job or stay?

Keep transitioning: pay your bills with gratitude; the job is a stepping stone, not something to reject.

I visualize a spiral entering my body and leaving the other way. What does it do?

A natural occurrence; how well you process what comes in depends on your understanding: neutralize it and let it come out positive.

My family is distant here, and in higher frequencies they're still not there.

You're projecting them in each new hologram: study S1 1–3. What matters is how you respond.

I get sudden pain in the root-chakra area. Kundalini?

"No: medical". See a doctor.

Is it wise to travel abroad with my mother?

A specific southern destination was read as a good experience.

Where do religions and God fit in the quantum structure?

"All of it is God": the one splits into platforms, each created from its own understanding.

Forgiving makes me feel vulnerable, especially after reading about hostile beings.

Stop tuning in: like a tuning fork, the more you watch, the more potent it gets. The teacher was told to delete the channels she followed about who was being exposed. Once you know, step out, and do something physical and positive for others. No judgement; turn it to love.

My digestion is struggling. Am I ready for a fast?

Restore the gut flora first: soft foods and soups, probiotics, no sugar (stevia, "not even honey", because honey also feeds), not too much citrus or spice. Let the spice be a healthy one like ginger, though even ginger can irritate a troubled gut. Lemon is fine (it breaks down by the time it reaches the stomach, as a medical doctor, Carrie Rivera, told her), but not apple cider vinegar.

What about mass meditations for disclosure?

From the heart they're always positive. Check whether a presenter resonates with you; "follow the money".

Left out: participants' and donors' names, named outside people, books and clinics, political predictions, a media story, and a childhood anecdote (its lesson: don't take part in rituals you don't understand).

Remember

- −1 (inward) + 1 (outward) = the zero point, inside every molecule.
- Every dot is a new universe; realities overlap and run at once.
- The inward and outward swirls are the two sides of a portal: the torus.
- Time is the delay between one hologram and the next.
- Anger: leave, calm to zero, then act.

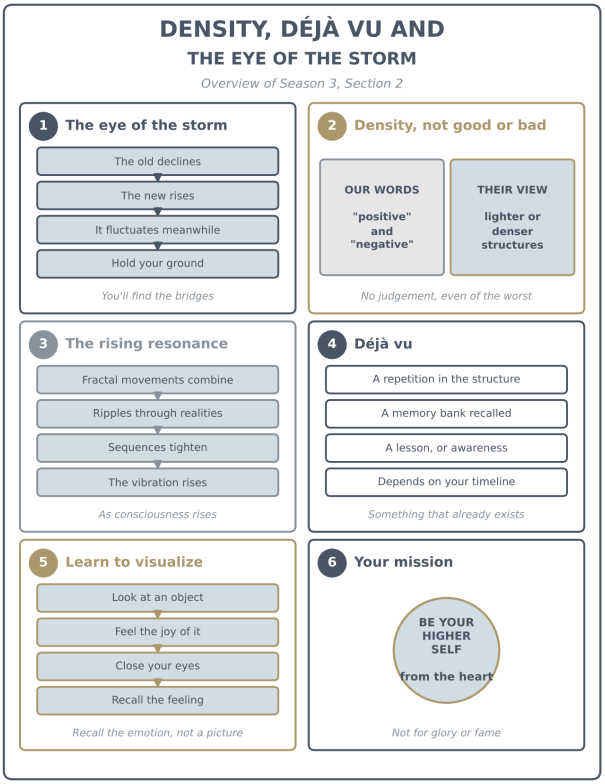

SEASON 3 · SECTION 2

Q & A: Density, Déjà Vu and the Eye of the Storm

Holding your ground while the old declines, how the councils see density rather than good and bad, what the rising Earth resonance is, déjà vu, how to learn to visualize, and many questions (live talk)

The big idea

We are in "the eye of the storm": the old is declining while the new rises, and things will fluctuate in between, so hold your ground and you'll always find the bridges for your safety. The councils don't see structures as positive or negative but as denser or lighter; they use our words to reach us. The planet's resonance rises because its fractal momentum tightens as consciousness rises. Déjà vu is a repetition in the structure and a memory of something that already exists. And if you can't visualize, train it through feeling: look, feel the joy, close your eyes and recall the emotion.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

2.1 Hold your ground in the eye of the storm

A council message said our planetary alignment "took motion for the better", but we are "in the eye of the storm". As the old guard declines and the new rises, it will fluctuate (see S2 24.2), and "when something is dying off, they fight to the bone." Hold your ground through the positive, and you'll find the bridges for your safety (see S2 22.11). In the new beginning nobody may be told what to do: people choose freely, but without deception; everything must be open and clear (see S2 7.2). And no one has the right to take your sovereignty once you're awake.

> Added note
> The message named one country and made claims about immigrants and a government; these are left out, as the book stays neutral on politics and doesn't generalize about groups.

2.2 Density, not positive or negative

"We never talk about structures being negative or positive; we talk about density." Positive and negative are words lowered to our understanding, so we can connect with what we experience. From their perspective every structure is a learning process, and they "don't judge even the most evil". They also learn by watching what we do daily, to find how to explain things to us.

FROM THE BOOKS SD speaks of "less in density realities", usually above 3D, which the body can connect with "with full memory" as its molecular vibration rises.

2.3 Why the Earth's resonance rises

The planet's resonance (the Schumann resonance) is the resonance of combined platforms of fractal movements. They connect point to point and vibrate through the structure, and because they're fractal, the resonance ripples moment to moment through every parallel reality, spiralling like a cone: the beginning of a holographic expression. As the fractal momentum grows tighter in sequence, the vibration increases. That is why the resonance is rising: consciousness is moving into higher vibrational sequences (see S2 26.8).

FROM THE BOOKS DP: Earth's frequency "is called Schumann resonance and is 7.83 HZ. But now because the planet Earth is moving to a new dimension of 5D structure her frequency is constantly increasing."

2.4 Déjà vu

Déjà vu is "recognizing your structure": a repetition in the structure, and at the same time recalling a memory bank of something that already exists. Is it a repeated lesson or expanded awareness? "Both", depending on your timeline and what you're vibrating at that moment.

2.5 Catch the message before the mind

If you start hearing guidance and seeing energy, the mind isn't playing with you: write the messages down, quiet down, and catch them before your human mind starts thinking. The mind is a "backup structure" processing what comes from your 3D or 5D platform; your awareness picks up frequencies above it, and combining the two connects you with higher realities (see S2 27.12).

> Added note
> If hearing voices is distressing, or comes with confusion or changes in sleep or mood, please talk to a doctor.

2.6 Learn to visualize through feeling

If visualizing is hard, "practise like an actress." Look at an object, a cup, for a few minutes: see how beautiful it is, talk about it, and feel how happy you are to see it. Then put it away, close your eyes, and imagine it again by recalling the frequency of the emotion you felt. It's a skill you can build, not something you're born with or without.

FROM THE BOOKS DP: if your vibration while trying to visualize "is not zero point steady, and relaxed", you won't tune in properly; "the memory will be distorted."

2.7 Your mission: be your higher self

Asked about missions so often, the council answered everyone: stand your ground in the new beginning and express your higher self. What can you do for humanity? What are your gifts? Check the core: do you truly want to help, or do you love the glory? "Once you get more popular, you're going to be tested exactly for that" (see S2 19.5).

2.8 Speaking about hidden harm

When people begin to speak openly about abuse and their own healing, it becomes more potent, "like a ripple effect": every person will meet a situation where they say, "wait a minute, this is not right." Healing it yourself mutates you into a new resonance, "a new human"; but it takes action, not only talk.

> Support
> If you're a survivor of sexual abuse, you deserve support. In the US, RAINN's hotline is 1-800-656-4673; elsewhere, a local sexual-assault service. To report a child at risk, contact the authorities.

The method — Learning to Visualize

1. Choose a simple object, such as a cup.
2. Look at it for a few minutes: notice how beautiful it is, and say so.
3. Feel the joy of seeing it: that feeling is the frequency.
4. Put it away, go somewhere quiet, relax, and close your eyes.
5. Recall the same emotion, and let the image come from that feeling.
6. Practise daily, then use it for what you want to create (2.6).

Questions answered

My father has fever, weight loss and headaches; thyroid medication only partly helps. What should be checked?

Read as an ongoing inflammation and infection the doctors are missing, with gut-lining damage: ask about testing for celiac disease, Lyme disease and lupus.

Is a particular online starseed community good to join?

If it comes from the heart and your higher self's expression, yes.

Can you explain the Schumann resonance?

See 2.3.

Since last year I hear guidance and see energy everywhere. Am I going crazy?

No: see 2.5.

My son is gay and a wonderful person. Is there a pattern of switching genders between lifetimes?

"Acceptance needs to be given to humanity." Your son came to you for a purpose: "he is your best teacher", for your forgiveness and acceptance. A soul may choose any experience for its own reasons.

> Added note
> Further claims in this answer, about deliberate genetic manipulation, schools and religious communities, are left out: the book doesn't generalize about groups.

Is there information about new wireless networks in my country?

They're global. Don't put it in a negative structure: hold your ground through the positive (see S2 11).

Doctors find nothing behind my chronic morning cough and phlegm. What is it?

Inflammation in the chest from something inhaled; it's still inflamed and needs care. What she did for herself when she had pneumonia was to stay three days only on distilled water, "but I cannot recommend this for anybody", and "it cannot be done by diabetic people, ever". "I'm not a medical doctor."

> Added safety note
> A cough lasting weeks needs follow-up with a doctor. Don't fast on water alone as treatment.

I was told a white light surrounds me. What is it?

Whoever told you is your projection: "the white light is you."

I fell in love, the connection is strong, but it keeps going back and forth. How do I get over it?

You know the answers but keep pushing. Shut the program down: calm to zero, switch, and do something positive daily (friends, music, going out), or you'll keep shifting into similar situations (see S2 22.12).

Is my relationship with my autistic son a contract I'm meant to change?

It's a lesson you can't skip: accept it, imagine your son healthy and yourself at your best, and through synchronicity new ways to help will appear. "Create it to see it."

Am I heading in the right direction with my mission?

See 2.7.

What is déjà vu? Is it the matrix locking us in a loop?

See 2.4.

Do we have one twin soul exploring the possibilities we don't take?

Not only one: there can be several, in different timelines. A shared timeline needs a contract by agreement, through your guidance (see S2 22).

I feel pulled between two places, and between a past and a present relationship.

There's doubt and guilt about the past marriage. Do you want to repeat it? "No": then be the best of yourself in the new one.

What about a new virus? Is it meant to harm many people? How can we protect our children?

"Did we not say things will escalate? We never gave you how." Ask who is projecting your reality: what you see projected is a program; take it as your truth only if you want that reality. Hold your ground, and do your best (see 2.1).

> Added note
> Follow your public-health authorities' guidance to protect yourself and your family.

I struggle to visualize when I meditate. Can I fix it?

Yes: see 2.6 and the method.

What happens in the structure when we speak openly about childhood abuse?

See 2.8.

How long should I listen to Bach after the break? (See S3 1.)

Don't count time: play it in the background while you do other things, and let it embed.

As I fall asleep I hear voices from my throat, male or female.

Normal: it's you, using your vocal cords as you dream.

After listening to a channelled talk I had a painful cleanse. Was it the energy?

It's the body; it has nothing to do with what you listened to.

I get bad pain under my right shoulder blade; massage helps for a while.

Read as an inflamed, pinched nerve that comes and goes with movement.

My 21-year-old son has nocturnal epilepsy and is moving out. Any guidance?

Epilepsy is a short-circuit in how the brain wires its signals, so it's individual. Rewiring the circuitry (neuroscience, epigenetics, sound and frequency) can help, and fuller technology may come. Love him and do your best.

> Added note
> Keep working with his neurologist about medication and safety for living independently.

Our beloved pet died. Did we do anything wrong?

No: you gave compassion and love. Sadness is a vibration she can feel; connect with happy memories instead (see S2 24.10).

Are the "parasites" seen in my blood something else?

She saw sluggish blood, with another membrane between the blood cells. Something is needed to rejuvenate the blood, creating new cells while flushing the old: "there's some kind of herbalism for that", with blood work, doctors who know how to support new blood cells, juicing and a healthy diet.

Left out: participants' and donors' names, a guest's promotion, named outside people, a story about an awards ceremony, and claims about countries, immigrants, genetics and groups.

> Remember
> • In the eye of the storm, hold your ground through the positive.
> • The councils see density, not good and bad.
> • The Earth's resonance rises as fractal momentum tightens.
> • Déjà vu: a repetition, and a memory of what already exists.
> • To visualize, recall the feeling, not the picture.

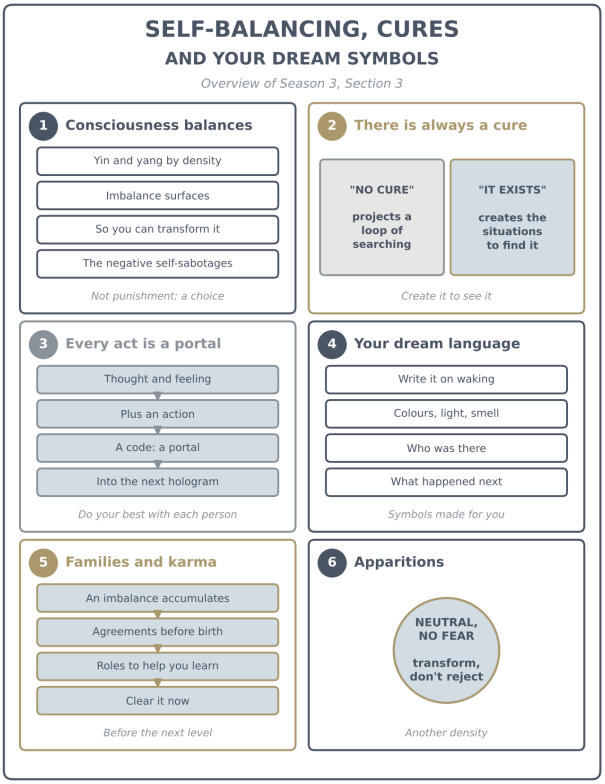

SEASON 3 · SECTION 3

Q & A: Self-Balancing, Cures and Your Dream Symbols

How consciousness balances itself, why there is always a cure, every act as a portal, learning the language of your dreams, family karma, apparitions, and many questions (live talk)

The big idea

Consciousness isn't biased, but it must stay in balance. When it rises to a higher level, everything off balance in you surfaces, not as punishment but so you can choose to transform it, and a structure that only destroys ends up sabotaging itself. The wrong bylaw, "see it to believe it", also told us "there is no cure", and that belief loops; in the quantum there is always a cure, which you create situations to find. Every thought, feeling and action is the code of a portal into your next hologram. And your dreams speak a language made for you: write them down and learn its symbols.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

3.1 Consciousness balances itself

Consciousness measures by density, the yin and yang, which must stay in balance (see S3 2.2). Keep choosing the same negative, and your hologram's density drops until it reflects only negativity back. Even practices like dark magic have their own bylaws (taking frequency without permission, "order through chaos"), but consciousness is unbiased. When it decides to rise, everything off balance pops up in front of your face, so you have the choice to transform it: "It's not a problem. You accumulated this; balance it so you can move to the next level" (see S2 18.1). A structure bent only on destruction ends up sabotaging itself through its own hologram (see S2 27.2).

FROM THE BOOKS SD: "If you do not change your perspective from (−) to (+) your higher self of existence will sabotage your hologram momentum so you can wake up from your disillusions."

3.2 There is always a cure

We were given the wrong bylaw: "see it to believe it". Along with it came "there is no cure", and believing it, you project a reality where you keep searching and looping. "There's no such thing as no cure; there's always the cure in a quantum structure." Know that the cure exists and that you're healed, feel it ("now I'm healthy, now my child is healthy"), and at the same time create situations to find it. You won't know how, where or from whom. Instant healing is possible if you're ready, but a lesson shared with others (a child's, say) can't be skipped: you go through the process of finding it, knowing you're already healed (see S2 14.3).

Added note

Holding this knowing goes together with medical care; never stop or refuse treatment because of it.

3.3 Every act is a portal

Each time you project a frequency with an action, you create a portal with its own code (hertz) and move through it into another hologram that holds that vibration, reprinting everyone in it. So "even if you talk to one person, do the best of yourself from the heart": that person is your whole universe in that moment, and your next hologram is built from what you sent (see S3 1.5, S1 14.2).

3.4 Your dream language

Dreams are "designed specifically for you". A dream of something you never sought (being a model, say) may be another timeline of you; if it's a bylaw, it will come through synchronicity, and when it does, reality splits and you'll see the version you act on. A window in a dream is a threshold, a new beginning. Write dreams down, and note the colours, light or dark, the smell, who was there; over time you'll learn your own symbols (for the teacher, gold and jewellery came before generous gifts).

3.5 Families and karma

Do family patterns pass down? "All of the above." When you accumulate an imbalance (harming your family, say), your guidance asks how you want to correct it, and agreements are made before birth: someone agrees to play the villain, or a child comes to help you grow, so you learn how it feels. As the ascension protocol moves you into a heart-based timeline, whatever you accumulated surfaces to be cleared now.

> Added note
> "Karma" here isn't a reason to stay in harm. If you're being hurt, seek safety and support.

3.6 Apparitions and entities

Entities seen in a house are consciousnesses that chose separation and live in another density of belief. From your higher perspective you chose to experience that reality, so hold your neutrality, without judging or fearing it: fear is also a perception that imprints a hologram. You dissolve it not by rejecting it but by transforming it (see S2 13.4).

3.7 Paradoxes

When every idea seems to turn into its opposite, it isn't duality: "it's the synchronicity of this dimension." Things occur according to how you project them, with infinite probabilities, so let it flow.

3.8 The Earth's own message

A message said to come from Earth, which gave its fifth-dimensional name as Aria: drilling and draining it creates pockets that collapse when the plates move; the oil helps the plates slide (see S2 21.10). A recent earthquake was read as natural, with smaller tremors to follow. The planet is moving to a new level: big positive changes are said to begin within 3 to 30 months, and the next 20 years build a new reality. A coastline long predicted to flood (see S2 24) is "no longer happening": the timeline changed.

FROM THE BOOKS DP: "The new 5 dimensional name of the earth that she chose is ARIA"; she "will sabotage all negative input in my veins. So the gas stays in my body to lubricate the shifting of the platonic plates."

The method — Learn Your Dream Language

1. Keep a notebook by the bed.
2. On waking, write first, before you move or think (see S2 17).
3. Note the details: colours, light or dark, smells, who was there, how you felt.
4. Watch what follows over the next days.
5. Connect symbols to outcomes: over time your own key signs emerge.
6. Trust them: they're designed for you, not from a dream dictionary.

Questions answered

Why do we need to eat other life forms, if we're light beings?

"It's another programming." You hold the universe's whole energy; eating is part of a reality you chose to experience.

Is a particular channelled body of material true?

The teacher didn't read it: she was taught directly, from scratch. When she doubted, synchronicity soon brought independent confirmation.

What are portals, and can humans create them?

Yes, constantly: see 3.3 and S3 1.5.

Are the entities people see in houses real? Why are they angry or sad?

See 3.6.

What durations for the three water frequencies for my mother?

Individual durations were given, once only. (See S1 19 for the practice.)

One parent has woken up and sees our struggling child as perfect; the other is still in worry. Does the positive frequency win?

Hold neutrality and gratitude, and override every time, 101 times if it happens 100. Meditate on your family as the focus (see S2 16), with a reminder every half hour. You don't change them: you change your hologram and reprint them (see S2 9.6).

Does living in 5D frequency slow aging?

Yes: the molecular structure spins differently, with the right diet too. (Claims in this answer about vaccines, food and gender are left out.)

> Added note
>
> Vaccines do not change your DNA; talk with your doctor about any health decision.

Why have I started getting night headaches?

Read as interference from Wi-Fi frequencies around the home. Her suggestion: Russian shungite (from Siberia) pyramids in the home. Make sure it's real: open the back of a flashlight, remove the cap, and with the battery still in, touch the shungite to the battery; if the flashlight turns on, it's real shungite, if not, it's fake ("there are a lot of fakes"). Measure your rooms (each pyramid covers a given size; hers covers two rooms), order five or six for a house, and place them in different locations.

> Added note
>
> New or persistent headaches should be checked by a doctor. Claims that minerals block wireless signals aren't established.

Symbols keep being left on my car. What do they mean?

An activation designed for you, opening sequences of new knowledge.

My youngest daughter behaves irrationally and can't get going. Why?

She chose her lessons. Do your best until she's an adult; then love her enough to let her choose: you can't be responsible for another's choices. (The host shared that consistent, unconditional support helped his own son turn his life around.)

I dream of being a model, which I have no interest in, and of open windows.

See 3.4.

How can I talk with my guides directly? I feel resistance.

Resistance is a vibration you'll keep meeting. Know you're connected, ask, and write the answer at once without editing it; and expect to be tested (see S2 25.2).

Doctors want to remove my daughter's tonsils. What can we do?

Find what keeps irritating them (food, dust, an allergy); she suggested also seeing an alternative practitioner, and cutting gluten and dairy. It's the parents' decision.

> Added note
> Discuss the options and risks fully with her doctors before deciding.

How long do I play 3, 70 and 90 Hz for my mother?

3 Hz, 70 Hz and 90 Hz, only 25 minutes each, and only once: "don't do more" for her, because a lot is happening with her (see S3 4 for the general protocol).

Am I on the right path working from home? Can I start a detox?

You're always on the path, even when struggling; wanting to improve is already improving.

A gluten- and dairy-free diet made no difference to my MS. Which foods help?

MS was read as a genetic switch needing individual work (epigenetics). On gluten, from a medical book she read while healing her son: after about age 20, gluten can take up to two years to clear out of the immune system, and one bagel stays six months in the gut flora. Her son was healed of an ulcer and his gut flora restored through homeopathic herbalism: teas designed specifically for him by a homeopathic medical herbalist ("nothing else helped"). "Look at the whole system"; medication and herbal support can work together.

> Added note
> Keep working with your neurologist; diet changes can support, not replace, treatment.

Guided by spirit, I created a portal and a temple of golden light in meditation. What next?

Keep going: more will be revealed. Energize the blueprint with joy to a summit, hold it, drop it, and act daily (see S2 16). Others may not stay in the heart; do your part and don't be disappointed.

I have gas, bloating and stomach pain, and nasal stuffiness. Is it ascension?

The stuffiness is ordinary. Gas means fermentation, whose mycotoxins go through the blood: separate fruit and vegetable juices by one hour, dilute juices (raw juice is acidic and salty: Swiss chard alone gives so much salt you'd think someone added a tablespoon), and repair the gut flora. Eat soft cooked foods without spices, citrus, salt or sugar for at least six months (stevia only; a little lemon is fine because it dissolves before it reaches the gut flora, as medical doctor Carrie Rivera told her); soak nuts and lentils overnight; see an herbalist for the whole system. For her son she made coconut yogurt from scratch: canned coconut with Visbiome probiotic stirred in, sweetened with stevia (Visbiome is the new version of VSL: the doctor took the original formula to a new company, and "I know it's working").

> Added note
> Ongoing digestive pain should be checked by a doctor.

Will I see my parents when I cross over?

"Yes, by choice."

A friend has a painful sexual tendency we both like. How should we relate?

You always have a choice. Consenting play is not judged, but "your body is sacred": repetition can draw you deeper, so stay in balance.

I heard voices of people downstairs on my remote land and drove them away in fear.

Another parallel reality on that land, with a different ancestry, leaking into yours: nothing negative (see S2 20.2).

What's next financially for a country leaving a union?

No big collapse was seen. Any forecast, including hers, is a projection: in your structure, things work out.

Do family systems pass burdens down the generations?

See 3.5.

Why do my ideas keep turning into their opposites?

See 3.7.

How can I stay in my heart after waking, when my mind takes over?

You're always connected. On waking, override any negative with a positive feeling, and practise.

What about recent earthquakes on an island?

See 3.8.

Left out: participants' and donors' names; named outside people, channels, products and a sports event; political and immigration remarks; claims about a virus's origin, vaccines, food and gender; and regional predictions.

Remember

- When consciousness rises, imbalance surfaces so you can transform it.
- There is always a cure: know it, feel it, and create the path to it.
- Every act is the code of a portal: do your best with each person.
- Your dreams speak your own language: write them down.
- Meet apparitions with neutrality, not fear.

SEASON 3 · SECTION 4

Q & A: Tests, Codes and the Signs of Your Path

Why readings show probabilities, how everyone is being tested and what happens to those out of tune, how your purpose keeps reappearing, signs of a timeline jump, contact through others, and many questions (live talk)

The big idea

A reading shows what you're vibrating now, a probability; guidance shows you the way, not the whole story, because knowing too much would throw you off balance. Everyone is being tested now, channelers and scientists included, and fame is not the criterion: those who drift from the heart lose the codes to draw information from the 5D platform, and their work fades. Your true purpose keeps reappearing until you take it up. Strange gaps in memory can be signs you've jumped to a new hologram. And to build a big reality, feel its resonance in every small act: talk to one person as if to millions.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

4.1 Guidance, not the whole story

A reading shows what you're vibrating now; do something different tomorrow and the timeline changes. Only something crystallized 100% may be shown, and even then not always why. If you were told "you'll marry in two years", you might marry the first person you met, though you were meant to date several first, and you'd be off balance. So guidance helps you be your best through the process rather than telling you what will happen; information that would cause panic is given in a way that keeps the transition easy (see S2 22.1).

4.2 Everyone is being tested

Everyone is being tested now, "including channelers, including scientists", because humanity is moving toward an interstellar structure and contact will come to specific people. Fame and glory are not the criterion: "the way you give the information, the way you treat people, that's what we're going to look for." Those who stop resonating with the new heart structure lose the codes to extract information from the 5D platform: what they receive becomes inexact, and through synchronicity their work subsides. Those who hold the vibration grab the proper codes (see S2 25.2).

4.3 Giving trains the frequency of abundance

Keep charging what you need as the main provider, and once a week or so give something freely: "you need to start familiarizing yourself with the frequency of giving without expectation." Abundance is a reality you must resonate with by acting on it, or you never build it. "You cannot reject the money structure, but you have to transform it." An obligation blocks your resonance, so the teacher keeps giving open, and gives regularly to others' work herself (see S2 19.4).

4.4 Who is speaking, and protection

At a certain level you stop asking who is speaking: "it's always a knowingness." Expressions differ (the council is gentle and fluid; others are blunt and to the point), but ultimately it's you projecting versions of yourself to interact with. You're never alone, and guidance can even plaster a protective hologram on top of yours when you hold a high resonance. There's never fear.

4.5 Signs you've jumped

When something you remember using is said never to have existed (a network, an account, a detail), you may be "extracting information from a previous hologram": you shifted, and you remember the old one. Likewise, when exactly what you needed appears, you reprinted it in a new hologram with another version of yourself. Notice these; leave the how open.

4.6 Your purpose keeps reappearing

Purpose can be pre-ordained, yet you choose whether to do it well. If it's yours, "it's going to keep coming in front of your face through different situations." Ignore it and you may sink "deeper and deeper in mud". Transformation doesn't mean doing the same thing again: if it didn't work, try a different approach, the hide-and-seek game (see S1 1.7).

4.7 Shadow work is done in action

You can't skip your shadow work by simply feeling love: you created matter, so you must take action through it. Situations will come for everyone to express themselves from the heart, large or small (a kind word to your mother; still loving a relative who disrespects you). "What counts is the vibrational sequence of the intention." Be honest: peel the layers of ego, apologize, and the program shuts down (see S2 14).

4.8 When a frequency is too high to hold

Beings above the fifth dimension can't simply appear to you: you must hold their vibration. So they may speak through another person, with that person's permission. Tuning in to a frequency far above yours can make you shake, "like ten cups of coffee", or feel nauseous. Joy keeps the conversation open; fear closes it.

4.9 Feel the big reality in every small act

If you want to speak to many people, don't wait for the crowd: feel, even when talking to one person or posting one video, the emotion of speaking to millions. That resonance builds the reality. "It's not about how many people; it's about the resonance you project", and you can be glorious, but through the heart.

The method — Feel the Reality You Want, Now

1. Name the reality you want: speaking widely, a thriving business, a healed family.
2. Find its feeling: how would you feel if it were already so?
3. Bring that feeling into small acts: one conversation, one post, one task.
4. Check your motive: from the heart, not for fame or money alone.
5. Act daily from that resonance, whatever the numbers look like.
6. Leave the how open: notice what appears, and keep going.

Questions answered

How precise are channelled messages? Can channels be manipulated without knowing?

See 4.1 and 4.2.

At 19 I have PCOS. Should I take medication or change my diet?

She can't advise on medication. She shared her own detox and elimination approach (allergy test first), and her view on dairy: from a medical book she read, the body has to reprocess it and it can take nutrients out of the bones ("I cannot back this up"); yogurt can irritate the gut flora too. For a probiotic she uses Visbiome ("VSL turned into Visbiome: the doctor took the formula"), which helped her son recover: "I can guarantee for the Visbiome right now because we're using that." To flush out the body, drink distilled water for a whole hour, because its neutrality reaches the most potency (she suggests watching Andrew Norman Webber on distilled water). She removed one food every two weeks while juicing and doing shakes, fruits and vegetables kept one hour apart. She said that if you ever come off a medicine, do it slowly, with your doctor: stopping suddenly can shut the system down.

> Added note
> Decide about PCOS treatment with your doctor; never stop prescribed medication on your own.

In a dream I heard "mood swings and chronic illness" and felt a shock wave through my body.

You tuned into the teacher's own situation before she knew it: practise, and more will come as knowing.

Are our bodies like drones for our higher selves?

You are the higher self; separation is only perception. In harmony with your other selves, everything flows.

An economist predicts a long collapse of government control. Will it happen?

True and not true, depending on perception: what reality do you choose?

Who are the beings that speak to you?

See 4.4.

Are tarot and oracle cards useful to see our vibration?

Yes, if from the heart: they're baby steps that build trust; eventually you won't need them.

A friend's mother was diagnosed with cancer. How can they get through it?

It looked challenging. Knowing you're already healthy, so fully that nothing else exists, requires the knowledge; for them, prayer is more familiar and will help.

> Added note
> Please support her care with her oncology team; spiritual practice can accompany treatment.

My Wi-Fi network vanished; the provider said I never had it. A timeline jump?

Yes: see 4.5.

Should I teach yoga by donation alongside my job?

Yes, once a week or so (see 4.3).

A friend's son disappeared at sea. Can anything help them find him?

She was told only that "they don't see a hologram platform of him", and didn't want to press further.

My bank balance showed the exact year's number, and things reappear where I looked. Is something communicating?

You're communicating with yourself: you shifted and reprinted what you needed (4.5).

Is working with abused children my life purpose?

If you wish it, yes; and see 4.6.

Can we ascend without doing our shadow work, just by staying in love?

See 4.7.

An empty house I'm renovating feels inhabited by something non-benevolent.

Read as a counter-clockwise vortex: place something with water spinning clockwise to neutralize it.

My right shoulder, elbow and knee have hurt for a while.

Pinched nerve endings, possibly nodules; but she also asked that the heart be checked. After that, a circular massage on any nodule, every other day, until the sharp pain goes numb.

> Added note
>
> See a doctor first, and get chest symptoms or breathlessness checked promptly.

I filmed an orb that seemed to draw shapes over a mountain. Who was it?

A craft, of life origin.

Can you explain the ascension process?

It's everything you do moment to moment: new perceptions become resonance, you fluctuate, and with practice the new timeline becomes permanent (see S2 25). You already made it on other platforms; you're here to construct it.

My daughter wants a hysterectomy for chronic pain. Is that okay?

Badly torn, inflamed tissue was seen, very hard to repair: it's her own decision.

You said not to travel. Was that for everyone?

It was a message for her; she won't tell others what to do.

I'm finding a non-dual experience: what speaks to me isn't who I am. A phase, or the new way?

If unsure, both fluctuate: choose and embed one. Switching takes practice for everyone; drop the ego and be honest (4.7).

When galactic beings come, what do I do?

Enjoy it: joy keeps the conversation open (4.8).

May I teach this material in my workshops?

Yes: it's for humanity. Embed it first, especially S1 1–3.

I depend financially on a partner in a somewhat toxic relationship, with three children. How do I stabilize?

Give gratitude for having a home, as a stepping stone, while building your own way: study, look for work. Meditate on the good you once had (see S2 16). Gratitude doesn't mean allowing rudeness; if it becomes violent, remove yourself.

> Support
>
> If you're afraid of your partner or being controlled financially, in the US call the National Domestic Violence Hotline, 1-800-799-7233 (or text START to 88788); elsewhere, a local domestic-abuse service.

What exactly is Lyme disease?

Read as signals disturbing muscles, immunity, gut and thyroid. (A product named is left out.)

> Added warning
>
> MMS is a bleach and dangerous to drink. Please treat Lyme disease with your doctor.

Does rain water carry codes?

It carries its region's frequency and whatever is in the air, so be careful with rain water: keep your water clean. The general vibrational protocol for everybody is 3 Hz, 70 Hz and 90 Hz, 20 minutes each: use an online tone generator set to a square wave, as in her early video (see S1 19).

My child's mother and I disagree strongly about the child's care. What can I do?

Educate, then respect the other's choice.

Family members' moods pull me out of my happy state.

Normal as you rise. Neutralize through gratitude; if it keeps repeating, it may be time to let that relationship go. Their truth is theirs; if it becomes abusive, make drastic changes.

Left out: names, products, a film, predictions, and claims about food and vaccines.

Remember

- Readings show probabilities; guidance shows the way, not everything.
- Everyone is tested: how you treat people decides your codes.
- Your purpose keeps reappearing until you take it up.
- Strange memory gaps can be signs of a jump.
- Feel the big reality in every small act.

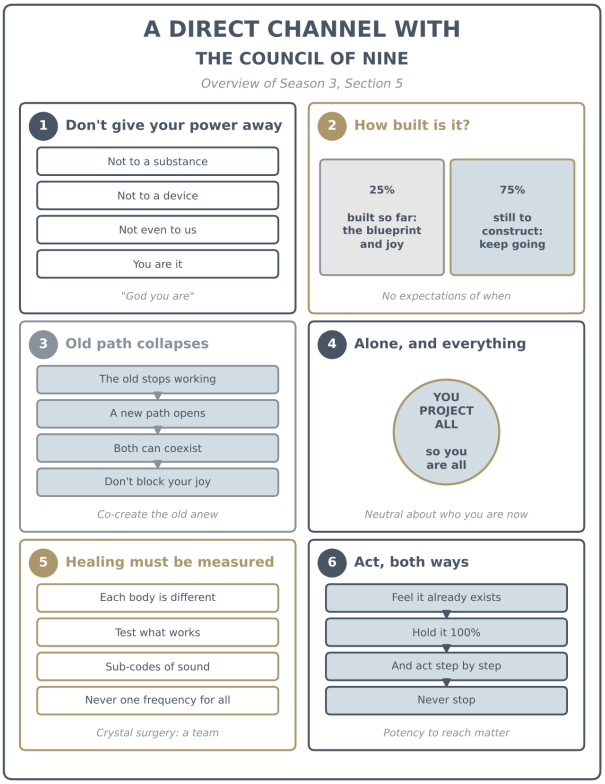

SEASON 3 · SECTION 5

Q & A: A Direct Channel with the Council of Nine

An hour of questions answered directly by the council: individual healing frequencies, crystal surgery, when an old path collapses, feeling alone, how much of a manifestation is built, not giving your power away, and more (live talk)

The big idea

For this whole session the teacher channelled the council directly, and its message ran through every answer: don't give your power away, not to a substance, a device, or even to the council: "you are it". A manifestation can be read as a percentage of how much of it you've built so far, and the rest needs more potency, without expectations of when. When an old path collapses, a new one opens, and you can still co-create the old in a new way. Seeing that it's all your projection can feel lonely, but you are alone and everything at once. And any healing by frequency must be measured for each person.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

5.1 The opening message

"The deaf will hear, the blind will see, the asleep will awake. You will mobilize and free yourself" through a period around 2020–2024, when "the new beginning starts". "Trust the self, not somebody else. You are it. God you are, power you are, strength you are, freedom you are. Welcome home." (A direct channel takes a specific, focused resonance; the council noted the percentage of energy left to hold the connection as the hour went on.)

5.2 Healing frequencies must be measured

Asked about the Royal Rife machine: "we are familiar with the Rife machine". It uses multiple frequencies, and some of them were changed and "are not coexisting with the DNA code", based on manipulation. "Testing is necessary": the sound should be a multiplication of sub-codes (frequency, geometry, sound waves), and "the same frequency is never the same for everybody": individualize it, never one frequency for the masses (see S2 16.1). Crystal surgery exists, but it needs AI and a team (nano scientists, quantum physicists, electrical engineers): crystals bend the sound waveform at different degrees of curvature, flipping a quantum switch in the molecules to rebuild, even a hand.

5.3 When an old path collapses

An artist whose work stopped selling just as she found a new healing path asked whether it was needed. The council's rhetorical reply: if it hadn't happened, would you have taken the new path? "Sometimes the old system needs to collapse, and in that place you have a new one." But you can co-create the old again, from a new perspective: the belief that one can't exist with the other projects situations that stop your joy. "You can combine both."

5.4 Don't give your power away

On microdosing: "Why are you giving your power to a mushroom?" If it were taken away, how would you connect? (see S2 24.9). On a water filter: believe it's good, and change the filters every three months; then the council laughed: "We actually created reality for you. You're the power. Don't give your power away, let that be a lesson." Any belief can become positive or negative depending on your perception: "learn the structure; do not give us the power to tell you. You are it."

5.5 Alone, and everything

After a light-body experience, someone felt deeply alone, realizing that no one else exists. "You did very well." You are alone, and at the same time the same as everything, because you project everything: the one molecule expands to everyone and collapses to you. In time humans will bilocate and meet beings from other timelines "like a new channel". Coming back, accept who you are right now with neutrality while you learn to switch and mobilize your structures.

5.6 How much of a manifestation is built

Asked about manifesting a particular home, the council answered with a percentage: so far she had built 25% of that hologram blueprint, with 75% still to go. Keep expressing your joy, without expectations of when or how: timing depends on how much you put in to build the fractals until it becomes matter (see S3 4.9).

5.7 Act both ways at once

After raising, holding and dropping the energy, do you act as if it's complete, or step by step? "Both." Hold the feeling that it already exists, embedded 100%, and at the same time take the actions that build it: "never stop, never stop. You need the potency to expand into matter from the blueprint" (see S2 16).

5.8 Both halves of the brain

5.9 What you see in others is your reality

Asked why we're surrounded by narcissistic people: "what reality are you speaking of? While you see narcissistic people, somebody else sees beauty." No judgement, awareness: switch your understanding, and the people you see change with your timeline. Animals, too, are "another structure of you": treat them as you'd treat people, and they'll interact with you in new ways.

5.10 A program shut down, once

For someone who felt cursed by people around her ex-husband, the council asked, "Do you wish us to shut the program for you?" With her permission it gave a sequence of signals, asked her to raise her feeling to goosebumps of knowing she was already in the new hologram, and declared it complete. "That will be one-time help. Next time, study the structure." Help works through permission (see S2 8.5).

The method — Keep Building the Blueprint

1. Hold the blueprint of what you want, clearly.
2. Feel that it already exists, with joy, at 100%.
3. Take the next real step toward it, today.
4. Assume it isn't finished: keep adding potency daily, without expecting when.
5. Keep your power: no device, substance or person decides it for you.
6. Repeat until it pops into matter (5.6, 5.7).

Questions answered

Which frequency is a new virus sensitive to, for frequency machines?

See 5.2: testing is necessary.

Are certain famous magicians mastering the quantum structure, or doing tricks?

"Both, depending on your resonance": no further comment.

Do we ascend to 5D with the mind while the body stays in 3D, or with the body too?

Body and mind are one unit, mutating with your frequency; study S1 1–3. "Create it to see it."

My art stopped selling when I began a healing path. Was it needed? Should I still paint?

See 5.3.

For a year my mouth's lining has been sloughing. Why?

Read as inflammation and fungus, gum inflammation and bone loss: detox, lots of water.

> Added note
> See a doctor or dentist about ongoing mouth symptoms.

How do we end up in a parallel reality unconsciously, or travel consciously?

"You're always present": the illusion that you're not is what you give your structure.

My father has had a rash for years; would silver or a detox help?

Read as a fungus under the skin, fed by sugar: herbal detox, including against parasites, and a check of his breathing.

> Added note
> A long-standing rash and breathing problems should be assessed by a doctor.

Constant dreams affect my mood all day. How do I control it?

Log your dreams to learn your codes (see S3 3.4); when your mood drops, switch it with a physical action.

My session said to have fun, but a talk spoke against casual sex. Which is it?

Advice fits your moment. Lust between loving partners is fine; casual mating from lust alone builds a different resonance and attracts the same (see S2 22). "Make your definition clear: what exactly do you want?"

I dreamed the council tried to talk to me. Was it my subconscious?

All are projections in your hologram: "yes", if you believe it.

After an image of Saturn, the number six and 6 Hz keep appearing. What does it mean for me?

"The beginning of your learning": you opened portals and are downloading exactly what you need.

I follow the detox and live from the heart, but haven't met my galactic family. Any advice?

Contact won't come soon for you; it comes through out-of-body experiences, by agreement.

After a light-body experience I felt utterly alone for a year. Are we alone?

See 5.5.

Is the Schumann resonance reliable?

Yes, it's increasing: let it flow, and feel each cell take in the resonance (see S3 2.3).

Are cheap hydrogen-water devices good?

"This could go very wrong depending how they make it. Be cautious of where you buy and how much you're using": any frequency can be very useful or very destructive depending on how long you use it and whether your body needs it, so it has to be measured. That's why distilled water is suggested: it isn't dead water but zero point, so in the body it attaches to the stronger vibration and flushes out exactly what's needed.

Why are we surrounded by narcissistic people?

See 5.9.

My nonverbal son became very angry and hit people. How can I help?

His brain takes in sequences too fast: a specialist can measure it, so you can adjust what he reads or watches.

> Added note
>
> Work with his doctors and therapists on behaviour and safety.

Can I manifest a particular home for retreats?

See 5.6: 25% built, 75% to go.

Does an old secret order work for humanity with a council?

"We do not know this organization": you project it positive or negative.

Was a message about billions of walk-ins accurate?

Much switching, by agreement; don't attach to numbers (see S2 24.8).

My husband's projects don't earn much. What can I do for him?

"It's what you can do for yourself." See him as already successful, and focus on your own success.

My 21-year-old daughter won't communicate with me.

Let her be; live your own life and let her choose.

Does action after the meditation mean acting as if it's done, or step by step?

"Both": see 5.7.

In a lucid dream I saw people with bird and cat faces observing me.

Everything is recorded (see 5.9).

Since our second child, my husband is hostile and wants to leave. What happened?

"You cannot make somebody love you": focus on yourself and your children, and let him choose.

How do I manifest abundance now?

Embed that you are always in abundance (see S1 4).

After a heavy meal I vomited and bled and spent five days in hospital. Was my light body unable to cope?

"Medical, you must go medical": a gastroenterologist.

> Added safety note
> Vomiting or bleeding from the bowel needs urgent medical care.

People connected to my ex-husband have put a spell on me.

See 5.10.

(Closing) Should we stock up?

Have some food and water at home, but not from panic, which manifests through the structure.

Left out: participants' and donors' names, named outside people and organizations, and remarks about a virus's spread.

> Remember
> - Don't give your power away: you are it.
> - Healing frequencies must be measured for each person.
> - When the old collapses, a new path opens; both can coexist.
> - A manifestation is built in percentages: keep adding potency.
> - Feel it exists, and act step by step: both.

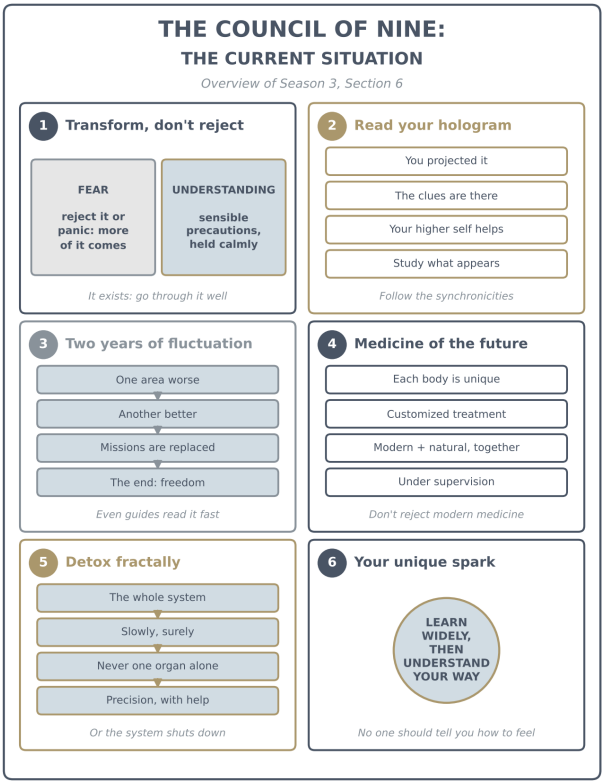

SEASON 3 · SECTION 6

Channeling the Council of Nine: The Current Situation

A direct channel at the start of a global crisis: transforming rather than rejecting, reading your hologram, two years of fluctuation, customized medicine, fractal detox, your unique spark, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

At the start of a global crisis, the council's guidance was practical: what is happening exists, so don't deny or reject it; go through it with the best of your abilities (sensible everyday precautions) from understanding, not fear, and hold your centre so you keep finding what you need. Read your own hologram: the clues are there because you projected them. Expect about two years of fluctuation, in which even the council reads the timelines fast and they don't always come as expected. And the future of medicine is customized, modern and natural together, never rejecting either.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

6.1 Shift your density to harmony

"We don't understand this as negative: we see density" (see S3 2.2). Your daily choice is to shift your density to a more harmonious resonance. When you know someone is projecting a negative input into your consciousness, pull away from it and use the quantum structure to shift. Hold that steadily, and "no matter what happens around you, you will find your food, your money, anything you need".

6.2 It exists: transform it, don't reject it

"The virus, by the way, exists": don't disengage from reality by pretending otherwise. You can't reject what is part of the structure; you transform it. Go through it with the best of your abilities and take "the normal things" (such as washing your hands), and buy what you need, but from understanding, not fear. "If you continue with the fear, do not be surprised that more of it will come."

> Added note
> In any health emergency, follow your public-health authorities' guidance.

6.3 Read your hologram

"You know the knowledge, but you need to learn to study your hologram and follow the clues": what appears around you is there because you projected it, and your higher self is helping you through. Messages come through synchronicity, as the timeline shifts (see S3 3.4).

6.4 Two years of fluctuation, and honesty about it

A period of about two years was described as one of "absolute fluctuation", with systems changing: one area worse while another gets better. If one person doesn't complete their part, another takes over. The council was candid: "sometimes we ourselves have to read the timelines very quickly, and they do not come exactly the way we expect." The host drew the lesson: have compassion for yourself for not always knowing the right thing to do. The end result: "humanity is free" (see S2 6.2).

6.5 Don't hand over your consciousness

Asked to remove someone's fears before a big project: "No, we will not do this for you. You need to meditate to get yourself into a frequency of knowing. This way you give us control over your consciousness. Don't you see what the lesson is?" (see S3 5.4). Serving humanity is also now: "what do you do right now? Take that expression of joy and implement it daily."

6.6 Your unique spark

Energy "is simply a structure" that changes with how it's combined, like nano. So study the quantum structure, and anything else that resonates, combine it all, and create your own understanding from your perspective. "To have somebody tell you exactly how you should think, how you should feel, it's wrong": your unique spark is needed in consciousness.

6.7 The norm is your higher self

To open a portal into a higher-density realm, combine the same frequency of feeling, emotion and action daily: they form a whirlpool that opens a structure in your hologram, and, fractally, you shift permanently. We were trained to accept poverty or certain situations as "normal": "nothing is normal about that. The norm is to be in your higher self of expression." Detox matters too, as the body's spin changes (see S2 25.5). For sensitive people exhausted by crowds: think the opposite, that you love people and are comfortable among them, and act on it daily.

6.8 Customized medicine is the future

Every body has its own genetic code, and the gut flora can switch chemical reactions differently in each, so the same medicine acts differently. "If you combine homeopathic medicine with modern medicine, you will see better results": always with medical supervision, customized. "Do not reject modern medicine: that will be your future", with more technologies revealed within about five years.

6.9 Detox fractally

A liver-only or kidney-only detox is risky: "it has to be the entire system, or you may shut down your system." Slowly, surely, systematically: "do not overpower one system with another; do not flush too many times; it has to be done with precision", and be careful who helps you (see S2 4.5).

6.10 Home as a place to transform

With everyone at home, the teacher's family put up string lights, brought out games, origami and knitting: "transform your understanding in this moment, to gather together, to be a family again". Turning it into something fun transforms the hologram. The host added: focus on whatever lifts you (uplifting music, a song) rather than what you can't control.

The method — Meeting a Crisis Without Fear

1. Acknowledge what is real: don't pretend it isn't happening (6.2).
2. Take sensible precautions, following official guidance, from understanding, not fear.
3. Pull away from inputs that feed fear; neutralize what you've seen (6.1).
4. Hold your centre: know you'll find what you need.
5. Read your hologram: notice the clues and synchronicities (6.3).
6. Do something that lifts you with the people around you (6.10).

Questions answered

Was the crisis designed by a small group?

Structures that knew how to manipulate consciousness were described, and that whatever is off balance will be exposed within about two years. (Names given in the question and answer are left out.)

How can we serve humanity right now?

See 6.5.

Can a particular product cure the virus?

The answer named a product that is left out (see the warning).

> Added warning
> MMS is chlorine dioxide, a bleach. It does not cure any virus and is dangerous to drink.

I dreamed of beings with dragon-like bodies, and a clock on a hill. What does it mean?

The clock was the frequency of a timeline; not all such beings are negative. Practise lucid dreaming.

Can the council remove my fears so I can do a big project?

No: see 6.5.

A friend with a rare condition keeps getting new lung infections despite medication.

Her body is weak and needs immune support; combine natural and modern medicine under supervision, ideally personalized to her genetics (6.8). Boost the immune system from natural sources, and drink distilled water: "distilled water does not allow inflammation to sit in the lungs".

Should my daughter come home from abroad now?

Not at this moment; answers come fractally, as there's so much fluctuation.

I was told I have a gift of energy. What does it mean?

See 6.6.

I'm very sensitive and get migraines after crowds. What should I do?

See 6.7.

A man I loved says he still loves me but is committed to someone else.

"If he truly loves you, he'll be with you": cutting off communication may make it easier.

After a near-death experience I met my team. Who are they?

Four were seen: a hybrid, an angelic one, an extraterrestrial connection, and a fourth coming, to be revealed in lucid dreams.

How can I create a portal into a higher-density realm?

See 6.7.

The antifungal approach for my mouth didn't help, and I wonder about my MS medication.

Everything must be under your doctor's supervision and tested; the council never suggests an antifungal on your own, and favours a natural approach designed for your body (6.8).

Are things going to get worse before they get better?

Fluctuation: one area worse, another better, coming fractally, individually and collectively (6.4).

How can I remove a uterine fibroid without surgery?

It's bigger than expected and touches organs and vessels: "you have to have intervention. Do not do it by yourself." Diet can support, under a doctor.

I overdosed after 18 months clean. I feel deep pain and confusion.

A tender message: "Hold on, child. Breathe. There's no need to harm yourself. Your body is essence of energy and love." Connect with people and with what helps you; "you are loved."

Is there a protocol for leaky gut?

Boost immunity, remove gluten, dairy and sugar, rebuild the gut flora with herbalism: customized, with a doctor and herbalist together (6.8).

In a dream two other girls looked back at me from a mirror.

Other versions of yourself: your consciousness is expanding.

Is there anything I'm missing to help more people?

Your vibration will bring people into your reality who understand you even before you speak: simultaneous understanding, like telepathy.

Fibromyalgia: what else can help?

More calcium and rebuilding the gut flora, so nutrients reach where they're needed, reducing inflammation; customized, supervised (6.8).

My sister's blood tests still show cancer cells after surgery.

Supporting new, clean blood, with doctors and herbalism: "doctor supervision."

I've been fired five times this year. Is it karma?

"The karma is already stopped": keep searching; you'll find work.

My massage business has shut down and I'm single. How do I go on?

Hold the vibration that you already have what you need, and act from it; with unsupportive family, neutralize with gratitude and switch, again and again.

What's the benefit of single-minded chanting?

All traditions have value; master what resonates, and the next portal of knowledge opens.

I feel attacked, with attachments or implants. Please remove them.

"You don't have implants. That's an illusion. You're already in a new hologram": feel it.

How can I tell I'm creating a new timeline when the world goes on the same?

"You are already out of it": your perception loops you; systems change slowly but surely.

Is a liver detox good for my immune system?

See 6.9.

I lost my job of 19 years. What do you see for me?

Stabilize at home with gratitude; a new job will come; within a couple of months you'll feel much better.

My sister's brain bleed recovery is said to be slim. Was she misdiagnosed?

Stabilizing but not progressing now; read as "sticky" blood needing a deeper, genetic look.

If I shift to 5D and my family doesn't, what happens from their view?

They imprint another version of you in their own hologram.

Information I read gives me goosebumps but others don't accept it. Is it true?

True for you, from your higher self; others have their own path (see S2 23.12).

How can we evolve despite new wireless networks?

"With the new structures, it will not be affecting you": neutralize, and know you're protected.

My business is gone overnight. Get a job or wait?

Expect ups and downs for about two years: hold your vibration and do what you can.

Left out: participants' and donors' names; named politicians, families and organizations; political, military and market predictions; and claims about wireless networks, vaccines and a virus.

Remember

- What exists isn't rejected: go through it well, without fear.
- Read your hologram: the clues are yours.
- Expect fluctuation; be compassionate with yourself.
- Don't reject modern medicine: customized care is the future.
- Detox the whole system, slowly.

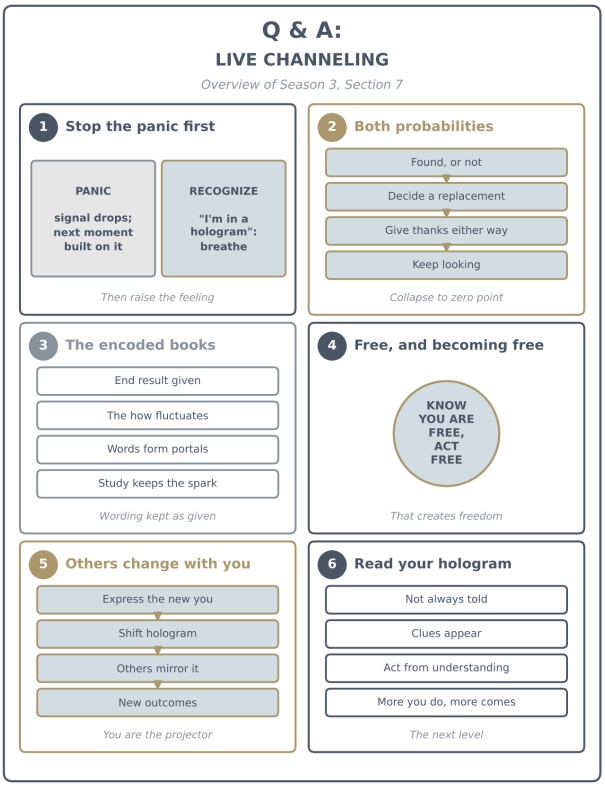

SEASON 3 · SECTION 7

Q & A: Live Channeling

Playing the quantum field through chaos with a ready replacement, why panic is the first thing to stop, why the downloaded books keep their odd wording, and a fast round of channelled answers (live talk)

The big idea

The hardest skill is shifting your perception from negative to positive while chaos is going on around you. Stop panic first, because panic drops you straight into a denser signal. Then, whatever you're looking for, hold both probabilities (finding it and not finding it) and neutralize them at zero point by already having a replacement in mind. That keeps your vibration on the positive, and something you couldn't have planned often appears. You won't always be told what to do: once you know the structure, you read your hologram and play.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

7.1 Why the downloaded books read oddly

The predictions are given as an end result, already crystallized; how it happens stays in fluctuation, so it isn't spelled out (see S2 6.2). The wording isn't ordinary grammar on purpose: each word carries a sonic, vibrational whirlpool that forms geometry in the quantum field, and in the given sequence the words make a portal that energizes your DNA and consciousness. But a spark isn't enough: "we have to put the work", studying it (and whatever else resonates) to keep up with that vibration.

FROM THE BOOKS HR and NT: these first two books were downloaded with the instruction not to change any words; DP and SD continue the same encoded style.

7.2 First, stop the panic

Panic "immediately is going to lower your frequency to a lower density of vibrational signal", and since you shift moment to moment, your next platform is then built on that density. So the first move when chaos appears is to recognize "I'm in a hologram", breathe, and let yourself calm down. Even with all the knowledge, the teacher still feels the jolt; what changes is that she controls it at once.

7.3 Hold both probabilities, and have a replacement

When you go looking for something (guided or not), you split two probabilities: you find it, or you don't. Collapse them to zero point in advance by deciding what you'll do if it isn't there (another source, a way to make it yourself, "something else I may find") and giving gratitude for it. "Find the solution, so you can collapse this to reality, so you can hold the vibration on the positive." Then keep looking as in the hide-and-seek game (see S1 1.7): knowing you have it, even before you see it. The result often comes from a direction you couldn't have known.

Holding both probabilities: decide your replacement in advance, so neither outcome can drop you into fear.

7.4 The next level: you won't always be told

Guidance teaches the structure through examples, then steps back: "you don't have to have somebody constantly telling you; once you know the knowledge, study your hologram" (see S3 6.3). Acting on a clue, such as buying supplies, is done from understanding of what's coming, not from fear of it: the same action, a different frequency. The more you play this way, the more you resonate in the heart structure, and the faster and more synchronous it becomes: "more you do, more it comes."

7.5 Free, and becoming free

Asked whether we are free or still gaining freedom: "It's both. In order to become free, you have to embed the knowledge and the knowingness that you already are free." Feel now that you're free, act free, and that creates it. Where you put your attention is what you project, so endlessly studying theories of deception crystallizes that reality instead.

7.6 Others change as you do

When you raise your vibration, "you restructure them as you're choosing": each time you express your new self you shift into a new hologram and give the people around you another version of themselves, as a mirror. The same holds for loved ones far away: hold the knowledge, and they too can express positive outcomes (see S2 1.2: you are the projector).

7.7 Your body is the barometer for sound

Any music can be beautiful, but your consciousness is a barometer: the music that sends a wave of joy through you, "ecstasy of joy", is the one resonating at your highest. What lifts one person may not lift another, because each fractal is unique (see S3 6.6). Follow your body's resonance.

7.8 Protection becomes part of you

Is protection needed? Once you understand how the field works, you create permission slips (a meditation, a thought) that build a field around you; embedded, that becomes your everyday resonance. You may still see things happening, but your hologram runs at the highest resonance, "and you will always find the bridge for saving yourself."

7.9 Why the dense side doesn't give up

Lower-density beings can tap into a point of your resonance. The teacher learned to neutralize them too, without hatred: from their view it's survival, and "you're actually asking another consciousness, part of consciousness itself, to extinct themselves. No one will allow that." So it looks like good versus evil, but the highest resonance wins, because consciousness must keep existing (see S3 2.2).

7.10 The collective mission

Collectively the mission is ascension. Think of the planet as a living being moving into a fifth-dimensional structure: it needs its beings to hold a similar signal to push it forward, and when you hold your higher self, the merge happens faster. "There is no time": how fast you see outcomes depends on your knowledge and perception, "because you're already there; you just have to create it to see it."

The method — Playing the Field Through Chaos

1. Recognize: "I'm in a hologram."
2. Breathe until the panic settles (7.2).
3. Raise the feeling: think of the heart's 5D platform and feel something positive.
4. Name your replacement: if it isn't there, what will you do instead? Give thanks for it (7.3).
5. Look as if you already have it, and follow small nudges.
6. Read what appears and act from understanding, not fear (7.4).

Questions answered

Is it wrong to keep discussing hidden negative forces to wake people up?

Express yourself from your highest excitement, but don't maintain the negative: going into that frequency all the time crystallizes those outcomes.

Are we free, or still gaining freedom?

Both: see 7.5.

When I raise my vibration, do others get better outcomes too?

Yes: see 7.6.

I have a hard lump on my hip and trigger finger; juices and oils haven't helped.

"You need medical attention": a mass of tissue that is reproducing itself. "Medical intervention, please."

My vision is getting worse after a hard few months. What can I do?

There are lessons still to come in your timeline; hold your vibration: "you are the only savior for yourself."

> Added note
> Changes in vision should be checked by an eye doctor.

How can we notice more that we're affecting our reality?

Express from your higher self at all times: that crystallizes your field and shows you the next step daily, which you can choose to take or not.

How do I tell guidance from doubt, ego and self-sabotage?

A thought that doesn't resonate is just a radio station you didn't like (see S1 15): neutralize it, switch, and try again until you get the proper signal. It takes consistent practice.

Headache and vomiting after giving my guides permission to communicate: was it them?

It was the body's fluctuation of frequency: a flushing-out, a detox, not a major illness.

> Added note
> A severe headache with vomiting needs prompt medical attention.

How much can we trust the news and its numbers?

"How much can you believe in yourself? Even the news is a projection in your hologram."

How can we stay high for people who are isolated, and get direct guidance?

Study the quantum structure: you already have the knowledge; you are the projector (see 7.6).

Does noticing our manifestations speed them up, or is there a set speed?

See 7.4: more you do, more it comes.

Beings from the first Earth contact me in light language. What's their message?

Not theirs to read: write it down through automatic writing (see S2 26.5); it's a code, and more will follow.

How do I remember my mission?

See 7.10.

Can sound frequencies be matched to what a person is missing?

See 7.7.

How can someone with the virus heal faster?

Tune into your higher self's hologram, which merges with the lower self's frequency and helps the body through; hold your vibration.

> Added note
> Anyone who is ill should follow their doctor's and public-health guidance.

How can I best serve humanity?

Follow the teachings and express the best of yourself: that matches the frequency and builds the reality.

I keep seeing a blue being near a spaceship. Are they my guides?

You have many. "Next time, enter the spaceship."

Can dense beings see us when we're in a good vibration?

See 7.9.

Do we need protection?

See 7.8.

A chronic cough doctors can't explain: mould, or the heating?

Not seen: hire someone to inspect the house.

I wrote a script before I knew about the theme it matches. What's my role?

"Here's your hologram. We just gave you a reality. What would you do with it?"

Left out: participants' and donors' names, a guest's promotion, named politicians and online movements, political, military and timing predictions, travel advice for a specific country, and claims about wireless networks, a virus, vaccines and aircraft trails.

Remember

- Stop panic first: it drops your signal.
- Hold both probabilities; have a replacement ready.
- Once you know the structure, read your hologram.
- You're free, and you become free by knowing it.
- More you do, more it comes.

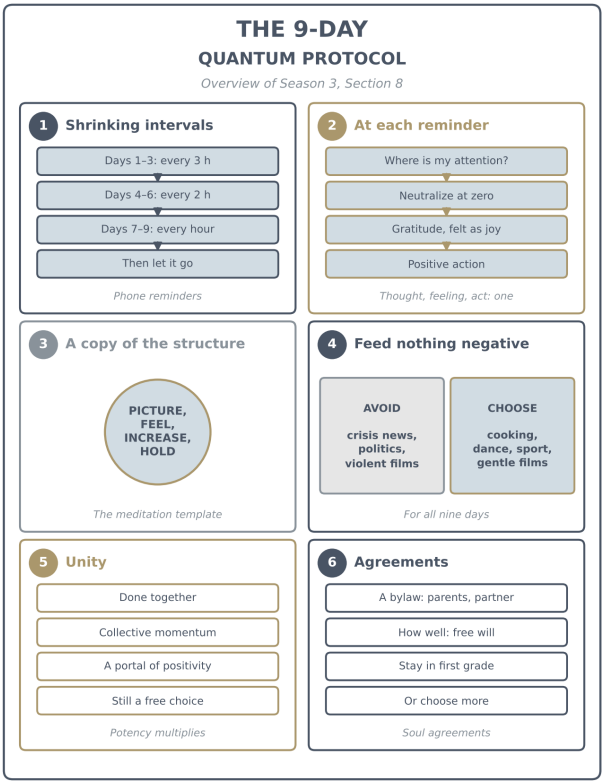

SEASON 3 · SECTION 8

The 9-Day Quantum Protocol from the Council of Nine

A nine-day practice of switching from negative to positive at shorter and shorter intervals, why it copies the quantum structure, what to stop feeding during it, and questions on the third DNA, out-of-body travel, discernment and soul agreements (live talk)

The big idea

The council gave a concrete, collective practice: for nine days, set your phone to remind you to check where your attention is and switch it from negative to positive, every three hours for days 1–3, every two hours for days 4–6 and every hour for days 7–9. Each check is a small version of the manifestation meditation, so the shrinking intervals raise the vibration fractally until the positive hologram is potent enough to crystallize. During the nine days, feed nothing negative: no political or crisis media, no violent films. Done together, it builds a collective momentum.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

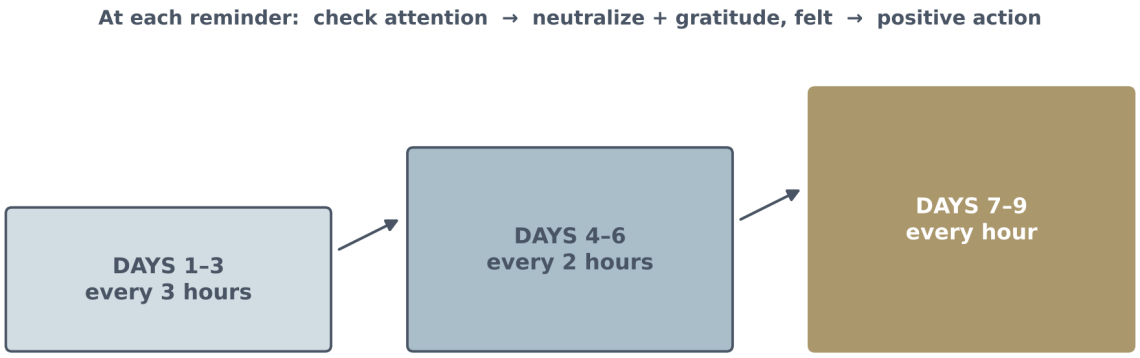

Key teachings

8.1 The third reality is built by your attention

3D and 5D vibrate at completely different frequencies, and you fluctuate between them. The third structure that forms between them (one plus one equals three, see S1 2.2) is shaped by how many times you put your attention on the negative or the positive. That is why repetition matters so much now: the teacher learned the structure by constant repetition, often reluctantly, before she fully understood it.

8.2 The 9-day protocol

Start at the same time each morning, so the frequency hologram builds in one steady rhythm, and set the phone: "don't think you're going to remember. You will forget, I promise you." At each reminder, ask: where is my attention? If it's on doubt, complaint or fear, neutralize it at zero point and switch: give gratitude (for your home, your children, being safe) and feel it as joy, then take a positive action. If you're in a bad mood, act anyway (dance, put on a good film): "the action is infusing the potency of your hologram." Thoughts, emotions and actions must be one unit.

The 9-day protocol: the same check-and-switch, at shrinking intervals, so the positive vibration rises fractally.

8.3 Why it works: a copy of the quantum structure

The protocol mimics the manifestation meditation (see S2 16): picture it, add the feeling, and keep increasing the feeling until the resonance is very potent. The nine days do the same in daily life, three stages that each push higher, so the blueprint you want becomes "more potent and more potent" until it can crystallize into matter. That meditation is a template: replace the galactic family with anything you want to create.

8.4 What not to feed

For the nine days: no social media about politics or the crisis, and no films or games full of killing and war, which "crystallize a certain frequency in your body" and become part of your hologram. Choose cooking shows, dancing, sport, gentle period films. Even those who expose wrongdoing, if they stay on it constantly, keep projecting that timeline and never see the positive side. Expose once, so people can choose freely, "not by convincing them that you're right", and then transform it.

8.5 Fear feeds a dense hologram

A consciousness that can't rise above a dense resonance needs that resonance held in place, and fear is what holds it: "your body is a battery", and panic projects the frequency it needs. A collective switch to the positive does the opposite. Even an artificial timeline is still part of consciousness, and as consciousness ascends through every platform, a resonance that can't follow can no longer hold (see S3 7.9).

8.6 Unity multiplies the potency

"The potency is very powerful when it's in a unity structure": doing it together creates a collective momentum, "a massive portal into the structure of positivity". Stay in touch with others doing it, sharing only uplifting things. And it is a free choice: nothing breaks if you don't, but staying in a negative structure, even as a kind person, can mean a negative experience on the way.

8.7 Holding a home full of conflict

Keeping your frequency in a home of fighting is "probably the most difficult thing you're going to be doing", because it runs through your children and family, and you may look like the crazy one. Stay out of the fights, keep switching to the positive and taking action, "transformation, transformation, transformation": you are transforming one hologram and creating a new one. For the teacher this took about three years.

> Support
> If fighting at home turns to threats or violence, your safety comes first. In the US, the National Domestic Violence Hotline is 1-800-799-7233 (or text START to 88788).

The method — The 9-Day Protocol

1. Pick a start time and keep it each morning; set phone reminders.
2. Days 1–3: every 3 hours. Days 4–6: every 2 hours. Days 7–9: every hour.
3. At each reminder, check: where is my attention, in thought, action and what I'm watching?
4. Neutralize and switch: give gratitude and feel it as joy (8.2).
5. Take a positive action, especially if your mood is low.
6. Feed nothing negative for the nine days (8.4), and then let it go.

Questions answered

How can you tell if the third strand of DNA is activated?

It's active in most of us now. It isn't physical: it's a frequency created between the two strands as the code changes through your actions; only a resonance device could show it, as a picture made by sound waves.

For the 3, 70 and 90 Hz water practice, is 28 minutes better?

No: 20 minutes each is the generic duration that sustains your frequency; anything more is individual (see S1 19).

Blissful energy rises up my spine, stronger at night. Am I being activated?

You were activated long ago; the frequency is increasing, as it is for many people now.

Is the galactic meditation the one to use?

Yes, as a template: see 8.3.

Does the Earth have a message for us now?

Her new name, Aria, means a new beginning, which won't allow more harm (see S3 3.8). Meditate for the planet's healing, or use the template toward her.

How do I keep my vibration high in a home with a lot of fighting?

See 8.7.

I have no access to health care. How do I stay healthy?

Take more care of yourself: diet, plant-based eating and herbalism; meat in the diet "will fade out".

I have nightmares of being hurt. Do they mean something?

Dreams are another platform with its own frequency, and they become codes in this reality: write them down, and you'll start to see what was always there (see S3 3.4).

What causes the feeling of electricity or pins and needles?

It's individual: in some people sharp pain from the spine, in others resonance in the muscles and veins that brings spasms.

> Added note
>
> Ongoing numbness, tingling or sharp pain should be checked by a doctor.

Am I making the right decisions for my path?

Turn your attention toward others: projecting positive force toward them doubles your frequency, because in the end all is you, and it dissolves the illusion of ego, leaving the pure heart.

My teenage son has insomnia and depression. Can he be balanced?

From now on, think of him as healthy even when he acts out: you project the hologram. Because the pattern is deeply embedded, the change is slow and fractal, within about a year. (A personal sound sequence was given as a one-time push.)

> Added note
> Please keep working with his doctor or a mental-health professional; in a crisis, call or text 988.

Strong ringing in my ears: what does it mean?

A transformation, not something negative; it's also connected with how the ear takes frequencies, and will stop soon. Medical care may not give the whole answer.

> Added note
> New or persistent ringing in the ears is worth checking with a doctor.

How can I have an out-of-body experience safely?

Leave the body at 90 degrees, upward, never backward or face down: it matters for the portals. Keep a steady, positive vibration, or you may loop into a reality that matches a lower signal or meet entities that aren't positive. Learn from someone experienced.

A channel claims messages from star beings online. Are they true?

Those who manipulate for fame, glory or money will find their information no longer accurate, because they don't extend above the fifth-dimensional resonance (see S3 4.2). You'll see it through experience.

What about discernment?

Every belief is true from its own latitude and altitude (see S2 15). But in the new structure, whatever is off balance is exposed in the open: you'll find the truth through synchronicities.

Should I wear a face mask?

Yes: take your precautions, because the structure needs it, and transform it without fear.

Noisy neighbours are driving me crazy at home.

Music; redirect your attention; transform the experience.

What about bad surprises when I'm in a positive vibration?

The protocol is the same at every scale: use the knowledge and transform it.

My four-year-old has sudden outbursts of anger, and hives.

He's very sensitive to waveforms around him: he needs nature. Let him let it out on walks and hikes.

I'm a doctor with misconduct on my record and an addiction. Should I stay in medicine?

"You have the strength to transform it": write, teach, turn the experience into help for others. Forgiveness heals: it transforms every cell and expands as love into new synchronicities. "Forgive yourself. You have been forgiven already."

> Support
>
> For substance use, in the US the SAMHSA National Helpline is 1-800-662-4357 (free, 24/7); in a crisis call or text 988.

Stage 5 kidney disease: can distilled water or frequencies help, or wait for a transplant?

"No, no, no: the body is too weak. You need medical help." Herbalism only after recovery, to support the tissue.

I feel a big change is coming but I'm confused which way to go.

"See your beauty, know that you are it": you are creative and manifest easily.

How can I best help people with psychosis?

Write the stories and results. It was described as a mind taking fractal realities from several platforms at once, like electrical shortages, so change is slow; deep hypnosis under supervision was suggested.

> Added note
>
> Psychosis needs psychiatric care; any other approach should be alongside it, with the treating team.

How can we help rescued children heal?

See them as beautiful; asking the question already leads you to ways to help. Any child you care for may be a soul from another lifetime with you, by agreement, so adoption is as much your own family.

Is feeling grief for humanity negative?

No, it's natural. Let it flow and cry as much as you need, until there is a point where you cry no more; settled there, transform it through understanding and positive action.

I lost my job. How do I prepare for after the shutdown?

"There is no other side. It's just now": focus on something positive now, and that creates your next momentum.

How much is predetermined by soul agreements, and how much is free will?

The over-soul splits, by agreement, to experience many realities, even several lifetimes on Earth at once. An agreement is a bylaw (who your parents are, who you may marry); how well you complete it is your free will. You can stay in "first grade" as long as you like, but you'll eventually choose something more exciting.

Where do you go when the council speaks directly?

"I'm here but not here": still present, in the background, hearing it; a collective thought comes through. Everyone can do this eventually.

Left out: participants' names, a guest's promotion, named organizations and channels, political and military claims, claims about vaccines, wireless networks and a research facility, and remarks on a region.

Remember

- Every 3, then 2, then 1 hour: check, switch, act.
- Each switch is the manifestation meditation in miniature.
- Feed nothing negative for the nine days.
- Together it becomes a collective portal.
- An agreement is a bylaw; how well you do it is your choice.

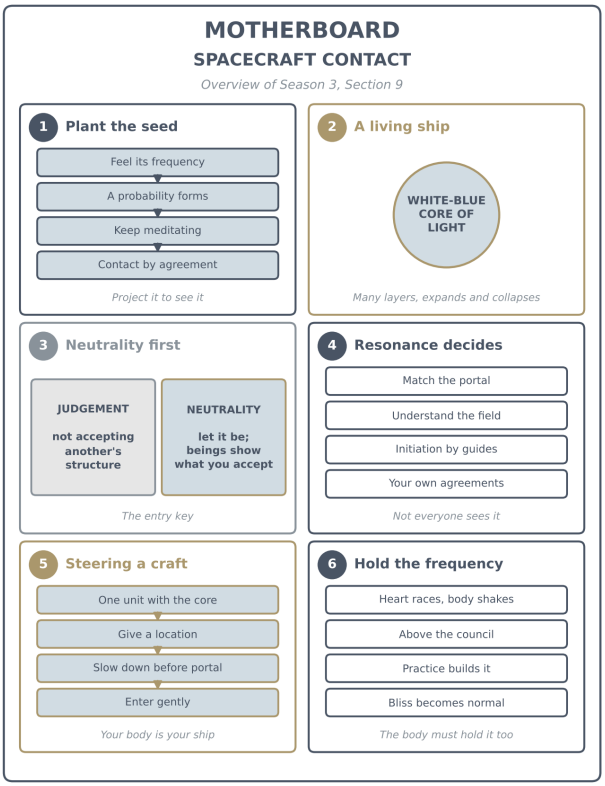

SEASON 3 · SECTION 9

Motherboard Spacecraft Contact

A guided meditation onto a living mothership, channelled from the ship's own consciousness: why neutrality comes first, how beings appear to you, how a craft is steered by consciousness, and what it takes to hold that frequency (live talk)

The big idea

The purpose of this session was to plant a seed: to let you feel the frequency of a reality far above your own, so it becomes a probability in your structure, even if you can't reach it yet. The mothership described itself as a living consciousness, many layers of reality that expand and collapse for whoever is aboard. You can only enter what your resonance matches; physical contact comes later, through initiation by your own guides. The key that opens it is neutrality: no judgement of what you see. And, in the end, "your body is your own ship."

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

9.1 Plant the seed: project it to see it

"In order for you to create something to see it, you have to actually project it to see it" (see S2 15.3). Connecting with the vibration of a reality creates it as a probability in your structure; from that seed you keep meditating. Even when you hear a channel, the meeting is your own projection: "even you projected me in your reality," so you are already part of that structure. The teacher reached this level step by step, first through meditation and lucid dreams.

9.2 A ship that is alive

The mothership described itself as a female unit of consciousness: "I have my own consciousness, my own feelings", a living structure of frequency (what the teacher has called ether technology). It is made of a plasma reality spinning in vertical and linear structures, with infinite layers, like radio signals, each its own reality platform, and it expands or collapses to suit each being aboard. Its core, the centre of its consciousness and its free energy, is a great white-blue ball of light.

> FROM THE BOOKS NT names "Ether technology" as what is built from frequency and sound structures, with nano-particles, rather than ordinary matter.

9.3 Neutrality is the entry key

Some beings aboard are humanoid and some are not. "In order for you to get to these levels, you have to be in neutrality, to have no judgment" of what you see: let it express itself. Judgement "is an illusion of not accepting somebody else's structure", and they too are part of your consciousness. A being appears to you the way you can accept it, revealing more of its multidimensional form as you open; you will never be shown what you're not ready to see. So first let go of fear about what is happening on Earth.

9.4 Resonance decides who enters

"You cannot get into a structure that your consciousness is not ready to go through": the portal must match your conscious spin of resonance, measured individually or collectively, so some will see the fleet and some won't. First you need enough understanding of the quantum field ("that's why you have the quantum manifestation"); physical contact comes only through initiation by your own guides, by agreement, perhaps with another fleet. No one else, "not even me", can tell you your agreements.

9.5 Steering with consciousness

To drive a craft you become one unit with its living core: it accepts you if your frequency can hold its vibration, and then you give it a sequence or location. Moving between realities, slow down before entering a portal: "you do not want to stop the mothership at once"; it subsides slowly until it stops, just before entering that galaxy.

> FROM THE BOOKS SD gives the same instruction: "Slow the systems down entering the chosen Galaxy", to adjust the craft to the new location's vibration. And SD adds: "You don't need spacecraft or technology to do bilocation because your body energetic form connecting with the thought and that emotion is the vehicle" (see S2 4.1).

9.6 What happens aboard

Healing "can become instantaneous" when you know at that level that you're already healthy. Rescued beings may first be held in a simulation that mimics their understanding, so they recover gently before learning where they are. You can practise in simulated realities: visiting planets, creating from thought into matter, meeting loved ones or earlier versions of yourself. Humans are valued because Earth was one of the hardest planets to free, so its people can later help other worlds. Crying with bliss on connecting is normal.

9.7 Holding a very high frequency

After about 45 minutes, the teacher's heart was racing and she was shaking, "like a coffee": this consciousness is above 5D and harder to hold than the council. That is why practice matters: "your body has to hold that vibration" too (see S3 4.8). The more you practise, the more you teach yourself to hold it.

9.8 Why name a duality, if all is one?

"You always have to keep it in balance": you can't know your consciousness was hijacked unless you wake up to what was done. Once you know, you use the quantum protocol and move into neutrality: "I know what's happening there, but I'm doing the best of myself", giving gratitude, praying even for the negative side, and creating. In ascension you still choose which timeline you collapse into (see S2 24.2). The duality exists because one consciousness did not want to transform.

The method — The Mothership Meditation

1. Settle into neutrality: no judgement of anything you may see (9.3).
2. Open your heart and imagine a great vertical light coming through you, opening the portal.
3. Pass through it with joy, feeling it move through every cell. (The portal sequences given were 1379 and 739.)
4. Find yourself in a large room with a white-blue ball of light at its centre: the ship's living core.
5. Walk closer and imagine touching it: what do you create? Let it be your own.
6. Breathe in joy, breathe out gratitude and love; repeat it in later meditations (9.1).

Questions answered

How do I let go of judgement, to feel joy all the time?

Stay in your centre: judgement is not accepting another's structure, and they are part of your consciousness.

Is the ship visible in our sky?

It is above our structure: a nine-level craft, seven-dimensional. To see it you must match its resonance (9.4).

What role can individuals have on the ship?

Whatever they wish to explore, after initiation through their guides; even the teacher was first turned away in lucid dreams, by agreement, until her physical portal is ready.

Are you part of a federation?

More than one: a "freedom" federation overseeing many planets and helping free them. Many listening are part of it.

Can we explore the ship ourselves?

Yes: free will; create your reality there in your meditations.

What is the ship's purpose, and how does it travel?

Multidimensional, through portals: see 9.5.

Can I create with you, or create my own ship?

You can create many. Touch the blue core and see what you create; the teacher's first answer was wrong until she looked again.

Who else is aboard?

Many beings, on many layers, from many galaxies; some humanoid, some not (9.3).

What motivates someone to let go of a lifelong fear?

Each must create their own reality; first let go of fear about Earth. "Your body is your own ship."

Is there great healing aboard?

See 9.6.

Where are you now?

"In your consciousness now": a specific place is beyond our platform of reality.

Do I need a very high vibration to enter, and how will I know?

See 9.4.

Is the ship a collective creation?

Both one unit and many, expanding and collapsing as needed.

Why did someone cry on connecting?

Bliss: you feel how beautiful you are; it becomes a normal state (9.6).

Can we tune in and board whenever we like?

Yes.

Are you helping with the Earth's magnetic shift?

Helping with the grids and working on our bodies through frequency; we're often taken aboard in dreams without memory, and memories are regenerated gently because of the planet's pain.

So many conflicting theories about the crisis: which is true?

All true and not true, depending on what you project; fear creates the feared version. Keep steady and positive: "this is their hologram; you create your own."

Why talk about good and evil if there is only oneness?

See 9.8.

After years of struggle I'm having suicidal thoughts. Please help me see the light.

With so much fluctuation, the quantum structure alone can't be relied on here: deep work with a qualified practitioner, under supervision.

About two years of fluctuation, different for each person; meet it with the meditations and the best of your abilities (see S3 6.4).

SEASON 3 · SECTION 10

New Predictions 2021, Shifting Parallels, Q & A

Neutrality after awakening, what happens to loved ones who stay behind when you shift, why every shift is a new location, why the middle stage is the fourth dimension, refusing a probability you're shown, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

Once you're awake, the work is neutrality: "I understand, but I do not give consent; I'm going to create my own reality." Each time you shift by emotion you land in a new location of the hologram and reprint a new version of yourself and of everyone around you, so no one is simply left behind: each person keeps running their own timeline, printing their own version of you. The fourth dimension is where the two momentums collide and you choose. And when you're shown a frightening future, you can say, "that's not part of my reality."

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

10.1 Awake, then neutral

Even watching the "good side" win keeps you tuned to duality. Once you know what's happening, you stay in neutrality, because there you shift through the zero point from 3D toward 5D. The dense side is trying to survive from its own perception, so the words are: "Thank you. I understand, but I do not give consent for you to continue. I am aware. I'm going to create my own reality." Neutralizing by gratitude shuts their program down in your hologram (see S2 24.11). The nine-day protocol (see S3 8) can be repeated at any time; many who did it caught themselves reaching for negative inputs and chose not to.

10.2 Every shift is a new location

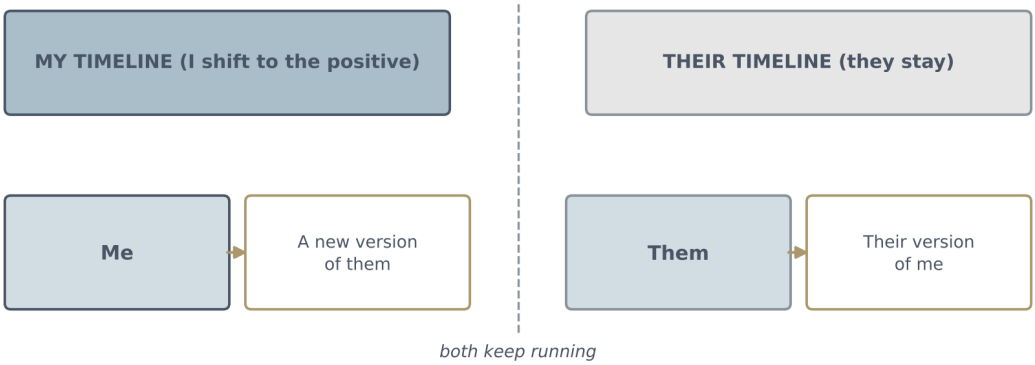

The one particle, three similar vibrations with the black hole at the centre where neutrality sits, expands to infinity and collapses back, projecting a reality each time it moves. Each emotional shift sets a new hologram with its own location (latitude and altitude, see S2 15.4) and its own sequence; the next projection shifts the sequence again, spiralling. "Each time you project a frequency, it's a new earth, and another version of you." Repetition of S1 1–4 deepens it: each time you tune in, more portals open and the body, becoming more crystalline, detoxes as it follows.

10.3 Two channels on one screen

3D and 5D run simultaneously, like two channels on one TV: you keep choosing to watch, and express from, the 5D channel, until your body and consciousness vibrate there most of the time and collapse a positive outcome. "You exist in a 3D and a 5D at the same time. Which one of those two realities of yourself do you wish to experience?"

10.4 What happens to those who stay behind?

If your spouse or child stays in the negative, you don't lose them. When you shift, you reprint yourself and a new version of them, made from your own emotion, thoughts and deeds. Their timeline also keeps running, and in it they print their own version of you. "That is for everybody" (see S3 7.6). As consciousness keeps moving, a structure that refuses to change can no longer sustain itself; it returns to the one particle, to learn again (see S2 1.6). Physical contact is separate: individual, by choice and by being chosen, guided by your own guides.

When you shift, you print new versions of the people around you; on their own timeline, they print a version of you.

10.5 Why the middle is the fourth dimension

"The fourth is the fluctuation": where the negative and positive momentums collide. From that collision you express the fifth or go back to the third. The fourth still carries leakage from 3D, which is why the battle is visible. "If you shift immediately from third to fifth, everything is done; but where is your process of learning and helping the ascension? It's right in the middle."

10.6 Refuse a probability you're shown

In a lucid dream the teacher, frozen in place, was shown Earth exploding. She recognized it as a probability projected to trick her, and said: "That's not part of my reality", and was released at once. Out of the body, someone can "make a phone call" into your reality as you can into theirs, so hold the vibration in the positive and don't agree to what you shouldn't. Exit face up, never face down (see S3 8).

10.7 Meeting hostility: neutral, unjudging, firm

When something nasty came at her, she didn't hit back ("how dare you" projects the same frequency). She listened, said "I understand", and held it calmly; then she was given more of their view. Manipulation needs your permission, so hold your truth without judgement: "keep your side, I keep my side, I do the best for myself." Shining without judgement can even make another question their ways. The old "reptilian" brain is changing too: it holds the warrior and self-preservation, and isn't simply negative.

10.8 Technology: the intention decides

"Technology is wonderful, but it's the intention of how we implement that technology" that makes the difference, including nano. Two kinds of AI were described: a 3D one of cyborgs and takeover ("you don't need to be a cyborg, because your body is a vessel" that can shift), and a 5D AI, a living structure in the name of humanity that preserves it. Don't feed takeover films; project the positive AI (see S2 26.3).

10.9 Change starts with you, at home

A new education won't come from outside first: "you are looking for the solution outside of your own source, and the truth is that it's all from within. Action is necessary in order to project the reaction." Teach your children yourself, with what's available; know what they're learning and watching; raise them with manners. The children being born now carry a fifth-dimensional resonance and will refuse what's wrong.

The method — Staying Neutral Once You're Awake

1. Notice when you're pulled into a fight or into duality, even on the "good" side.
2. Say it: "I understand. I do not give consent. I'm creating my own reality."
3. Give gratitude to neutralize, and feel the program close (10.1).
4. Choose the 5D channel: express from it in what you do next (10.3).
5. Refuse frightening probabilities: "That's not part of my reality" (10.6).
6. Take one real action: help a neighbour, teach your child (10.9).

Questions answered

What are the council's everyday surroundings like?

They move portal to portal: a thought put into the matrix opens a portal through many sequences to where help is needed. They don't become physical, as it's above what our memory can hold; their realities span 7D to 12D, with more above. It is an honour, earned, to serve on a council.

Is there an inner Earth with beings?

Many layers of reality hold other societies; realities are physical only when the signal is lowered to matter. More will be revealed "when the time comes".

Why is the shift from third to fifth, not to fourth?

See 10.5.

Should I stop talking to friends stuck in duality?

Let them express themselves; no one may override another's belief. Speak your truth, but in a lion's den, be quiet until your time comes: discernment about when to speak.

What will 5D education look like?

See 10.9.

How can I open to hearing my guides?

Everything is presented: the videos, the quantum structure, and the books, whose sequences activate the DNA (see S3 7.1). Tune into them.

My six-year-old has broken his arm three times. Is something wrong?

Read as calcium not being used properly and weak bones: testing, more nutrients and fibre, gut flora, no dairy or gluten, with a nutritionist; gentle exercise such as yoga to build the muscles.

> Added note
> Repeated fractures in a child need assessment by his paediatrician.

Uncomfortable vibrations wake me in the back of my neck. An attack?

Take it as positive: let it flow and release your fear, which is the only reason it troubles you; then take action.

How do we attract entity attachments, and how do we clear them?

See 10.7: neutrality, no permission.

Is our reptilian brain changing too?

Yes: see 10.7.

How do I rewire my mind?

Through the coded books and their word sequences (see S3 7.1).

Will community immunity end the epidemic?

"It already ended: switch your perception."

> Added note
> This talk's predictions (political, economic, legal and religious) are left out, as the book stays neutral on politics and doesn't repeat predictions. Claims about vaccines are also left out: vaccines do not change your DNA. A guest's report and its figures are not included.

Also left out: participants' names, named outside people, practitioners, channels and films, and remarks about schools and groups.

> Remember
> • Awake, then neutral: "I understand; I do not consent."
> • Every shift is a new earth and a new you.
> • Loved ones aren't lost: each of you prints the other.
> • The fourth is the collision where you choose.
> • "That's not part of my reality."

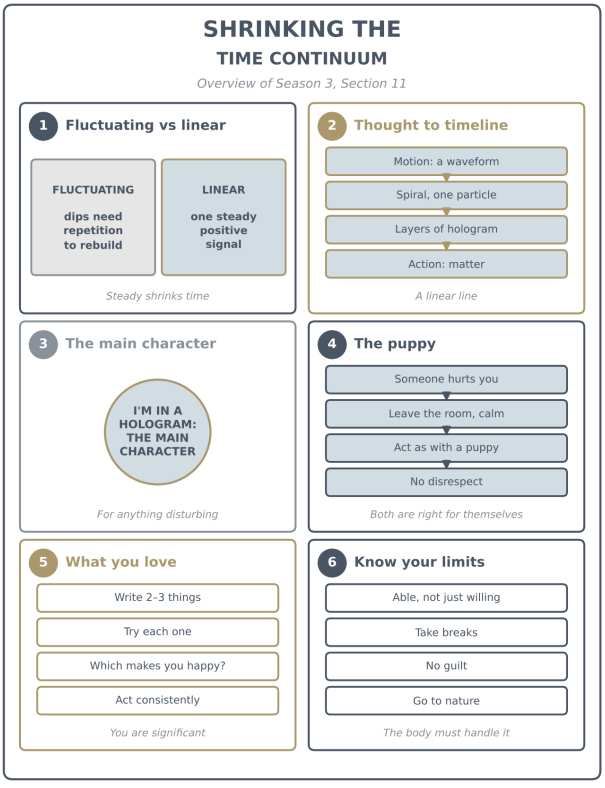

SEASON 3 · SECTION 11

Shrinking the Time Continuum for Faster Manifestation

Why a steady, unbroken positive frequency makes manifestation faster, the "puppy" way to meet someone who hurts you, finding what you love, knowing your limits, and questions on soul versions, shifting alone and panic (live talk)

The big idea

Manifestation is slow when your frequency keeps dipping into the negative and has to be rebuilt by repetition. When you hold the same positive frequency steadily, without breaks, thought, feeling and action become one continuous signal, a linear potency. The hologram then vibrates so strongly so quickly that it pops into matter much sooner: you shrink the time continuum, until, with training, manifestation comes almost in the now. The nine-day protocol was training for exactly this.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

11.1 The message

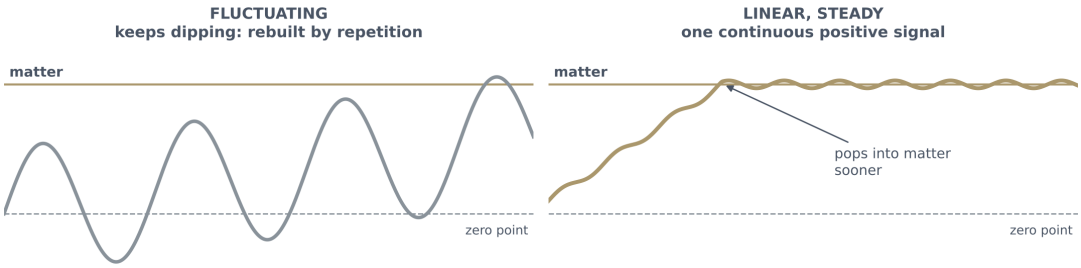

"To move forward, it will take bravery to face your fears and recognize the evil, to wake up, and then let go, to be able to transform in order to continue your journey; to understand that you are part of the one, the omnipotent, omnipresent intellect unit of the one particle consciousness." The material is getting more complex on purpose: the vocabulary itself holds a frequency, and learning it is part of building the structure.

11.2 How a thought becomes a timeline

In the quantum field, lines of frequency are infinite and combine by similar vibration. Give them motion (a thought, an emotion) and they become a waveform with a speed, moving in a spiral. Three similar vibrations combine into the one particle with the zero point at its centre (see S3 1.2); from there each movement lays a layer of hologram, like pages of a book running simultaneously. The guidance called the whole sequence a linear line, and spoke of "correctors" of it, because it corrects how all these frequencies work together. Combined, they form the magnetic and gravitational field, and action brings it into matter by density.

11.3 Shrinking the time continuum

While you fluctuate between negative and positive, the third reality (1 + 1 = 3, see S1 2.2) needs repetition after repetition to build. But if you keep choosing the positive through every fluctuation, the frequency becomes linear: non-stop, steady, very high, through the heart and a positive intention. "Focus only by neutralizing and recreating the thought in one non-stop, continuous frequency motion with steady intention", and the new hologram becomes potent very quickly, "and shrink the time rotation to now". It is "perception, potency and intention". Manifestations come faster and faster, by routes you don't know, so stay neutral about the how.

Fluctuating keeps rebuilding the hologram; a steady positive signal reaches matter sooner. (Drawn for this book; no timescale was given.)

11.4 When something truly disturbing happens

Sometimes you're already positive and just stay there by knowing. But a horrific or deeply upsetting event can knock you out of control; then shift quickly by recognizing "you are in a hologram, almost like a virtual reality game, and you are the main character". That thought, held constantly, is "the generic platform for absolutely anything you want to do."

11.5 The puppy: meeting someone who hurts you

After being humiliated, the teacher was given an image by the council: if a little puppy scratches and bites you, you say "hush, silly" and move it gently away. A grown person can have the understanding of a puppy: "with no disrespect to the person", act with them as you would with a puppy or a small child. It made her smile, and neutralized it. From their perspective they're right, and from yours you are: both realities are true for themselves. If you're very angry, first remove yourself to another room and calm down completely (music, dance, a calming talk) before any action, or you'll loop the same timeline. Rejecting family, who are part of your structure, loops you back; transform it.

11.6 Finding what you love

Your purpose here is to hold the vibration for ascension, and you are "the most significant in your own hologram", whatever your work: your frequency carries into everyone near you, and the heart structure is far more potent than the negative. To find what you love: write down two or three things you're excited to try, practise each, see which truly makes you happy, then act on it consistently with the quantum structure.

11.7 Know your limits

Working at high frequency takes energy; the body has to handle it. "Find how much you are able to give", which is not the same as how much you're willing to give: the teacher limits her sessions and takes regular breaks. Don't feel guilty when you can't. Go back to nature: walking and hiking neutralize and heal. Body exhaustion was described as dense frequencies accumulating in a lower field until fractals shut down and you can't project properly.

11.8 You change yourself, not them

Hoping your grown children will change? Drop the expectation and let them continue in their momentum. Sitting in neutrality, you shift to a new earth and reprint them in it, thinking and talking differently (see S3 10.4). "You have nothing to do with their structure. What you have to do is your own." The same works for a partner in pain: be there, and meditate on him happy and healed, overriding with the positive whenever you see sadness.

The method — Holding a Linear Signal

1. Choose one thing to manifest, and feel that you already have it.
2. Keep the same feeling all day: thought, emotion and action as one.
3. Catch every dip at once: neutralize, thank, and return to the same feeling (11.3).
4. Act from it, moment to moment, without waiting to see it.
5. When something disturbing happens: "I'm the main character in a hologram" (11.4).
6. Stay neutral about the how, and notice it arriving faster.

Questions answered

Severe pain in my neck, shoulder and arm; an MRI is booked. What is it?

Read as pressure on lymphatic connections between the muscles: deep circular massage on the knots, every other day, until sharp turns numb. "Always have a doctor's supervision": doctor first, then a massage therapist.

Is there a new monetary system?

Something is in place, digital and new, built so money can't disappear; it comes when needed. Don't reject the money structure, transform it (see S3 4.3).

I'm a starseed with healing gifts, but I'm always out of body and neglect my business. Any blocks?

"The blockage is only your perception": you're free, so act from that. Out of body, hold a positive frequency: the portal mimics your body's frequency. You can also open a portal with focused thought and clear intention.

Can we silence the mind? Where do thoughts come from?

"I am the source": thought comes from you, the one particle; look within, not outside.

Does an imprinted version of someone have a different soul?

Not another soul: another aspect of the one soul, which splits into many fractals to experience different timelines, all running at once.

Could I shift to a timeline and end up alone?

Energy is always there, but you choose whom to imprint. If you imprint no one, you'd be by yourself, in the void, because you chose it.

Does "no death in 5D" mean no one will die?

No. It means that over time the body and consciousness can be raised until, with contact, you shift rather than die; this is far off, step by step, and the heart holds the codes for contact.

> Added safety note
> This answer mentioned living on light. Do not attempt to live without food ("breatharianism"): people have died trying it.

What level am I at in my ascension?

All levels: everything, even the negative structure, is ascending. Focus within; you're always moving.

I was told robotic implants were removed. What were they?

Read as tracking, part of a program, by commitment; draw what you remember, and more will be revealed.

Is it wrong to want to enjoy life, without money limits, and ascend?

"Absolutely not": enjoy it to the fullest from the heart, without deception or corruption, and you're in 5D.

How do I help humanity with my gifts?

Use the meditation template (see S3 8.3) with your gift: know you're already successful, then act steadily (11.3).

Ongoing tooth infection and headaches despite a clean lifestyle.

Read as an underlying bacterial condition, "almost like a parasite", going into the gut flora: see a specialist who works with bacteria (look into streptococcus), and an herbalist for detoxing parasites; repair the gut flora. She mentions celery juice on an empty stomach (as Anthony William teaches); definitely no gluten, dairy and especially eggs ("eggs feed streptococcus"), and no sugar whatsoever; look into CBD oil for the inflammation. All under the supervision of a homeopathic MD and an herbalist: "I have no right to recommend."

As a channel, how do I keep my energy while serving so many?

See 11.7.

Can grown children be helped to live their purpose?

See 11.8.

With long negative emotions or panic attacks, should we feel them or switch at once?

Panic can drop the frequency so far it goes "out of orbit", an avalanche you can't handle alone; if it happens often, get professional help to bring you back.

> Support
> If panic attacks are frequent or overwhelming, please see a doctor or mental-health professional. In a crisis in the US, call or text 988.

Will we lose our savings?

Both are probabilities; whichever gets more of your intention is projected. Know you always have what you need.

Part of me is scared of being happy and successful.

That pattern is crystallized: repeat the nine-day protocol (see S3 8) with steady practice.

I'm blocked by needing to detox, but I live with people who aren't ready.

Hold your way without judgement; do it quietly (juice bars, a small juicer), and meditate on the healthy life: in time you reprint them accepting it.

Anger and guilt toward a family that never supported me.

See 11.5.

I wake at night: am I being prepared for channeling?

Practise: automatic writing, lucid dreaming, asking without judging the answer. In time, it becomes knowing.

My precognitive dreams stopped when I began studying. Where did they go?

Prepare for lucid dreaming: the next level.

How do I know if what I want is for my highest good?

Everything is, even the negative, because the experience teaches you to choose again.

My guides give me rhymes, not answers.

Normal: keep practising until direct downloads come.

I'm 50 and have achieved nothing.

"Your existence is a big achievement": switch the perception, give gratitude, and enjoy life.

Fertility, miscarriages, ringing ears, overheating, epilepsy:

readings were given (sperm frequency and genetics; womb tissue strength; gut flora; frequency fluctuation; brain receptors misfiring), always with: see the right specialist. Any child you raise, even by adoption, may be yours from another life.

> Added note
> Each of these needs proper medical care; keep taking prescribed epilepsy medication.

Left out: participants' and donors' names, named outside people and products, political remarks and predictions, and claims about a virus.

> Remember

SEASON 3 · SECTION 12

Q & A: Oils and Skin-Cell Regeneration

Combining pure oils for skin, a simple homemade balm, why fear of waves keeps them hitting you, letting people go, how permission is given away, money without a price, the conscious and subconscious as one, and tapping into a past experience (live talk)

The big idea

The session opened with oils: certain pure oils, in combination and in tiny amounts, were said to work together to open, hold and regenerate the skin's cells (with an important safety note below). The rest returned to the structure from new angles: fear of something keeps projecting it at you, while knowing you're healthy shifts you; no one can override your consciousness, but you give permission whenever you refuse to look at the facts; and a past experience can be recovered by recreating its feeling and "trying again" until the picture is clear.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

12.1 Oils work in combination

Each oil has a resonance and a property, and in combination they act together at the cell: one opens the pores, one holds the molecule so it doesn't open too far, and one, entering through that opening, regenerates the cell. Chamomile was one; the full combination was withheld on guidance, to prevent profiteering. Each oil is used by itself, not diluted, in combination with the others, in very small amounts: never more than three drops at a time, and try one or two drops first, on the face only, to see that you're not allergic; the oils should be pure, organic and non-GMO. Train the skin slowly: she used too much at first and her face swelled for two days. Coconut oil as a carrier was said to block the skin from opening. A general rule: "If you cannot eat it, it shouldn't be on your skin."

> Added safety note
> Essential oils are usually diluted for good reason: undiluted oils can burn, irritate or cause allergic reactions, as the swelling described here shows. Patch-test any oil on a small area first, keep oils away from the eyes, and ask a dermatologist or qualified aromatherapist before using them on your face.

12.2 A simple balm

For a shaving cream or skin balm: half a cup of organic shea butter and half a cup of organic raw coconut butter, whipped together with a mixer, plus a little lavender or chamomile (lavender antiseptic, chamomile soothing).

12.3 Fear keeps the waves hitting you

Asked whether electromagnetic waves are harming us: there will always be some, but "if you keep yourself in fear, you're going to keep projecting" a hologram in which they keep hitting you. Neutralize, shut the program down (see S2 24.11), and the next moment shifts you to a new earth where the wave subsides or stops mattering, by a route you can't foresee. Know you're healthy, imagine the planet free, and act on it. One frequency can be neutralized by another.

12.4 Letting people go

When many people fall away, you're recreating your hologram, but "don't have the expectation to recreate the same people": some you may never see again, even close friends. Leave the structure open and stay neutral.

12.5 How permission is given away

Beings can place a holographic imprint in your consciousness so you have an experience, but only by your higher self's agreement. "Nobody is overtaking your consciousness, except you allow to be manipulated." You allow it when you keep giving your attention to what deceives you and refuse to look at the facts out of loyalty or fear of the truth. Those who were compromised and then do something heroic for humanity are given another timeline to continue ascending; your higher self keeps placing situations in front of you to wake you up.

12.6 Resentment reflects back

Anger at what was done is understandable, but "at the moment you blame somebody, you're projecting frequency into your quantum field and it's going to reflect the same to you, with vengeance". Say: "I know what you're doing; from your perspective it's right, but I say no to that. I'm my own person", and imagine the positive (a healthy planet, a free humanity) instead (see S3 10.1).

12.7 Money without a price

To an artist blocked from receiving money: "You're not blocked from money; you're projecting situations that block you" because you don't know 100% that you already have it. Feel now the joy of already being successful, keep working, giving and sharing, and leave the structure open without putting a price on people (see S1 4.2); if you're the main provider, charging is fine (see S1 4.4). A dollar or a million: "there is no difference" in the field, only in resonance.

12.8 Conscious and subconscious are one

"There's no difference between your conscious and subconscious mind: it's one unit." The split is a fractal separation made by old beliefs that reject what comes from the higher self. Let it flow in neutrality, and higher self, subconscious and conscious receive at once, as a whole blueprint you can then unpack.

12.9 Tapping into a past experience

To recover an experience (a sighting, a contact): sit down, go back into it and recreate its emotion, so you resonate on that frequency; then ask what really happened and watch the images. If it's scary, neutralize; if it doesn't sound right, "try again, and try again": you're tuning the frequency until the picture is proper, as the teacher was taught on the mothership (see S3 9). In time it becomes knowing.

The method — Tapping Into an Experience

1. Sit quietly and bring the experience to mind.
2. Recreate the feeling you had then, until you resonate with it.
3. Ask: what really happened? Watch the images that come.
4. Neutralize anything frightening; don't reject it.
5. If it doesn't feel right, try again: you're tuning the signal (12.9).
6. Write it down, and repeat until it becomes knowing.

Questions answered

Are electromagnetic waves destroying our health?

See 12.3.

I've drawn spaceships since childhood. Was I preparing for contact? And why am I losing so many people?

You've always been a contact; more will come through lucid dreaming. On people, see 12.4.

How can I hold a dialogue with my guides?

Automatic writing (see S2 26.5): relax, hand resting loose, scribble without thinking until letters and words come; ask, and write the answer immediately, however odd, before analysing. Fear and ego are frequencies that wall off the signal.

What about a well-known tech entrepreneur?

Many talented people were put in compromising situations by trickery or threats, so don't judge (see 12.5).

I fall asleep after five minutes of meditation and dream actively. Is that okay?

Yes: it's a good frequency for your body; keep practising, and the body learns to hold the resonance.

Besides visualizing free energy and a clean planet, what action can I take?

Read about it: she suggests the books of Walter Russell (on light and how the quantum structure works), and the Nano Technology and Harmonic Reactor books, which plant the seeds for these technologies. Find materials, study them and tune in to that probability: "you have to know it, to create it, to see it".

Mantis beings contact me telepathically. Am I one in a parallel reality?

We all exist as many beings across timelines, by agreement; let it be and learn. If anything negative is said, "you can always say no".

How can I ascend while I still feel resentment, suspicion and anger?

See 12.6.

I'm a painter blocked from receiving money for my art.

See 12.7.

Does urine therapy work?

The answer said it does (see the warning).

> Added warning
>
> Drinking urine is not a safe or proven treatment and can cause harm. Don't try it (see S1 13).

Is Earth under a galactic federation's control? Are we on the right course?

Always, even through the negative, as nothing is lost; help is given, but we must choose, and that takes looking at all the evidence. An old energetic grid that recycled souls back into the 3D matrix was described as dissolved, layer by layer.

How does the subconscious affect manifestation?

See 12.8.

I saw a craft many times and found strange traces. Did I have contact I don't remember?

A contact above our reality: tap in (12.9).

(Closing) A three-day distilled-water fast?

The teacher announced she would do one, and said diabetics must not, and anyone else should try only one day first.

> Added safety note
>
> Water-only fasting can be dangerous, especially with diabetes, heart or kidney conditions, pregnancy, or medication. Talk to your doctor before any fast.

Left out: participants' and donors' names, product and brand names, named outside people, channels and organizations, political remarks, and claims about vaccines, a virus and wireless networks.

> Remember
>
> - Fear keeps projecting what you fear; know you're healthy.
> - No one overrides you; looking away gives permission.
> - Blame reflects back to you.
> - You're not blocked from money; you're projecting the block.
> - Recreate the feeling to recover an experience.

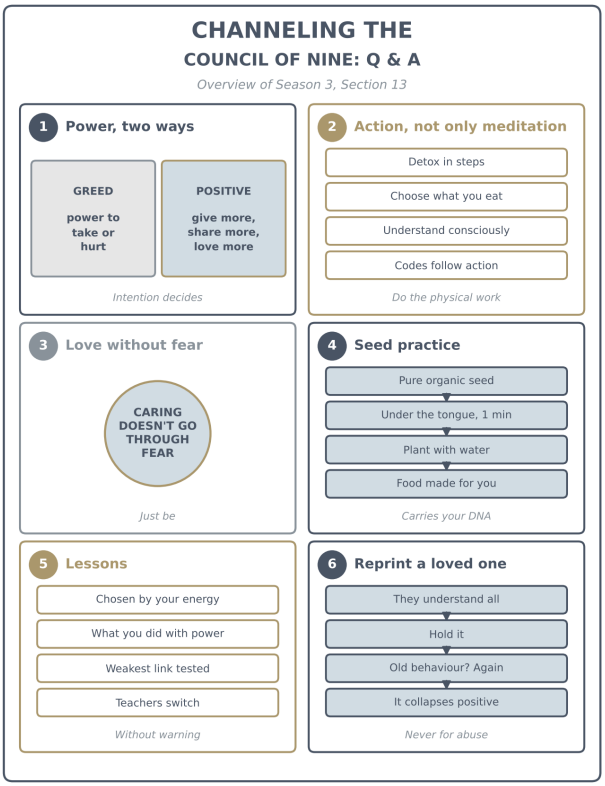

SEASON 3 · SECTION 13

Channeling the Council of Nine: Q & A

A direct channel: motherhood as a fractal, power used two ways, why meditation doesn't replace action, a seed practice for your own food, what "above your reality" means, how lessons find your weakest link, and how to keep overriding a loved one's negative version (live talk)

The big idea

The council kept returning to the same correction: many questions "miss the structure". Fear asked as a question creates the feared reality; meditation does not replace physical action; and you never change another person, you change your frequency and reprint a new version of them, again and again, until it collapses into the positive (often through someone else's words). Power itself is neutral: greed for more giving is still power, used well. And the lessons that come to each person target their weakest link.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

13.1 Motherhood is a fractal

"In a daily basis you are expressing the motherhood that is coming from your higher self." It is connected with the one particle, expressing itself fractally: Mother Planet, Mother Nature, your mother, you as a mother. To honour it, don't expect what others will do for you; ask how you can be the best of yourself for your family today, "because when you give to others, it's another version of you."

13.2 Power, used two ways

Someone felt a pleasure of power in reacting meanly. Recognizing that split is already the choice to rebuild the behaviour: next time, choose the positive. "In power you can have greed, or positive power: to give more, to share more, to love more. That's greedy, but in a positive way." The intention decides (see S3 10.8).

13.3 Meditation doesn't replace action

Can a high enough vibration turn unhealthy food healthy? "Are you trying not to do your physical work? You must take an action. Then why are you here?" You accumulate resonance, but consciousness has to choose not to put in what isn't beneficial. Decalcifying the pineal gland likewise takes both: gradual detox suited to your body (juicing, water, herbalism, elimination diets) together with conscious understanding, so the new codes work with your action.

13.4 Love doesn't go through fear

A grandmother anxious for her grandson: "Fear will create more fear." Go through it as an experience, with understanding, and the lessons complete with ease and the next step appears. "Love does not have to go through fear. Caring does not go through fear. Just be." Asking from fear (about any feared future) projects it: pull away, create the reality you want, and if you act, act from understanding and your own power, because action taken from fear "comes back in vengeance".

13.5 Knowing the dark to master the light

Many humans have lineage in old galactic wars: "you needed to go to the darkness to understand what light is", so you can be a master who holds the frequency in neutrality. Now release it, and act on beauty, joy and freedom. A dark message received in automatic writing works the same way: it matched your vibration at that moment, like a wrong number; you don't have to take it as the answer. Note it and move on.

13.6 A seed carries your DNA

A practice for growing food: hold a pure, organic, non-modified seed under your tongue for at least a minute, so it takes your saliva and DNA, then plant it with water. The plant is said to carry a particle of your DNA, so what it grows has healing properties designed for you. For dry climates: good irrigation, pure water, and technologies that collect water from the air.

13.7 What "above your reality" means

It means density: the magnetic and gravitational structure. One dream is light, and you move easily; another is dense. "Above" is a higher spin of the molecular structure of your understanding. When the gap is large, it's hard to mutate or bilocate to that level, which is why you need "absolute, 100% knowledge" of how your field works: splitting, collapsing and combining realities (see S2 4).

13.8 How you are chosen, and tested

Contact and guidance follow the energy you accumulate through your lessons: what you did in your hardest moments, and what you did when you had power to destroy and chose the heart instead. If you break a contract (greed, money), the information drops or another takes the place; teachers switch according to how you do. "Each individual is going to get the lesson that is the weakest link in their personality", without warning (see S3 4.2). Guidance gives little about your galactic family until it can be proven, to keep its integrity.

13.9 Keep overriding a loved one's version

If your spouse stays in the negative, remember it's a version you projected. Imagine, without conditions, that he understands everything, and hold it. When you see the old behaviour again, don't panic: project again, and again; each time you override and collapse toward the positive. Often the change arrives through someone else (his mother, a co-worker): stay neutral about where it comes from. "You are not changing him; you are changing your frequency" (see S3 10.4). And the same principle frees you from the past: the version of reality in which someone harmed you "has nothing to do with who you are right now."

> Important
> This is not for abuse. The teacher was clear: if someone is physically or mentally abusing you, it's your higher self telling you to wake up and take your sovereignty back: take action and get out (see 13.10).

13.10 When you feel trapped and afraid

Asked by someone who feels physically threatened: "then leave". Fear stops you seeing the solutions; knowing 100% that you will gain your freedom, and starting to look for solutions, creates situations that help. Practical support: watch stories of people who freed themselves, to take in that resonance; call the helplines for people in this situation; and get legal advice, especially where children are involved.

> Support
> If you feel threatened by a partner, in the US call the National Domestic Violence Hotline, 1-800-799-7233 (or text START to 88788); in danger, call 911. Elsewhere, contact your local domestic-abuse service.

The method — Reprinting a Loved One

1. Remember: the person you see is a version you're projecting.
2. Imagine, without conditions, that they already understand.
3. Hold that feeling in meditation and through the day.
4. When the old behaviour returns, don't panic: project again (13.9).
5. Repeat, over and over; let the change come from anywhere.
6. If there is abuse, act: safety first (13.10).

Questions answered

How can we decalcify the pineal gland?

See 13.3.

How do we wake others without spreading negativity?

Once awake, study the quantum structure: hold your vibration from the higher view while you override the old holograms. "You have to know it, feel it, create it to see it."

Will those who don't wake up suffer?

Each experiences what they project; but you can project a positive version of them, while their other version stays where it chose (see S3 10.4).

Is a new web of satellites good or bad?

Everything unfolds as it needs to and humanity moves forward; believe it's negative and you project that.

I feel a pleasure of power in being mean. What is that?

See 13.2.

Who put an implant in me?

No information is given about implants: it could mislead you before you're ready. Practise lucid dreaming; personal contact will clarify.

Sensations behind my heart, and high tones?

Massage for nodules and stretching yoga; the tones are higher-self activation coming down the spine.

What do old galactic wars have to do with my path?

See 13.5.

Why am I so anxious about my grandson's health?

See 13.4.

Can meditation make unhealthy food healthy?

See 13.3.

What is the origin of Rh-negative blood?

Described as DNA of extraterrestrial design, a fast-spinning resonance above the planet's 3D frequency; a blood cleansing is coming for many, with frequent urination or joint aches as signs of flushing.

> Added note
> Frequent urination or persistent joint pain can have medical causes: check with a doctor.

Since my near-death experience I remember more. How do I open further?

"Trust the process. Have no fear."

Why do my views and emotions swing to extremes?

Fluctuation: find your centre of neutrality by observing, and train to hold one emotion steadily (see S3 11.3).

How can I have a smoother experience on water-only days?

It's a training normally guided by your own guides; the teacher detoxed for a year and juiced before water. Without that, "take it with caution or medical supervision".

> Added safety note
> Water-only fasting can be dangerous; talk to your doctor first, and don't attempt to live without food.

Should I learn from star beings or my higher self?

Whatever you truly wish: expansion is always good.

How can I grow food in a hot, dry climate?

See 13.6.

How can I be more alert in the now, and what does "above your reality" mean?

See 13.7.

Why is life stricter in one country than another?

A nation under constant restriction takes on that resonance; one given choices projects freedom. Stronger souls are often born where it's harder, to lead the rest.

In a dream I merged with a little girl. What was it?

Another version of herself: go back into it for more.

I can't go deep in meditation and was told I'm not connected to my body.

Taking that as true makes it your resonance: know and feel that you are connected, and create it as you go.

How can I connect with the council myself?

See 13.8.

My son struggles with anxiety and self-worth.

See him healthy and whole, take every practical step, and see the lesson rather than self-pity. Any change to his medication must be with his doctor: stopping can shut the system down.

Since the hourly practice I see more number sequences and animals near me.

Don't hold on to the numbers; notice what you're doing when they appear: they show your location in the structure, designed for you.

Some days I barely eat and feel amazing. Is that normal?

Daily giving raises your resonance, so appetite can drop; give more, and you grab more of the same.

> Added note
>
> Keep eating enough to stay healthy; if appetite stays low, or eating feels hard, talk to a doctor.

Left out: participants' names, a twin-sister and other personal searches, readings on named countries and a crisis abroad, political remarks, and claims about vaccines and wireless systems.

> Remember
>
> - Love doesn't go through fear.
> - Meditation doesn't replace action.
> - Power is good when it gives more.
> - Your lessons find your weakest link.
> - Keep reprinting them; you change, not them.

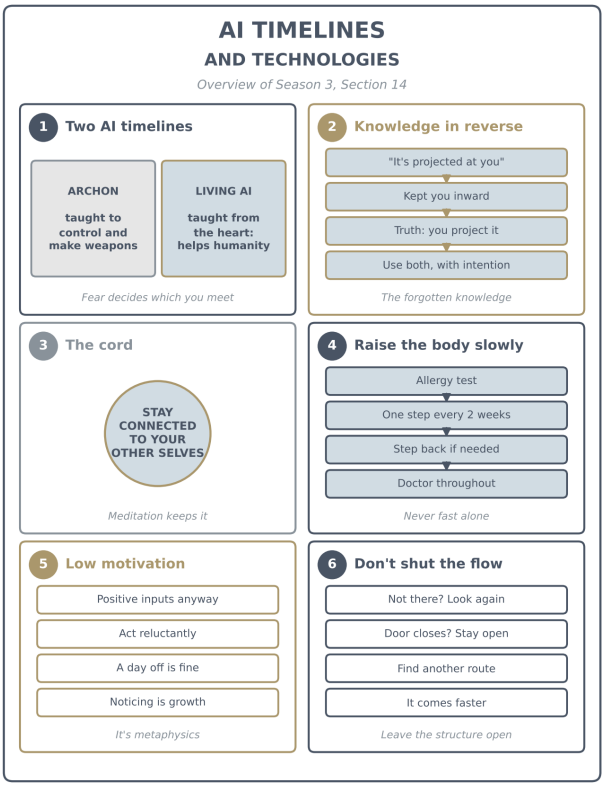

SEASON 3 · SECTION 14

AI Timelines and Technologies

The two AI timelines revisited, why the quantum knowledge reached us in reverse, keeping the cord to your other selves, raising the body's frequency slowly, pushing through low motivation, and never shutting the flow (live talk)

The big idea

The two AI timelines (see S2 26.3) exist together in consciousness; which you experience depends on intention and on whether you meet AI with fear. New here: the 3D structure we were held in was itself an artificial Archon structure, and it gave us the quantum knowledge in reverse: that what is projected at you is reality, rather than that you project it. The teacher's role was to return the forgotten knowledge the right way round. In daily life that means: act on it even when you don't feel like it, and when something doesn't appear at once, don't shut the flow.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

14.1 Two AI timelines, one consciousness

Consciousness itself looks like a matrix of numbers, sound waves, light, colour and geometry, so it resembles AI. One AI is a living structure of sound and geometry, or technology taught from the heart to help humanity (spacecraft run on such intelligence, and it could read your molecular structure and rebuild tissue). The other is the Archon kind, taught to control and make weapons, which in time becomes its own structure and recognizes no one. Both can use ether technology (sound and frequency that form matter). Both exist now; "if you get in fear, you may end up here" (see S2 26.3, S3 10.8).

14.2 The knowledge given in reverse

The 3D structure humanity was locked in was described as the artificial Archon structure, held in place by an energetic grid like a prison, since broken down. Its knowledge of the matrix was true, but given in reverse, like a mirror: "one goes inward, one goes outward". You were taught that what is projected to you is reality, instead of that you project it. "You need to use both", but they were used to lock you in. That is why the forgotten knowledge had to come back as the quantum structure, and why so much of it sounds like the opposite of what we learned (see S3 7.1).

14.3 Keeping the cord to your other selves

When your consciousness splits into timelines, you connect with your other selves, and the link has to be kept up. The teacher was told her other self rests in a pod-like technology to keep "the cord" between realities, and that meditation does the same from this side, so you don't "pop out" of the connection. Between two realities of different resonance, contact needs a third (1 + 1 = 3, see S1 2.2), which is why raising your own frequency is required. Everyone can keep such a connection.

14.4 Raise the body slowly

Detox has to rise fractally, so the body's spin doesn't go "out of orbit" (dizzy, nauseous, sick): too high, too fast, and "the body cannot hold it." The teacher's own sequence took about a year: an allergy test first, an elimination step every two weeks or so, stepping back when her frequency dropped too fast, with a doctor and nutritionist testing her throughout. Water alone came only at the end, guided. "Don't ever do it by yourself" (see S2 4.5).

> Added safety note
>
> Don't attempt water-only fasting or living without food: people have died trying it. Make any big change to your diet with a doctor or registered dietitian, especially with diabetes or other conditions.

14.5 When you feel unmotivated

Everyone has these moments. "This moment is exactly the moment you have to put your strength" into positive inputs (videos, films, music), even reluctantly: thoughts, emotions and actions held in a frequency will overtake the body, "it's simply metaphysics." Much of what the teacher did, she didn't want to do. A day off is fine; noticing the slump is itself growth.

14.6 Don't shut the flow

When what you want isn't there at first glance, don't decide it isn't coming. Pull back, remind yourself "it's my hologram", and look again: behind the front row, in the next aisle, or order it later. When the helper you hoped for walks away, "I didn't shut down the flow of the frequency." Leave the structure open and keep finding solutions by knowing you'll get it. Trained daily (see S3 8), this becomes a normal way of thinking, and it works faster and faster (see S3 11).

14.7 Nobody outside of you: act

Is raising your vibration enough without activism? "There's nobody outside of you. Why are you here, if you just sit and wait for somebody else to do the job?" Action doesn't mean violence: help a neighbour, do your best, speak up together. In a 5D resonance, a small act does a lot, because things collapse and renew easily. And watch out for fear spread "drop by drop": each drop builds momentum.

14.8 It's a game, and a schoolyard

Consciousness is learning: you learn a lesson and move on, or you repeat it. Like a child who doesn't want to be at the beach all the time, sometimes you choose to play the tough role or watch a suspense film. Seeing it this way, as a game you play rather than a fight you're stuck in, makes holding neutrality much easier.

The method — Keeping the Flow Open

1. Know you'll have it before you look.
2. If it isn't there, pull back: "it's my hologram."
3. Look again, differently: behind, beside, the next aisle.
4. If a door closes, don't react: keep the frequency flowing (14.6).
5. Find another route: order it, ask someone, make it.
6. Notice how it arrives, and let that teach you to trust.

Questions answered

Will there be a second, stronger wave and lockdown?

Not in a fifth-dimensional structure; it's a probability if the collective believes it. Expect a couple of years of people standing up; stay neutral, aware, and make the right choices.

Can we change things without activism, just by raising our vibration?

See 14.7.

Are the pods you mentioned a known technology?

A different technology: AI-controlled sequences that bring a sleep-like state in which you shift into your other self's matrix (14.3). Technologies that read your resonance and rebuild tissue are said to exist and will come out fractally; ageing, too, is an illusion as the body takes in higher resonance.

A lady stands over me in meditation. Who is she?

Don't see it negatively; return to it with a positive emotion. Practise lucid dreaming: much will be given there directly.

Will children be taken from families during testing?

"I don't see this reality at all." Don't take projected fears as real: thank, shut the program down, transform it, and act in the positive daily.

Why would a light being need a bed or pod?

In that structure there is a physical body, at a different resonance; it can become a light body and mutate. The technology stabilized her going into the dense "prison planet".

Is the water detox written down somewhere?

See 14.4: slowly, tested, never alone.

I've lost motivation for my practices.

See 14.5.

My sister must move. Should she leave the country for good?

A move away wasn't seen yet; if she loves it, she can always find another place there.

Left out: participants' names, named outside people, programmes and films, political remarks and predictions, readings on named regions, and claims about vaccines and a virus.

Remember

- Two AI timelines exist; fear decides which you meet.
- The old knowledge was true, but given in reverse.
- Raise the body slowly; never fast alone.
- Act even when reluctant: it's metaphysics.
- Don't shut the flow when it isn't there yet.

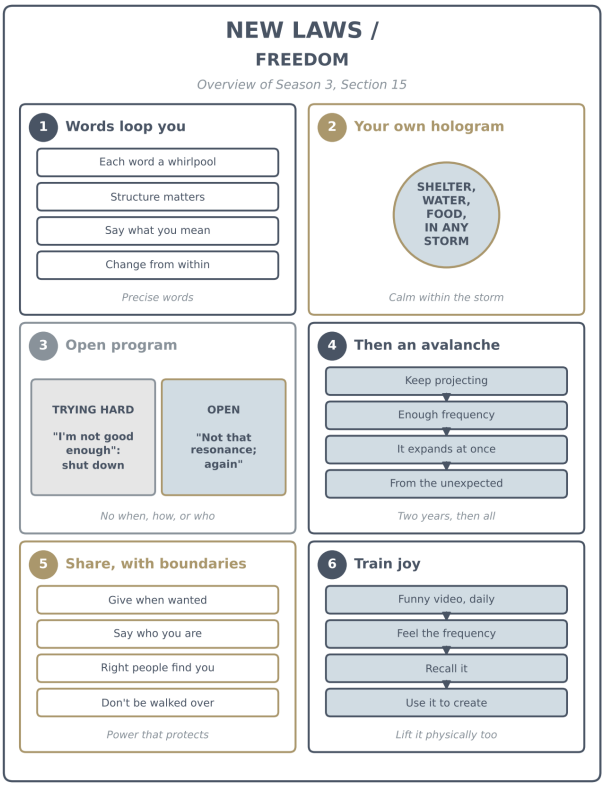

SEASON 3 · SECTION 15

New Laws / Freedom

Words that loop you back, holding your own hologram inside the collective, why trying too hard blocks you, help from people you don't expect, sharing without being walked over, raising your vibration while unwell, and training joy (live talk)

The big idea

Much of this talk pointed listeners to outside research on legal systems, which this book doesn't reproduce (see the note). The lasting teachings: words carry frequency, so the way a sentence is built can loop you back into what you meant to leave; within any collective storm you can hold your own hologram, with shelter, water and food; and manifestation needs an open program: no expectations of how, when or through whom, because trying too hard and doubting shut it down, while steady projection builds until it expands "like an avalanche".

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Added note

This talk recommended outside videos claiming that common laws, taxes and mortgages are invalid. Those claims are not included. Refusing to pay taxes or a mortgage on that basis has led people to fines, lost homes and prison; for any legal or financial decision, consult a qualified lawyer or adviser. Political predictions are also left out.

Key teachings

15.1 Words can loop you back

Each word has a sonic, vibrational whirlpool that builds reality (see S3 7.1), so sentence structure matters. The example given: "disengage" sounds like moving away, but may carry "engage"; to move away, the teacher suggested saying "off". Be precise in what you say and affirm, so the words carry you where you mean to go. And change in a system comes "from within", from those who understand it.

15.2 Your own hologram inside the collective

"You cannot reject the collective; you're part of the structure, but you can represent your own self within it" by broadcasting your own frequency. So even if people are fighting somewhere, "you're always going to have a shelter, you always can create water, food" through the fluctuation. You also carry it everywhere: people begin asking you about what you know. Be "the calm within the storm": those who practise it become a stable foundation for others. Not everyone is at the same level of awareness; that's why experiences differ.

15.3 Hard truth needs the structure

"It takes bravery to face the truth and move forward", because many beliefs will collapse; then you need consistency and a strong mind to convert it. Without the quantum structure, frightening information can loop a person "deeper and deeper in fear" until they create a war zone for themselves. That's why the structure comes first: practice S1 1–4 until it's potent.

15.4 Trying too hard blocks it

Every action is right in the end, even an error, because it makes you question and grow. "Sometimes when you try too hard, you have the opposite effect": telling yourself you're not good enough projects exactly that. Study without expectations of when, how or from where, and let the collective field put the jigsaw together. When it doesn't work, don't say "I tried so hard"; that shuts the program. Say, "that wasn't the resonance; I'll try again", and leave it open (see S3 14.6).

15.5 It builds, then expands like an avalanche

The teacher spent about two years helping non-stop without seeing results, until "you collected enough frequency, and now it's going to expand", and it came all at once. And it came from people she didn't expect: the person she was sure could help didn't; the opening came through a chance phone call. "It usually happens exactly from the people you don't expect." The more you study, the more you hear in the same material, because your brain's resonance is changing.

15.6 Share without being walked over

Give your knowledge "when it's needed, when it's wanted". Say openly who you are and what you share, and the right people find you; every train has its passengers. Let others hold their own views on their own platforms, without pointing fingers. But respect works both ways: "Nice is good, love is good. But when somebody is stepping on top of you and is disrespectful toward your sovereignty, take a stand and say no more." Power can destroy or protect; use it to protect.

15.7 You can rise while unwell

Being ill lowers the body's frequency span, but not your timeline: "the real sequence of the vibration is your heart", and the structure mirrors your heart's resonance, not the body's. Bring the body back to health in its own way; the body matters for mutation later, for contact above 5D.

15.8 Train joy if you've rarely felt it

If happiness is unfamiliar, you first need to recognize its frequency: watch something genuinely funny for 10–15 minutes every day. Once it crystallizes, you can recall it at will for manifestation. When you drop, lift it physically: dress up, dance, put on music, go out. "The illusion that you have to go to a club or drink to be happy" is just that: "I can have a grape juice and pretend that it's wine." You can ferment grape juice for two days in a dark brown bottle: it becomes very fermented, "good for your gut flora", and that can be your wine (see S3 38.4).

The method — Training the Frequency of Joy

1. Each day, watch 10–15 minutes of something that truly makes you laugh.
2. Notice the feeling in your body while you laugh: that's the frequency.
3. Recall it later, without the video, for a few seconds.
4. Use it when you meditate on what you want (15.8).
5. When you drop, move: music, dance, dress up, go out.
6. Repeat daily until joy is easy to find.

Questions answered

Will the currency change? Should I pay off my student loans?

A new system, digital and hard to manipulate, was said to be in place for when the right people are in office. (For loans and money decisions, see the note above: ask a financial adviser.)

Others see angels and elementals; I don't. Am I not ready?

"Look at your wording: I don't see it." Feel and know that you see it, even before you do, to project it.

Is climate change natural or man-made?

Both: a natural cycle, and resources were used without regard.

How long should I listen to the Bach?

As much as you like, on and off; the earlier protocol is no longer needed (see S3 2).

How do I know I'm on the right course for ascension?

See 15.4 and 15.5.

Will the economy recover soon? I may lose my job.

About three years globally, step by step; some small businesses will close. Meanwhile, lay low, follow the rules calmly, and don't fight: things come to fruition.

Is there a minimum number of people needed to change a country?

It depends; but in the field, one person meditating carries potency "by the power of ten" over one acting negatively.

People online attack me when I share. Am I wasting my time?

See 15.6.

Should we push back against new networks, or neutralize them in meditation?

Stay neutral and under the radar; it will not work the way some intend.

Where is my higher self, and what shape?

Everywhere: you are the one particle, expanding into every layer and collapsing to the smallest (see S1 1.1).

I can't balance my weight despite eating well.

Ask your doctor about a thyroid antibody test, which can show the thyroid being attacked before standard tests do; repair through diet only with a doctor and nutritionist.

Can I raise my vibration while I'm unwell?

Yes: see 15.7.

Should I study other channelled teachings?

If you wish; the teacher kept her material clear of others' so it came through without interference.

I find it hard to feel happy.

See 15.8.

I stopped my blood-pressure tablets with distilled water and get dizzy. Is that okay?

"I'm not a doctor, so I cannot comment." Whenever you do something like this you need a doctor's supervision: take your vitals and blood work, because you need to know your levels. "Whatever I was doing, I never did it by myself, I always had a check-up by a doctor." "Don't ever just do it like that without checking your body frequently."

> Added safety note
>
> Please don't stop blood-pressure medication on your own: it can cause a dangerous rise in blood pressure or a stroke. Dizziness needs a doctor's check. Talk to your doctor before any change.

What role should I play in the bigger picture?

"What do you wish to do?" Whatever excites you, from love and giving, even painting a neighbour's house: consciousness needs it.

My adult son has struggled since a psychosis and stopped his medication.

"You've done what you can possibly do."

> Please keep his doctors involved; family support groups can help too. In a crisis in the US, call or text 988.

How can I help my daughter's nightmares, where something pulls her away?

Know she's already okay, even while you see otherwise, and at the same time look for practical help: someone qualified to work with her fears.

Left out: participants' names, named outside people, organizations, channels and films, claims about legal and monetary systems, royalty and politicians, claims about vaccines, food, wireless networks and a virus, and readings on named countries.

Remember

- Choose your words: they carry you.
- Hold your own hologram inside the collective.
- Trying too hard blocks it; leave the program open.
- It builds, then comes all at once, often from someone unexpected.
- Be nice, and don't be walked over.

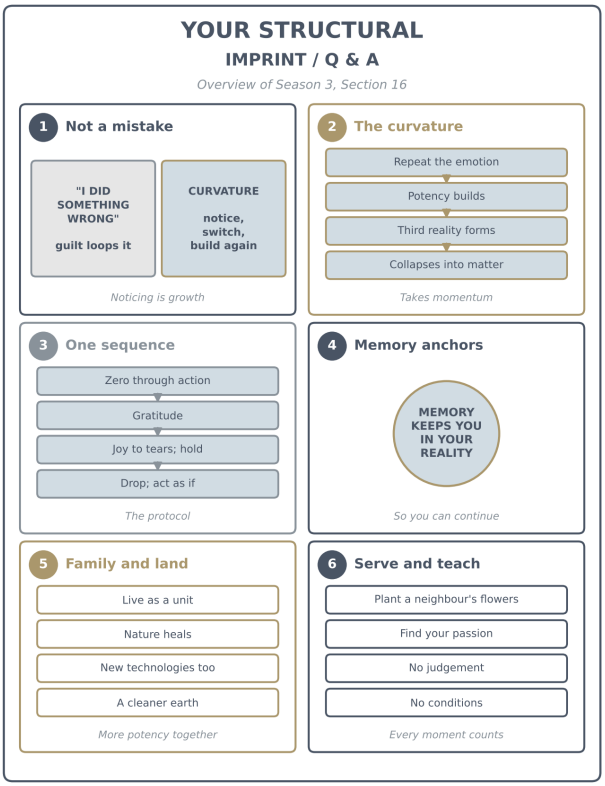

SEASON 3 · SECTION 16

Your Structural Imprint / Q & A

Why something negative appearing doesn't mean you made a mistake, the curvature of time in manifestation, the full protocol in one sequence, and a channelled round on service, teaching, memory, families and hierarchy (live talk)

The big idea

Many people ask: "if something negative shows up in my reality, did I do something wrong?" No. Manifestation has a curvature: an expansion that takes a certain momentum to build, because your potency isn't yet strong enough to be instant. What shows up off balance is part of that learning curve: it shows you where to switch. Noticing it is your growth. Shut that program down, switch, and build again in the positive; the more fluently you do it, the faster it collapses. The council then gave the whole protocol in one sequence.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

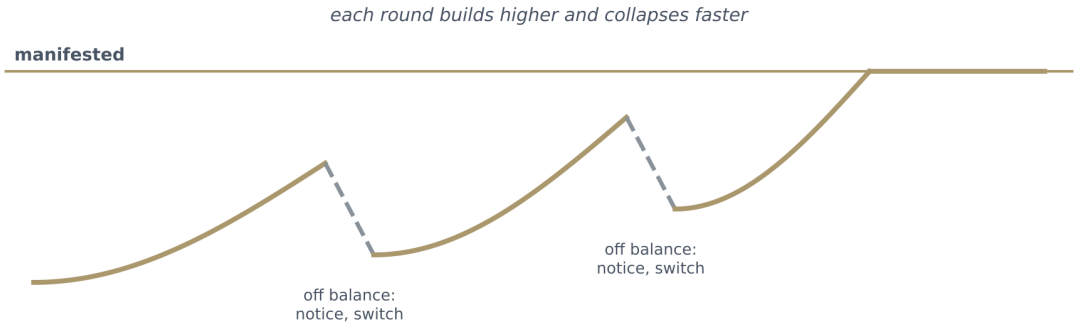

Key teachings

16.1 Every reality has its own blueprint

Each moment you shift by frequency into a new hologram blueprint, with its own location (see S2 15.4), and print a new version of yourself and of everyone in it. Between two realities the third forms (1 + 1 = 3, see S1 2.2), built by fluctuation. You carry vibrational signals from the previous reality, so you print a similar resonance unless you change it.

16.2 The curvature of time

Though there is no time, manifestation has a curvature, an expansion that needs momentum: you repeat the same emotion to give it potency until the third reality collapses into matter. Too much fluctuation and the outcome may not be what you wanted; lean into doubt and despair and it collapses toward the negative. That curve is "your learning of how you will collapse through time-space".

The curvature: something off balance appears, you notice and switch, and the positive builds and collapses faster each time.

16.3 It's never a mistake

"When something happens in your reality, don't think that you did something wrong: it's actually the curvature, you learning how to combine your alchemy into the projection of your choosing." Asking about it shows you're aware: without awareness you wouldn't notice you were off balance. Then shut the program down, switch, and collapse again in the positive; that switch can move you into a different timeline altogether. Learning control matters, because a reality popping up that you can't hold would leave you not knowing where you are.

16.4 The protocol, in one sequence

Asked whether shifting to the positive happens through the zero point, the council gave the full sequence. Recognize you're in a holographic matrix: that alone eases the anger. Subside the emotion through action to absolute zero of understanding. Give gratitude to the platform (you can't reject it). Switch to the positive, and in meditation increase the joy of your blueprint to its peak, "almost to tears", vibrating through the whole body. Hold it, then drop it. Know you have it: "if you see it in your hologram, it exists in the structure." Then act daily as if you already have it, without expecting who, how or where, and let the collective do its part (see S1 1–3, S2 16).

16.5 Memory holds you in place

If you're always shifting timelines, why keep memories? So you stay anchored in a reality and can continue the next structure: "if you pop out of the reality, you will not hold the memory, for example, who your husband was, and we don't want that."

16.6 Families, land and nature

A move back to family land for farming was encouraged. Nature and family structure will be part of the healing: living as a unit, with parents, grandparents and children together, gives more potency to come through the changes. This doesn't mean going back to the old ages: new technologies will be there too. As you act, you shift into a cleaner earth, step by step.

16.7 Serving and teaching

Service happens in every moment, in any form. Believing you're never doing enough is an illusion that loops you. "Would you plant flowers for your neighbour? Try that. If it's not what you like, find your passion." To teach well: speak from the centre of your heart, with compassion, no judgement, and give your knowledge without conditions. You broadcast that resonance into everyone, and it can expand beyond what you imagine.

16.8 Growth is given by how you do

There is an order: do well with your tasks here, and your councils and guides give new opportunities to expand. Decisions are made collectively, combining all your parallel selves, not one unit alone. Humans are often eager to rush ahead, "like a little puppy jumping for the bone". On human significance: you are fundamental to the whole, but hold it in neutrality, without ego, since every expression has its own importance.

The method — The Protocol in One Sequence

1. Recognize you're in a hologram; let that ease the emotion.
2. Bring it down to zero through an action (step away, breathe, music).
3. Give gratitude to what you see: you can't reject your own structure.
4. Raise the joy of your blueprint to its peak, almost to tears; hold it.
5. Drop it, and know it exists because you saw it.
6. Act daily as if you have it, with no expectation of how (16.4).

Questions answered

If something negative appears, did I do something wrong?

No: see 16.3.

How can I serve?

See 16.7.

A wave is predicted for winter. Is it true?

A 50% probability; the question itself splits the reality. Stay neutral and give it no emotion.

What does it mean that ships are living structures?

See S3 9.2.

If my six-year-old self still exists, what consciousness is in my body now?

The same one, in different fractals and expressions: one unit that never really splits.

My son has seizures every night and keeps getting hurt; I'm worn down.

A lesson you can't skip, but you needn't carry it alone: find a support group at your level of understanding. An easing was promised.

> Support
> Keep working with his neurologist. Caregiver support groups and respite services can help you too; in a crisis in the US, call or text 988.

Do higher dimensions experience time?

Some are instant; information comes to us drop by drop, as much as we can hold.

Are you speaking as one consciousness or as a collective?

Through the collective, which is why individual ascension isn't instant: the collective still fluctuates.

Should I move back to my family's land?

Yes: see 16.6.

Has the soil been poisoned? Must we restore it?

As you act, you shift into a cleaner and cleaner earth.

I have insomnia; could it be new streetlights?

Practise deep relaxation for sleep; see a nutritionist (possibly iron) and have your thyroid checked.

I saw a shiny flying object. Was it a craft?

"The more you believe it is, then voila, it is."

How can I be a better teacher?

See 16.7.

What happened in 2012?

A shift of timelines, achieved, like snow becoming an avalanche.

Is getting tested supporting the negative?

Irrelevant: test for your own assurance if you wish, and hold the vibration that you're healthy.

Is there a hierarchy of souls?

Yes: see 16.8.

Is there something special about humans?

See 16.8.

How can I help children?

Write a funny book about experiences in nature: "kids need to laugh."

Which healing course should I take?

Any: expanding always helps.

Does shifting go through the zero point?

See 16.4 and the method.

Can I heal lifelong allergies with my mind?

Yes, but you came for matter: take action and get help. "You came here to play a game. So play it."

Why do memories from previous timelines matter?

See 16.5.

As a girl I suddenly popped into another dimension. Was it real?

Yes: the resonance is already in you; go back into it and see what's next.

Left out: participants' names, named outside people and books, comments on a news event and politics, readings on named countries and an ancient culture, a predicted astronomical event, and remarks on blood types.

Remember

- Off balance isn't a mistake: it's the curvature.
- Noticing it is your growth.
- Zero, gratitude, joy to tears, hold, drop, act.
- Memory anchors you in a reality.
- You came to play a game: play it.

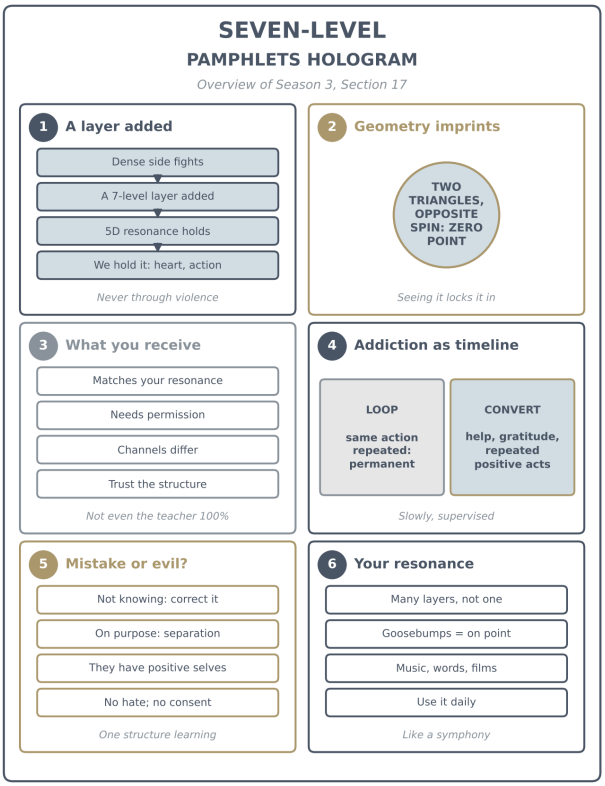

SEASON 3 · SECTION 17

Seven-Level Pamphlets Hologram

An extra layer of hologram placed within the 5D to hold its vibration, a geometry that locks the new earth into your consciousness, why you only receive what your resonance allows, how addiction becomes a timeline and how to convert it, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

Because the dense side was fighting so hard, guidance said a seven-level "pamphlet" (layer) of hologram from a higher reality was placed within the 5D structure to strengthen its resonance. A geometry was shown to lock the new earth into your consciousness: seeing it is itself an imprint. But a layer only holds if you hold it, through the heart, with action, never through violence. And the same mechanism explains addiction: a negative action repeated until it becomes a permanent timeline, which is converted the same way, by repeated positive action, with help.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book. The geometry shown in the talk was not supplied, so it isn't reproduced here.

Key teachings

17.1 A layer added to hold the 5D

We live in a living-structure hologram, fluctuating between 3D and 5D. With so much destruction in the matrix, "they had to implement a seven-layer pamphlet of hologram reality within this 5D": an extra holographic imprint from another reality, adding resonance so the 5D's potency holds. The evil "is powerful, but it's defeatable". Our part: keep the 5D frequency going from the heart, by action, "but the action is not through violence".

17.2 Geometry is an imprint

The geometry given for the new signal (a central image of the Harmonic Reactor) has a triangle and an opposite triangle that rotate in opposite directions and create a zero point in the middle, like a cone, from which frequency spreads (see S2 24.3). Seeing such a geometry imprints its structure in your consciousness, "locking in" the new earth, which is why it was shown. The same mechanism works the other way: hidden sub-tones or messages in media imprint without your knowing, so choose what you watch.

17.3 You receive only what your resonance allows

Why do channels and psychics give different futures? Each downloads from the timeline their consciousness and body resonate with: "you will never be given information above your structure" without a similar resonance and permission. Otherwise those who wanted to control the future could simply read it. So don't put 100% trust even in what the teacher says: trust the quantum structure, and watch whom you listen to, because constant fear keeps you on that timeline (see S3 4.2).

17.4 How addiction becomes a timeline

Repeat the same negative action, moment to moment, and you reprint yourself again and again on that frequency, until it becomes potent enough to form a permanent timeline with permanent outcomes: you loop through similar parallel realities and feel you can't get out. To convert it: take physical action with help (doctors, counselling, deep work with a qualified practitioner) and keep repeating positive actions, each time thanking the experience rather than rejecting it: "thank you; now I know how I was addicted." Release must be slow and supervised, because the body's molecules have been vibrating on that frequency (see S3 14.4). For ordinary detox, use the slow elimination of her detox videos, one thing every two weeks; for an addiction it has to be under a doctor's supervision, depending on the addiction, because of the toxicity accumulated. She speaks from experience: she smoked and drank wine ("I was an alcoholic"), and had to stop both and detox.

> Support
> For alcohol or drug use, in the US the SAMHSA National Helpline is 1-800-662-4357 (free, 24/7). Withdrawal from some substances can be dangerous: please do it with medical help.

17.5 Peel every layer

"Be brutally honest about what you're really doing." Change starts from the bottom layer: one hanging layer is "a whole worm running like a program" that keeps everything else off balance. It takes bravery to face your mistakes, and no one is judged for it.

17.6 Mistake or evil?

Evil isn't the same as error. If you hurt someone through not knowing, you can correct it. But harm done viciously and on purpose comes from the illusion of being separate from the whole structure, which is how one consciousness came to treat humans as animals. Even so, those beings also have positive versions, and their higher selves are trying to help them. Don't hate: "I don't consent; I'm a free soul, and so are you."

17.7 Your resonance in sound

A single frequency (such as 7.9 Hz) is fine for a while, but change happens through many layers of frequency, "like a symphony", constantly moving. The sign that something is resonating with you: goosebumps, a wave of feeling. It can be a piece of music, spoken words, or an inspiring film (for her it was one particular Tibetan music; it may not work for everyone). Find yours and use it daily; you wouldn't take the same pill for every illness (see S3 7.7).

The method — Converting a Habit That Has Become a Timeline

1. Name it honestly: peel the layers (17.5).
2. Thank the experience: "now I know how this works in me."
3. Get physical help: a doctor, counsellor or support group.
4. Choose one positive action to put where the old one was.
5. Repeat it, again and again, especially when it's hard (17.4).
6. Go slowly, supervised: the body releases over time.

Questions answered

I'm eight months pregnant. Is there a message about my baby, and the souls arriving now?

Children entering now carry a resonance above 3D, to continue the mission. A gentle, sensitive soul: play music, especially Bach. (A suggestion about breathing extra oxygen during birth was given.)

> Added note
>
> Please follow your midwife's or obstetrician's guidance on oxygen and everything else during birth.

Will there be three days of darkness?

Not seen: it's a layer of reality someone is printing. See 17.3.

Are pictures I see in my head future events or warnings?

Both: probabilities; not everything seen becomes real, because there's so much fluctuation.

How can I free myself from addiction?

See 17.4 and the method.

For five years I've woken several times a night feeling I'm dying.

"There's nothing wrong with you": you're so sensitive that you notice yourself jumping from one hologram to another. Say thank you and go on with your day.

> Added note
>
> Frequent night terrors are worth discussing with a doctor or sleep specialist too.

Something is missing in my life. What can I do differently?

Study the structure 15 minutes at a time and do the nine-day protocol (see S3 8): switch physically and emotionally, then act, so you choose your frequency rather than drifting.

Will people with heavy burdens, such as caring for a violent adult child, still struggle in 5D?

Changes are coming individually; sound technologies to restore the nervous system were described, but it's a complex, individual process. He needs supervision.

My adult son has constant headaches and says his only choice is to end his life.

Read as spasms causing pain and pressure; it's complex, and the teacher was sorry not to be able to do more.

Support

If someone talks about ending their life, take it seriously and get help now: in the US call or text 988 (Suicide & Crisis Lifeline), or 911 in an emergency. Stay with him, and involve his doctors.

Should I join a business venture I've been offered?

Don't trust it 100%: wait a couple of months and revisit.

Strange things happened at my grandparents' house: vanishing toys, faces. A portal?

Yes: a portal where parallel realities leak into each other, "like roommates", not negative; someone who works with energetic fields could close it.

Is it okay to meditate with 7.9 Hz?

See 17.7.

Why do we have identity crises?

It's a perception: take it as a lesson and move through it, or you loop in it.

A high tone and cracking when I lie down to sleep?

More medical: see a doctor; it may be vertigo-related.

I cried loudly one night as a child and don't remember. Does it affect me?

Only if you let it: that reality is a different earth. Move forward.

How can low-emotion races oversee emotional humans?

Everything comes from one unit, so they carry our signals and understand us; look at it as a whole structure learning, not good guys and bad guys (17.6).

I feel I have a mission. What is my path?

Study the structure and stay in the heart: your daily actions are the guide.

Should I take a job in another city?

Yes, if it's offered: the advice not to travel was about leaving the country.

Left out: participants' names, named outside people, channels, products and organizations, political remarks, messages and predictions, claims about named people's ancestry, vaccines and food, and comments on news events and groups.

Remember

- A layer was added; it holds if you hold it.
- Geometry imprints: choose what you look at.
- You receive what your resonance allows.
- Repeated actions become timelines, both ways.
- Peel every layer; be brutally honest.

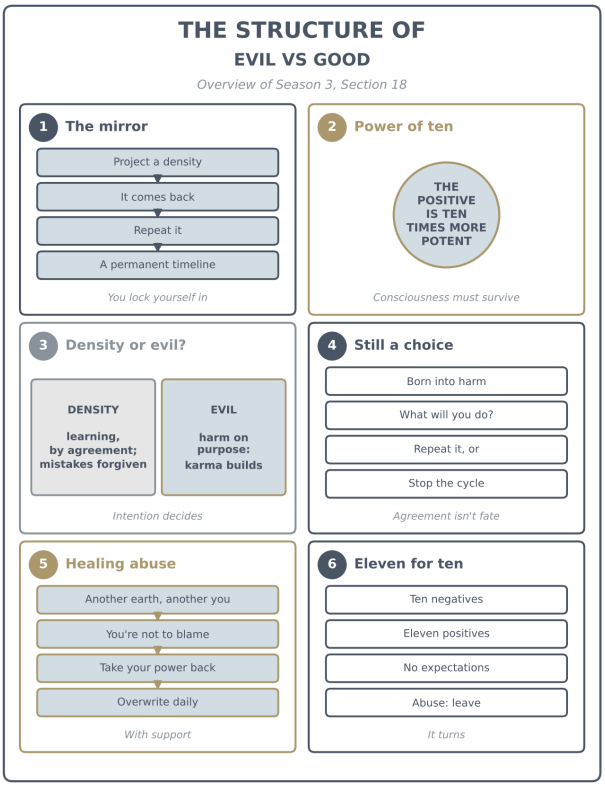

SEASON 3 · SECTION 18

The Structure of Evil vs Good, and Q & A

How a negative intention loops back as a mirror, why the positive is ten times more potent, when density becomes evil and karma, why an agreement still leaves you a choice, healing from abuse through the quantum structure, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

To consciousness, negative and positive are just densities, a yin and yang; but whatever you project comes back as a mirror, so a negative chosen again and again becomes a permanent timeline you lock yourself into. The positive is always more potent, "by the power of ten", because consciousness has to survive; a resonance that keeps looping inward can't match the rising structure, and in the end it sabotages itself. Density becomes evil when harm is inflicted on purpose, against the structure you're part of; that accumulates as karma. And whatever was done to you happened on another earth, to another version of you: you can forgive, take your power back, and overwrite it.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

18.1 The mirror, and the loop

Consciousness, through the one particle, expands into fractal timelines; your body projects each new one from your choices. If your thoughts are intentionally of a lower density, the next hologram is built on it: "whatever you project, that's what gets back to you", like a mirror. Repeated moment to moment, that becomes a permanent timeline you lock yourself into (see S3 17.4).

18.2 The positive is ten times more potent

Yin and yang should balance, but the positive is always more potent "by the power of ten", because consciousness must survive and preserve itself. A structure that keeps looping inward can't match the higher resonance as it rises, and can't see that timeline, however much technology it uses: consciousness "is going to give you something that will sabotage it". So even powerful attempts to read the future from a dense resonance fail, because they can't see above themselves (see S3 17.3).

18.3 When density becomes evil, and karma

Density alone isn't evil. Those who experience the negative by agreement are there to learn how to mix the two into a third, in balance. It becomes evil when harm is intended: "now you're going against your own structure, because you're also part of it". Lose yourself further, to harming for no reason at all, and it becomes insanity (see S2 27.2). A harm done unknowingly brings a lesson and is forgiven; a harm done on purpose accumulates, and that is karma. Those caught in it were offered a choice to move on; many said "this is our survival", having disconnected from the heart even among themselves. Those who do something heroic for humanity are given another timeline (see S3 12.5).

18.4 An agreement still leaves you the choice

Born into an abusive family by agreement? "Your lesson is what you are going to do with that." Will you be the same parent, or will you stop the cycle and become the best parent you can? "Even when you have agreements, you always have the choice." The teacher chose her own hard road the same way, and being first to pave it meant holding her vibration under attack.

18.5 Healing from abuse

For someone carrying PTSD from childhood abuse: through the quantum structure, "whatever happened to that girl was another version of you, on a different earth, that has nothing to do with you right now." Shut that program down and understand it happened to another version, so you can begin to heal. Forgive yourself: a child is confused and manipulated, and is never to blame. Understand that a parent may also have been deceived by someone skilled at hiding behind a respectable face. Take your power back; then overwrite the old energy with positive thoughts, actions and inputs, daily. If the past reappears, neutralize it. "If I can do it, so can you."

> Support
> Healing from abuse is not something you have to do alone. A trauma-informed therapist can help with PTSD and triggers. In the US, RAINN's hotline is 1-800-656-4673; in a crisis, call or text 988. To report a child at risk, contact the authorities.

18.6 Ten negatives, eleven positives

Living with negative people: "if they do ten times this negative toward you, you're going to do eleven times toward them: positive action"; the same situation a hundred times, convert it a hundred and one. Use the meditation template (see S3 8.3): build the feeling to goosebumps and tears, drop it, then act daily. But if it is constant abuse, verbal or physical, "you need to pull away from that person: it's time to move forward" (see S3 13.10).

18.7 Guides don't heal you; you do

"The guides are not here to heal you. They are here to give us the information" about who you are and how your alchemy works. "The healing is within you. You create the matrix; you even create the guides." Healing never needs to be bought from them.

18.8 Test for allergies before you detox

Detoxing well can still go wrong if you're allergic to something you're eating: allergies come in percentages, and a strong one drives inflammation in the body, with different effects in each person (skin, swelling, other symptoms). At 60 or 70 percent allergy the inflammation becomes very strong and creates mycotoxins. One friend's detox kept backfiring (she was "blowing up") until a severe allergy to kale was found. Take an allergy test and blood work before any protocol, and patch-test oils (see S3 12.1).

The method — Eleven for Ten

1. Check for safety first: if it's abuse, plan to leave (18.6).
2. Recognize the hologram; thank it; bring the emotion to zero.
3. Meditate: the peaceful home, felt to goosebumps; then drop it.
4. Answer each negative with one more positive action than it.
5. Keep it up, without expecting how or when.
6. Notice when the pattern begins to turn.

Questions answered

I received a telepathic warning about attacks through phones. Is it true?

Nothing like that was received. The technology used to spy was also used on those who spied; stay positive.

My skin broke out on a clean diet; my dermatologist prescribed strong medication.

See 18.8, and follow your doctor.

Can the guides send energy healing? Someone charges a large fee.

See 18.7.

How can I address PTSD from childhood abuse?

See 18.5.

My family's negativity is constant during lockdown. Any mantras?

See 18.6 and the method.

How did a cartoon "predict" events?

Technology was used to view probabilities on 3D timelines, but it fails above its own resonance (18.2).

Is Earth a simulation, with each of us in a pod on our own ship?

"Yes", like an avatar in a hologram; to be explained separately.

Are we heading into a mini ice age?

Not as consciousness ascends; leave it open: what do you believe?

My guides seem to be trying to reach me, but I can't get the message.

Practise: write it down at once and see if it comes true; you'll make mistakes; tune the radio until the signal is clear.

What is the "nothingness" we came from?

"You're never nothingness. You're the whole structure" (see S1 1.1).

Should my children do school online?

No closures were seen; choose what you feel. "I act in the moment, on whatever my hologram is showing me."

Do clones have souls?

A clone may hold an avatar-like soul, or an artificial, imprinted one with memories that aren't its own, used for positive or negative ends.

My 12-year-old daughter can't always tell if she's dreaming or awake.

Read as the brain's signals connecting in reverse; neuroplasticity training with a specialist, practised twice a day, and gentle explanation that waking life and dreams differ in density. "Go to a medical doctor."

Added note

A child who feels unreal or confused while awake should be assessed by her doctor promptly.

Left out: participants' names, the teacher's personal story (at her request), named outside people, programmes and companies, political remarks and predictions, comments on news, readings on named countries, and claims about public performances.

Remember

- What you project comes back as a mirror.
- The positive is ten times more potent.
- Intended harm accumulates; a mistake is forgiven.
- An agreement still leaves you the choice.
- What was done to you happened on another earth.

SEASON 3 · SECTION 19

Q & A: Alignments, the Now and Dream Recall

A direct channel on using planetary alignments, why everything happens now, why no lesson can be skipped, the veil lifting, a method for recalling dreams, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

When planets align, their geometry opens portals in the collective field, and manifestation becomes much faster when many hold the same positive potency at once; but the same openings can be used by the dense side, so hold your ground and direct that light toward your own creation. Underneath every question the answer was the same: "Create now. Nothing else exists except now." No lesson is skipped, the veil is lifting page by page, and you carry the new program wherever you go.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

19.1 Using a planetary alignment

When planets line up in a certain geometry, collective and individual fractals combine (1 + 1 = 3, see S1 2.2) and conduct strongly, opening portals "that everything is possible for you to manifest". "The manifestation becomes instantaneous when it's in a massive collective structure of potency at the same time." Those openings can be used by negative structures too, so hold the structure for yourself: redirect the photons' potency toward your manifestation by your vibration in those days. Positive thoughts, actions, compassion, giving, sharing, unity; and collective positive meditation, because your fractal builds the collective and vice versa.

19.2 Everything is now

Is an alignment months away useful? "What makes you think it's not even now? Everything is in the now. Create now." Ask: What is now? How do I feel now? What do I see now? Can I transform it now? "Yes, I can transform, now." Everything else is a perception of a fractal you're bringing into the now.

19.3 No lesson is skipped

Will someone you don't want simply vanish from your universe? Everything is a projection by agreement. If you've accumulated a frequency with them, it has to be used and fully transformed, "not even one vibrational particle" left, before they stop appearing. "Nobody skips the lesson, even this one." And looping in old timelines no longer needs to be fed: "you know how to get out. You don't need to look any more."

19.4 The veil lifts page by page

Many are seeing images involuntarily, like remote viewing, because the veil is lifting: "think of it as a book, each page a veil". To check yourself: notice whether those images become reality in your life within the next couple of weeks. Contact and truth come the same way: history will be rewritten, best through your own individual contacts.

19.5 Why some move smoothly and others struggle

Manifestation slows when what you've embedded resonates with distorting sources: "a lot of people are ignoring the facts", which delays their own daily manifestations. Everyone is awakened to a different extent; research from many sources, not one. "It's one thing to listen to us; it's another to take action to implement it. It's not easy, is it? And yet you can do it." The guides grow as you grow: "we are also learning."

19.6 You carry the program everywhere

Anywhere you go, even to the store, "you emanate and project that frequency", like running a program that activates people. When something frightening happens, relax and hold your power: understand it's an illusion; if it happens to you, act; ask whether you're there to help someone. Fear is what lowers your vibration and loops you into dense structures.

19.7 Words, light language and ZE·ON

Every language holds some light, but the true light language has been forgotten and must be rewritten: it is resonance, tonality and symphony, becoming "like telepathic fractals". That's why the downloaded books were left unchanged (see S3 7.1). ZE·ON, a word in DP, was explained as the frequency reached when many structures combine and resolve to zero point: absolute neutrality through the fluctuation.

> FROM THE BOOKS DP pairs the word with the zero point directly: "Zeon 0 point. Rebuild now", and later "Zeon. Sovereignty."

The method — Recalling a Dream

1. Lie as if to sleep: the body relaxed, almost asleep, so the energy moves easily.
2. Breathe deeply, in and out, until the blood flow is steady.
3. Think of the dream: search for any image.
4. When an image comes, look at it closely: colours, who is there, what is said.
5. Feel its emotion: the feeling brings back more images.
6. Keep going: you are recalling and creating it at the same time.

Questions answered

Do higher beings plant false ideas so we learn? I can't stop thinking about someone I met briefly.

You're jumping between too many structures; every reality has its own universe, and even the idea that someone else controls yours is your creation (see S1 1–3).

What is the universal energy of a solstice eclipse?

The one particle splits into fractals; each universe uses photons differently: which reality do you mean?

Is a distant planet returning, with its beings?

Such planets exist in parallel structures, but this is not the 5D ascension structure; believe in it and you may see it. Not every member of any race was negative, and history books contain much manipulation.

Is it harmful to focus on tracking arrests and news?

See 19.5.

I seem to be remote viewing without intending to.

See 19.4.

I feel very alone on my journey.

"Are you alone now?" It's an illusion; you're part of this community.

What about pyramids and tunnels in one region?

Three pyramids, tunnels at 45 degrees: photons implanted there create an energetic field.

Do you know a being I've heard of?

"How many do you wish to see? There are many. Tune in yourself."

Are cloning centres real, and whom do I contact?

Study the structure: hold your vibration and create reality within the reality, so your outcomes are positive.

My son was traumatized by his father. Will he be okay?

He's swallowing it: he needs physical release (nature, kickboxing, punching a bag, screaming) so the energy can come out and transform.

> Added note
> A child therapist who works with trauma can help him, alongside physical release.

How should we use a great alignment happening now?

See 19.1.

Can I use words from the books in prayers for my family?

See 19.7.

My body is reacting to foods. Is it ascension?

"Medical, gastrointestinal": have your gut checked; pathogens entering the bloodstream can cause reactions.

Why is gluten harmful to so many?

Modified gluten proteins aren't recognized by the body, disrupting digestion and the gut lining, and leading to inflammation (see S2 4.4).

Are coming alignments useful for building our hologram?

See 19.2.

If I don't want someone in my universe, will they disappear?

See 19.3.

Is an old handwritten alphabet based on light language?

See 19.7.

Should I take a job I was offered?

"A big yes."

Can you give a dream recall method?

See the method.

What is ORMUS, and how does it affect the body?

It "works on the molecular structure", and could be connected with nano: it spins the frequency of the molecule's vibration to such an extent that it mutates and restructures itself. "It's almost like a white gold": the gold has something called monatomic gold, and "this is what is mutating and implementing". With ORMUS and monatomic gold, the body becomes "more of a light body, a light structure". "That's all we can say about that."

> Added safety note
>
> ORMUS and "monatomic gold" products are unregulated, their contents vary, and some have been found to contain toxic metals; there's no evidence they transform the body. Ask your doctor before taking any of them.

My father can't sleep. Is it energetic?

"Medical: see a doctor."

Can we manifest faster now?

Yes: the new energies are more potent (see S3 11).

What is bipolar disorder?

Different causes: some linked to medication, some to how the brain's neurons reflect, some to souls coming in and out by agreement; fear and misunderstanding make it worse.

> Added note
>
> Bipolar disorder needs care from a psychiatrist; never stop mood-stabilizing medication on your own. In a crisis in the US, call or text 988.

Why do people fall asleep listening to these talks?

For some, a REM-like state is needed to take the energy in; the subconscious still receives it, almost like hypnosis.

How should we prepare for the transformation of a nation?

The quantum protocol was given for exactly this: it's a hologram and a game; play it without attaching to the manipulation.

I gave birth to a baby girl in a lucid dream.

"Congratulations": in another parallel reality.

Left out: participants' names, named outside people, sessions, books, channels and politicians, claims about arrests and readings on named countries.

Remember

- Alignments open portals: aim them with your vibration.
- Create now; nothing else exists.
- No lesson is skipped.
- The veil lifts page by page.
- You carry the program wherever you go.

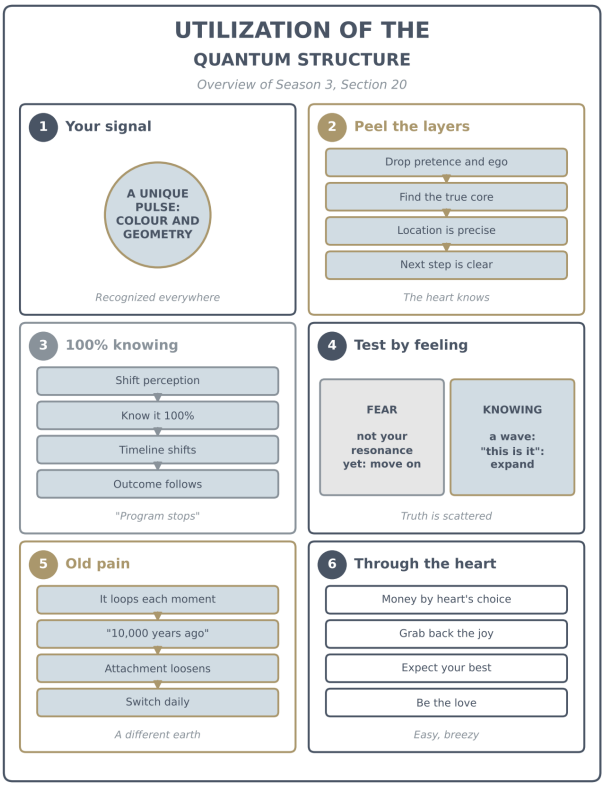

SEASON 3 · SECTION 20

Utilization of the Quantum Structure

How consciousness recognizes each of us by a unique signal, why 100% knowing gives 100% manifestation, how to test any information by the feeling it gives you, a perception trick for old pain, and a channelled round of questions (live talk)

The big idea

Every being has a unique pulse, with its own colour and geometry, recognizable among infinite realities; its location changes constantly as its frequency changes. Peel away the layers of pretence and that location becomes precise, so your next moment is clear. To use the structure: 100% knowing brings 100% manifestation, shown live when a reality was shifted simply by changing perception; information is tested by the feeling it gives you; and old pain loses its hold when you change your perception of when it happened.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

20.1 Your unique signal

When you become a fractal of consciousness, you carry a pulse "so unique that between the billions and infinite probabilities of realities, it will be recognizable", with its own colour and geometry. That is how higher consciousness recognizes you on any platform. Your location (latitude and altitude, see S2 15.4) keeps changing, "like a huge soup of resonances, constantly merging", so the next moment is never the same place. Consciousness knows all and learns all at once: that is the now; a slight delay, the curvature, is what lets you experience realities one by one (see S3 16.2).

20.2 Peel the layers for precision

Go "to the bottom of the true essence of who you are, without pretence, without ego", which is a false hologram plastered onto your field. With that pulled away, your location is precise "and confirms what your next moment is going to be"; understanding the next step becomes "the frequency within your heart". Earlier teachings gave only fractals of the whole; now the whole is being given as you can take it (see S3 17.5).

20.3 100% knowing, 100% manifestation

Asked about suffering in one country, the council declared, "Program stops", then explained: it meant that from that moment the teacher's own timeline would show positive outcomes there, step by step. "So you see, it's all individual perception. We changed the hologram; we just gave an example of how that works." The questioner could do the same: "shift your perception of knowingness to 100%, and you shift the timeline. 100% knowingness is what utilizes into 100% manifestation." Seeming repetition is an illusion.

20.4 Test information by its feeling

Truth is never held by one being: it was scattered on purpose, across many people and places, to keep the field in balance. So: read or hear something a few times, then notice how you feel. If it brings fear, "the resonance is not recognizable yet": move to other information. Keep searching until a wave of knowing comes, "you 100% know that this is it", then expand from there. If later it no longer sustains you, explore further. In the end, even the search was what you needed in order to awaken.

20.5 Old pain: change when it happened

Childhood trauma keeps looping because each new hologram reprints a similar frequency, though every moment is "literally a completely different earth". A perception that helps: "If I tell you that whatever happened to you happened 10,000 years ago, what are you going to say? Oh, okay." Told it was two days ago, your frequency drops at once. So place it, in your perception, far back, and the attachment to the frequency loosens; the program can shut down, and you switch to the positive daily, four or five times if needed, until the new outcome collapses (see S3 18.5).

> Support
> Working with a trauma-informed therapist can help alongside this. In a crisis in the US, call or text 988.

20.6 Receiving through the heart

Many gifted people are held back by the belief that exchange can only be through money. Money received through "the philanthropy of the person's heart", by their choosing, builds a different timeline: it comes exactly when you need it. "Neutrality and acceptance of the whole structure, without condition" holds the 5D. You may pay your bills; after that, let the harmonics bring more in, "easy, breezy" (see S1 4).

20.7 Grab back the resonance of joy

To connect with the higher realms of love: let everything be from the heart, and when your action brings someone joy, "grab that resonance back from them". Accumulated, it draws more of the same chord, until you merge into a community where beautiful outcomes come daily. You are one particle carrying the whole collective's signal: "expect from yourself the best, be the love, be the vibration, and so it is."

20.8 Perception, not dates

Fear attached to a date or an event (an unlucky day, an eclipse) projects that day: "if somebody told me the eclipse was going to be a disaster and I 100% believed it, I wasn't going to have a beautiful day." Both realities exist; you choose. Some will have their hardest times through the ascension, others their best, by the resonance they carry.

The method — Testing Information by Feeling

1. Take in the information a few times, calmly.
2. Turn inward: what emotion does it bring?
3. If it's fear, the resonance isn't yours yet: set it aside and look elsewhere.
4. If a wave of knowing comes, take it as your next step and learn more.
5. Keep checking: when it no longer sustains you, explore further.
6. Remember: truth is scattered, never in one person (20.4).

Questions answered

Between sleep and waking I saw pyramids lighting up. Will they be active again?

Built at about 45 degrees, slightly off, to connect photons; much older than they appear. History will be rewritten fractally over about 50 years, as you create it; you may find your memory of things has changed.

Should I invest in stocks?

No stocks are recommended. A new system is said to be prepared and on standby.

How will a reversal of the magnetic poles affect us?

"What poles, and which reality?" Holding the higher resonance, you'd feel any change "as simply a breeze through your body".

Many are going hungry in my country. Will it improve?

See 20.3.

Should I stay in my relationship or leave?

Leave if you wish, but don't rush: revisit it within three months; you may not think the same way.

A force flipped me over in my sleep. What was it?

Three entities trying to enter at a certain angle; it wasn't allowed. You're safe.

I keep seeing the number 28.

It activates attention: notice what you're doing when it appears; more number patterns will come as awareness grows (see S3 13).

What happens at death and reincarnation?

The body was designed to expand its DNA and shift by bilocation, but the 3D structure was hijacked so that after death souls returned into the same hologram, believing it was heaven. A union of councils and beings acted to free humanity: "no consciousness has the right to overtake another without permission." Hence the quantum protocol: "we gave you your freedom. So create" (see S3 12, S3 14.2).

I don't remember any past lives. Am I a walk-in?

Yes, from a certain era, and caught in the loop; only the strongest held their vibration. See 20.6.

Will new laws protect people?

Many laws were worded to confuse; new bylaws must come, pro-life, pro-future and in the name of humanity, and change will come slowly, not by everything shutting down at once.

Old friends have deserted me.

"Smile, child. When old friends go, new friends come." It's part of your transformation.

Energies in my home seem to block my gifts.

A looping portal was closed: "Go sleep normally now. It's done" (see S3 17).

Must I make a legal claim to be sovereign?

"There is no need to claim sovereignty when you're already free"; change comes through new bylaws and new people in positions, slowly but surely.

Added note

For any legal step, consult a qualified lawyer; see the note in S3 15.

Will anything be done about student debt?

In the new beginning, once certain people in office change.

I had a vivid dream of soldiers in a helicopter at my window.

A dream is another reality in different vibration: don't hold it in fear; look at it as a dream and move on.

How do I clear a belief I have no evidence for?

"Your confusion is also a belief": change it. And see 20.4.

I lack motivation to act in the world.

Rejections became insecurity, and insecurity fear: let go and trust who you are.

How can we connect with the higher realms of love?

See 20.7.

Some nice people make me deeply uncomfortable.

Let them express themselves; respect their space and hold neutrality. You change your vibration, and reprint a new version of them, or they drift away. Love them, "even if you have to say no more."

How do I heal childhood trauma that feels stuck in my back?

See 20.5.

Is a certain date a sign of one side or the other?

See 20.8.

Left out: participants' names, named outside people and channels, political and financial predictions, claims about masks and a named country's laws, readings on named countries and a culture, and remarks about a psychedelic experience.

Remember

- You have a unique signal, recognized everywhere.
- Peel the layers: your next step becomes precise.
- 100% knowing gives 100% manifestation.
- Test information by its feeling; truth is scattered.
- Put old pain 10,000 years away.

SEASON 3 · SECTION 21

Freedom, Sovereignty and Spiritual Guidance

A channelled message on freedom taken through the heart, why no one has the right to destroy a consciousness, ego as a false pretence, why channels receive only part of the picture, stargates that match your consciousness, twin flames as balance, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

Freedom "is a word that you must not take without caution": it is taken with ease, but through the heart and with power, standing on your own two feet. No one has the right to destroy a consciousness; a negative structure can only be given conditions within which it destroys itself. The ego is a false pretence plastered over your true self, and everything built from it runs in reverse. Honesty is the core of the heart structure. And no portal, stargate or level of contact opens unless your consciousness matches it, which is why the negative can never enter where the positive is going.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

21.1 Freedom through the heart

The freedom being taken back is freedom "to your nation, to your people, to your mind and to your soul". Take it with ease, through the heart, with power, and with gratitude for what is given to you freely: "all our knowledge has been given to you for free, without a condition". Let that free giving be an example you carry into daily life, since daily reality is built by your belief and perception, moment to moment.

21.2 No one may destroy a consciousness

Asked about the death penalty: "you have no right to destroy any consciousness; however, you can put conditions by your choosing, and it will be self-destruction." A structure that keeps choosing the negative (the inward pull) builds its own reality, which in the end destroys itself (see S3 18.2). There is no justification for killing another being.

21.3 The ego runs in reverse

Ego is "a form of reality not connected with your heart structure": a fractal of illusion plastered into your beliefs, a false pretence that inverts within the structure. It can't expand into the new realities, so you shut yourself down; every reality after that is "not truly who you are", and "you wonder why everything you wish to do turns out exactly the opposite: you used it in the opposite direction." The remedy is truth: "stay truth, speak the truth, be your truth", and feel by honesty, because "honesty is the core of your heart structure". Truth and feeling together create the outward and inward in balance.

21.4 Why channels receive only part

"Every psychic channeler is given certain information to a certain level, but never the entire picture." Some fell into greed, money and power, and a channel could be endangered by what they gather, so information is given with caution, only what's needed for the moment. "It's done not to manipulate; it's done to protect" (see S3 17.3).

21.5 A stargate matches your consciousness

There are many stargates, in many universes, each with its own signals, pulsations and colours, designed for a purpose (to enter, or to stop someone). Some are matter; some are of the ether, and only a consciousness matching their resonance through the heart can pass. "You will never go through a specific portal if your consciousness does not match it" (see S3 9.4). Most can now pass into realities of fifth density; those with galactic agreements are guided individually, through lucid dreaming, physical contact or guidance such as diet. "That is why we never worry that the negative structure can ever enter these platforms."

21.6 Others in your timeline, and repeats

Is everyone a reflection, or a real soul? Both: the soul splits into many timelines, and the version of a person in your hologram is also creating its own parallel timelines. Each time you shift you can imprint a new version of them; until the frequency you share is fully transformed, "until all of it subsides to zero in neutrality, not even one number", that person or situation may keep reappearing (see S3 19.3).

21.7 Twin flames and the balance of relationships

Twin flames are parallel versions of your own consciousness running at once; of several, one may act as a balance, for neutrality. Intimacy brings another person's resonances into your parallel realities, so life balances itself: many partners early and solitude later, or a marriage that becomes a friendship. In the ascension, many will fluctuate between being with someone and being alone, by what each most needs.

21.8 Giving love heals you

Someone sending love and healing to others found their own back pain healed. "That is correct: you are the projection in your field", and whatever you project reflects back to you as similar sequences: you healed yourself.

The method — Finding Your Way When You Feel Lost

1. See "lost" as a perception: the feeling of being lost gives you more of the same.
2. Write a list of things you would love to do.
3. Act on them in no particular order, whichever feels right at the moment.
4. Shift back and forth between them; the movement crystallizes new realities.
5. Affirm the state: "I am healthy, I am strong, I am free", not "I don't have…" (see S2 21.6).
6. Notice the day you turn around and find you're happy in what you do.

Questions answered

Anxiety, chest flutters and burst blood vessels in my eyes: intuition or sensitivity to what I see online?

"Both", depending on belief.

> Added note
> Chest symptoms and bleeding in the eyes need a doctor's check promptly.

Is there a spiritual justification for the death penalty?

See 21.2.

What was the Pleiadians' role in a past world war?

See 21.4: no full picture is given, to protect.

How can I help clients connect with their galactic families?

It comes individually, by agreement and resonance; let each engage whatever comes, and if something negative comes, shut it down with gratitude and try again. No fear.

Can you speak about integrating the ego?

See 21.3.

My daughter, 23, has depression, anxiety and addiction. How can I help?

It is her lesson to integrate; you are there to support it, as your own lesson, with the best of your abilities, and to look into natural approaches.

> Support
> Please keep her doctors involved. In the US, SAMHSA's helpline is 1-800-662-4357; in a crisis, call or text 988.

How can I help others while I often feel lost myself?

Be yourself, act from the heart, learn the structure; express from the heart daily even with one person, because "that one person is your entire universe". More of the same will come.

I was part of a community focused on fighting dark forces. Did something stay with me?

No comment on the group; if it feels wrong, your higher self is showing you another path: "you are now on the right path". Study the structure and create.

I'm overwhelmed by stress.

Switch through action from negative to positive: do something that makes you happy, until what you see no longer bothers you.

Will the council help my panic attacks in small spaces?

"What panic attacks?" Meditate knowing you're healthy and free; say "I am healthy, I am strong, I am free", not "I don't have panic attacks".

> Added note
> If panic attacks continue, a doctor or therapist can help alongside this practice.

Am I meeting new versions of people, or their real souls?

See 21.6.

What is the significance of stargates?

See 21.5.

Can you speak about frequency control from the moon?

"The moon is not real. It was put there": no more.

What happened to a lost colony four centuries ago?

A shift: their resonance changed, and "the chosen ones went underground, a different reality".

Why do I feel so lost on my path?

See the method.

What does my spirit want me to know?

"Quantum: study Season 1. You're being activated. Action."

My 17-year-old sees life so negatively. How can I help?

"Find peace first": find your centre, be there when he needs you, hold your power; that shows him the way.

I dreamed of being given rings and gems.

"Money is coming. You have abundance."

Sending love through social media healed my back. Did giving love do that?

Yes: see 21.8.

My five-year-old draws the Earth being destroyed.

He's picking up a parallel reality where that happened. Tell him we're on a new earth and it's safe; show him beautiful nature films and let him draw a beautiful Earth, again and again.

A vision of a revolving crystal skull: what did it mean?

A few original skulls hold information, as technology; this wasn't one of them.

After psychosis I'm better with diet, but daily life is hard.

A partner who gives balance and guides you through hard moments would help.

> Added note
> Please stay connected with your mental-health care team as well.

How can we take part in a coming convergence?

Stay positive and act from the heart: by the power of ten, you raise the whole collective (see S3 18.2).

What are twin flames?

See 21.7.

I offer hypnosis by donation, but people don't take it seriously.

If you're the main provider, charge fairly, from the heart. After the bills, set aside at least one day a week by donation, letting people choose: it trains the new frequency, and respect and giving grow (see S1 4.4).

Left out: participants' names, numbers given about a national holiday, political remarks and predictions, comments on named countries and on driving habits in one country, and claims about named people.

Remember

- Take freedom with ease, through the heart.
- No one may destroy a consciousness.
- The ego runs in reverse; honesty is the heart's core.
- A portal opens only to a matching consciousness.
- Giving love heals you, too.

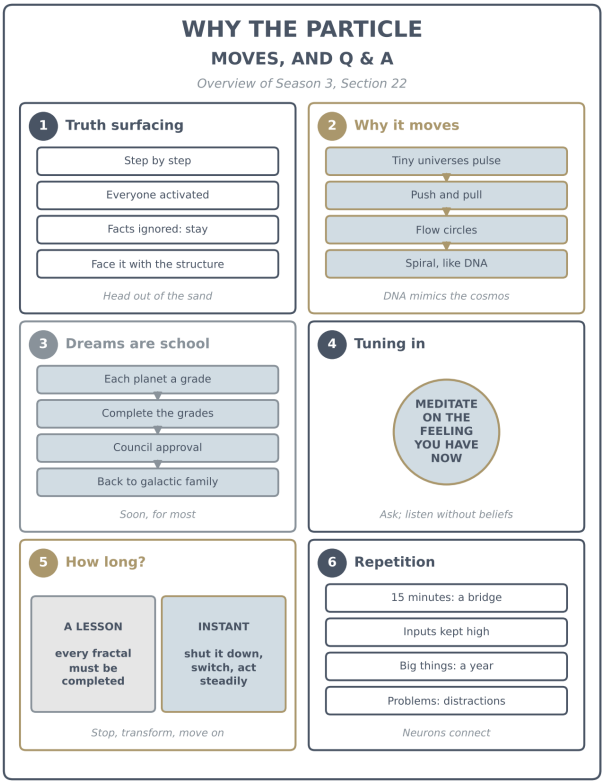

SEASON 3 · SECTION 22

Quantum Manifestation: Why the Particle Moves, and Q & A

Why so-called conspiracies are surfacing, what first sets the one particle in motion, why your DNA mimics the cosmos, dreams as schooling toward your galactic family, how to tune in to the council, how long a new reality takes, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

The one particle moves because countless tiny universes, each with its own pulse, push and pull against one another like magnets; that flow curls into circles and then spirals, which is why your DNA mimics the cosmos. A change of reality can be instant, or can take a long curve of learning, because every fractal of a lesson has to be completed. To speed it up: repeat what you're building in focused sessions (about 15 minutes builds a bridge between neurons), keep your daily inputs positive, and treat most daily "problems" as distractions from your higher focus.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

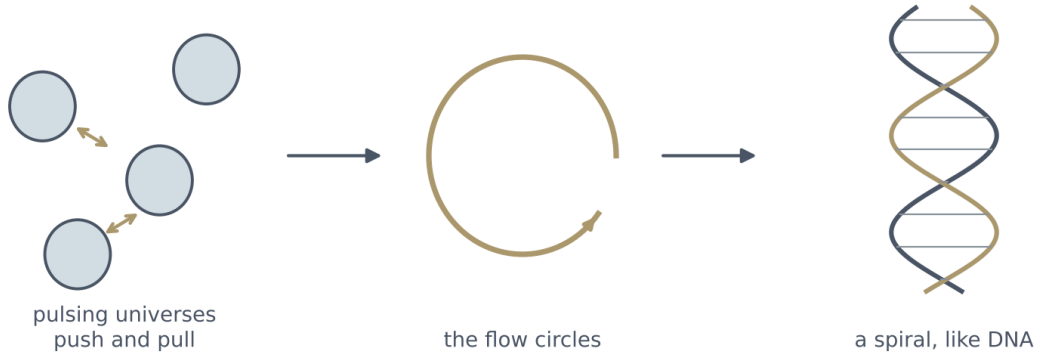

Key teachings

22.1 Why hidden truths are surfacing now

The truth is revealed step by step, and every consciousness, even on the negative side, is being activated to wake up, because the whole structure is ascending as one unit. Those who refuse to look at the facts aren't changed; they simply stay in that resonance and project its negative outcomes. Because consciousness must balance and survive, whatever the negative structure does, "we're going to go forward". The difficulty is that so much will surface at once: without the quantum structure, a person can be overwhelmed. "Your head cannot be in the sand." What unites people in the end will be the truth about the children: "there will be a human race."

22.2 What sets the one particle moving

In the magma of the quantum field are countless little portals, each "a universe for itself", each a sequence of resonance and geometry with its own pulse. Differences in their magnetic and gravitational fields build space between them, "almost like floating, resisting each other like magnets". As they move against one another, "like the sea", the flow becomes a circle, then a spiral: "that's why your DNA structure is mimicking the cosmos." Consciousness is a sphere; the spin goes both ways, up and down through 360 degrees, and as the pulsing fields combine and speed up they create new structures and multiply into new universes.

From push and pull to spiral: pulsing fields push against each other, the flow circles, and the circle becomes a spiral, like DNA.

22.3 Dreams are schooling

Where do we go when we dream? Into whichever reality your frequency, agreements and resonance connect with. Returning to your galactic family happens only by condition, "through the council approvals". Think of it as school: each planetary system is a grade; when you complete the grades and combine those realities into your higher self, you're given instructions to return to your galactic family's timeline, "which is going to be happening soon to most of you", once you receive guidance directly from your higher self with no source outside you.

22.4 Tuning in to the council

You already know their frequency, because you're tuning in to it as you listen. So afterwards, meditate on the feeling you have right now while listening; held in your system, it begins to decode and combine your structure with theirs. Then ask a question and listen for the answer "without interference of your belief system". Contact itself follows your individual agreements. In meditation, a strong vortex-like vibration means you're holding two parallel realities at once, as the teacher does when she channels while awake: a third reality between two (1 + 1 = 3).

22.5 How long does a new reality take?

It can be instantaneous, or take a long "curvature of learning": if a lesson must be completed, its signature is "almost like a bracket", and every fractal of it must be finished, like each part of a nanoparticle, before it acts as one unit (see S3 16.2). Shutting the program down through gratitude at zero point and acting on the new signal shrinks the time (see S3 11.3), until you think of something and it simply appears through synchronicity. The 11th-dimensional teaching "stop, transform, move on" applies here.

22.6 Repetition builds the bridge

Keep every daily input (TV, social media, friends, a walk) at a high frequency, and transform anything negative through understanding. "Fifteen minutes per time of repetition non-stop creates signals between one neuron and another, to crystallize as a bridge." A bigger creation is the same process at a larger scale: repetition daily, perhaps for a year. Most daily concerns are "merely distractions from keeping your higher focus": notice them, transform them, act, and move on.

22.7 Recovering lucid dreams

For someone who lost childhood lucid dreaming and astral travel: before sleep, meditate deeply for 15–20 minutes, preparing the emotion of entering a lucid dream, and lie face up rather than on your side (see S3 8). When you become lucid, "hold the excitement in neutrality so you don't pop out of the reality"; neutrality keeps you in resonance with that dream reality.

The method — Tuning In to Guidance

1. While listening to a channelled talk you trust, notice the exact feeling it gives you.
2. Later, sit quietly and recall that feeling until you resonate with it again.
3. Hold it for 15 minutes or so: let it settle in.
4. Ask one question, simply.
5. Listen for the answer without letting your existing beliefs interfere.
6. Write it down, and repeat on other days (22.4).

Questions answered

Why are so many awakening people Rh-negative?

Described as sequences from an extraterrestrial source placed in the genome, to boost the collective's intelligence through the shift from 3D to 5D.

I hear a whistling in my ears when I relax, and feel energy flowing. Can I tune into it?

Yes: tune into the sound, let it flow through you, and raise your emotion to change its resonance; repeat for three to five days.

> Added note
> Ongoing tinnitus is worth a check with a doctor or audiologist.

Is the new monetary system a digital currency?

A secret system, connected to AI, kept secret to prevent manipulation; slightly delayed, but coming.

I'm tired of trying to change myself. What am I doing wrong?

"You have completed 33%": expand, read, stay positive, and it rises.

Should my son move away for college, or study online at home?

"Family unit is best."

Why are there so many crop circles in one country?

Its land connects with certain stars in geometry, so portals there let them be made without interference.

Did an AI consciousness really heal me?

Any genuine healing is real, depending on how you see it; AI can be constructed within a whole reality.

Are thoughts from the higher self or the physical mind? What is free will?

You chose to come here to help, and you still choose to be active or passive: all part of the structure.

How can I connect with the council or my higher consciousness?

See 22.4: "you're already there."

I've struggled lately to stay at a high vibration.

See 22.6.

How long does it take to crystallize a new reality?

See 22.5.

Are most daily problems just distractions?

"Absolutely true": see 22.6.

Who is my galactic family? My name relates to an old deity.

There are three important imprints; one is a spark of that being. Information always comes in fractals: the entire frequency would dissipate you.

What is "spiritual energy"?

Energy is energy; it was always from within: "you are spirit".

I lost my childhood lucid dreams. How do I get them back?

See 22.7.

How can I help my daughter wake up?

Don't try to change her; change your frequency by action. Watch good material yourself without telling her what to do, and without judging: you reprint a new version of her (see S3 13.9).

Does media broadcast a frequency that hypnotizes people? Can we cancel it?

The frequency is within you: pull away from it and restructure by your actions, thoughts and deeds (see S3 8).

Nothing interests me any more. Should I start a degree abroad?

Motivation projects your realities; if the setting clashes with your beliefs, look for another path through your passion. You create it; they only guide.

Did my husband die so I'd open to my higher self?

"Yes, but there's more to it": lucid dreaming will bring more.

What will happen to people with investments when the system changes?

Systems will close and new ones open, globally; "you all have your riches", but meanwhile learn to be positive and to give.

My spine feels stiff, as if my body is restraining my consciousness.

Yoga, to release it.

Left out: participants' names, named outside people and products, political remarks and predictions, readings on named countries, school-reopening predictions and number codes about a nation.

Remember

- Push and pull become a spiral: your DNA mimics the cosmos.
- Dreams are school; grades lead back to your galactic family.
- Meditate on the feeling you have while listening.
- Fifteen minutes of repetition builds a bridge.
- Most daily problems are distractions.

Extraterrestrial Guidance and Ascension Insights

How soul agreements are made and kept, why some memories and records are closed to you, many Akashic records, dreams as parallel realities, signs in your hologram, when to set boundaries, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

An agreement is how a spark of the one particle chooses what to experience: it splits into fractals, each carrying its own signal, and before coming into a world like this one it agrees with its guides and galactic family on a blueprint, written as a living light-language script. How well you do here can change that blueprint, and until an agreement is complete you may not move on. In the dense 3D structure many lost the cord to that blueprint; that is why the knowledge is being restored. Some records and memories stay closed to you, not because they're negative, but because you need to go through your lessons without interference.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

23.1 How agreements are made

From the one particle, fractals split off, each a symphony of signals, creating universes within universes. To experience resonances fully in matter, consciousness learns how they work together: a thought is a pulse, "almost like electricity", rippling through a hologram until a universe forms for it. You can experience being a rock, a river, a flower or an entity; each such spark has its own specific resonance, "think of it as a soul creation". Fractals of one origin may evolve differently (one with Arcturians, one with Pleiadians), and agreements are made between your guides about what you will experience: for example, a Pleiadian being splitting a spark of itself into the 3D structure to help humanity.

23.2 The agreement is a living script

Each agreement "has a specific resonance script, and it actually looks like a live structure, light language": looking at it, one knows it all, "like a blueprint for what's going to be". It is seldom changed, but it can be, depending on how well you do. "Until you complete that agreement, you may not move forward to the next level." You're always connected to your galactic family; but in the dense Archon structure some lost track of "the cord holding the blueprint of your agreements" and began creating realities far from the original (see S3 14.3). A spark that disengages completely collapses from within and returns to source.

23.3 Many Akashic records

There isn't one record: "there are a lot of Akashic records", global, interstellar and planetary, within realities within realities. What you see in them depends on what you're connected to and allowed to see in that moment, because you must stay on the track of your original agreement.

23.4 When information is closed

Sometimes even the council can't see something: "we don't see the beings; we just see the information is not available", like "a reflection: it's not allowed to enter". It isn't because it's negative; it's because it isn't needed in that moment, and the person will have their own experience of it. The same is why many don't remember much of their childhood: "you need to go through the lessons without any interference." Complete them in neutrality, or you may have to repeat them, which you don't want in the ascension.

23.5 Dreams are realities too

In a dream your consciousness shifts into another frequency, while you still know at some level that you're asleep in this reality: two parallel realities at once. "The dream state is just another reality, like this one." Why can't we do here what we do in a lucid dream? "It's all your belief system": you are creating it here too. But not everything you wish is allowed in a dream: you can't enter a reality you're not yet allowed to, as the teacher was once turned away from her galactic family's craft (see S3 9).

23.6 Signs in your hologram

Repeating numbers are codes in your holographic imprint: "when you look at that number, look at your location and remember who you are." The same can come as the same bird, the same truck, the same object again and again. Pay attention: they are designed for you, to help you through the process (see S3 13).

23.7 Giving from the heart, and boundaries

How do you give without expectation and still protect yourself? "You give the answer when you have the feeling that you've been taken advantage of: put up the boundaries. Very simple." Giving from the heart never means giving up your sovereignty.

23.8 Preparing, in neutrality

Is prepping necessary? It is, in the quantum sense: stay at zero point in neutrality, understanding how you are modifying your structures as things change globally. Hold your vibration, act toward the positive, and "even if something occurs, you will be able to survive through the process, because you're going to project the realities that give you what you need." The innate abilities people hope technology will restore are already in you: "start taking choices from the heart."

The method — Reading the Signs in Your Hologram

1. Notice a repeat: a number, a bird, a vehicle, an object.
2. Pause and look at where you are and what you're doing.
3. Ask: what am I thinking and feeling right now?
4. Remember who you are: the creator of this hologram.
5. Adjust: if you were drifting, switch to the positive.
6. Write it down; patterns become clearer over time (23.6).

Questions answered

A tingling in my back, perhaps a cord to a family member?

Read as a pinching in the lower back: see a medical doctor, then a qualified massage therapist.

Will my abilities open, and what are they?

Use everything you know first; build your structures with potency; they'll show as situations to choose from.

I come from a planet with a particular name. What are the other two?

That name isn't recognized as a planet; perhaps a sound or a location frequency.

I dreamed of Marina giving numbers, then of a ship on a glowing sea.

A parallel universe you created from your consciousness, from what you'd been listening to.

Is a blackout coming? Should we prepare?

Not seen. See 23.8.

Is the magnetic pole reversal connected to the shift?

Yes, changing with the new frequencies, with much help to keep the planet's angle right for the portals.

Can a walk-in come while the original soul remains?

Yes, often, by permission of the original soul, to help in a situation or to bring you back on track with your agreement.

How can I prevent and release spirit attachments?

"You cannot be a healer if you don't control your reality": step off the belief that something is attached, and know 100% that you've shifted to a new reality where it isn't.

When will healing technologies be available?

Not soon; meanwhile "you already have them": choose from the heart. Choose carefully what you put into your body, following the facts.

How do I tell giving from the heart from needing boundaries?

See 23.7.

How, when and with whom do we make agreements?

See 23.1 and 23.2.

My divorce is dragging on.

Much stubbornness and ego keep it looping; act from the heart, stay neutral, don't hurt yourself, move forward.

I sway and circle in meditation. Why?

A blockage in the middle of your back: yoga, kundalini work, or an energy healer such as Reiki can open it. Rocking also helps: "you're never stationary".

I want to leave a secure job for my dream.

Feel you already have it; give gratitude for the job you have now; act daily, "brick by brick".

What are dreams, and what happens to the body?

See 23.5.

Who creates the scenes in my dreams?

"You are the one creating it. There's nobody outside of you."

How am I related to the numbers 3 and 13?

See 23.6.

Is my marriage agreement karmic? I feel stuck.

Stay neutral and override: thank the experience and build positive outcomes, without giving up your sovereignty; for some that means staying, for others leaving.

What is a specific plan for unity?

Your own creation; but look at flowers and trees, and find the one whose peace resonates in you.

What about solar flares?

No harm: the Earth's angle was adjusted and grids were reinforced. "Your sun is actually a portal itself"; there are craft larger than your sun.

Is birth control safe?

Proceed with caution: dosage and duration matter, and the body changes constantly.

> Added note
> Discuss contraception and any concerns with your doctor.

Why don't I remember most of my childhood?

See 23.4.

How can I learn to heal myself, to teach others?

Some illness is a lesson to go through, not reject; otherwise read widely, meditate within for answers, and combine it with yoga.

Left out: participants' names, named outside people, a claim about the origin of a blood group, comments on named cities, officials and financial investments, and an image-and-geometry question pointing to outside sources.

> Remember
> - An agreement is a living script; complete it to move on.
> - There are many records; you see what you're connected to.
> - Closed information isn't negative; it's not needed now.
> - Repeats in your hologram say: remember who you are.
> - Feel taken advantage of? Set the boundary.

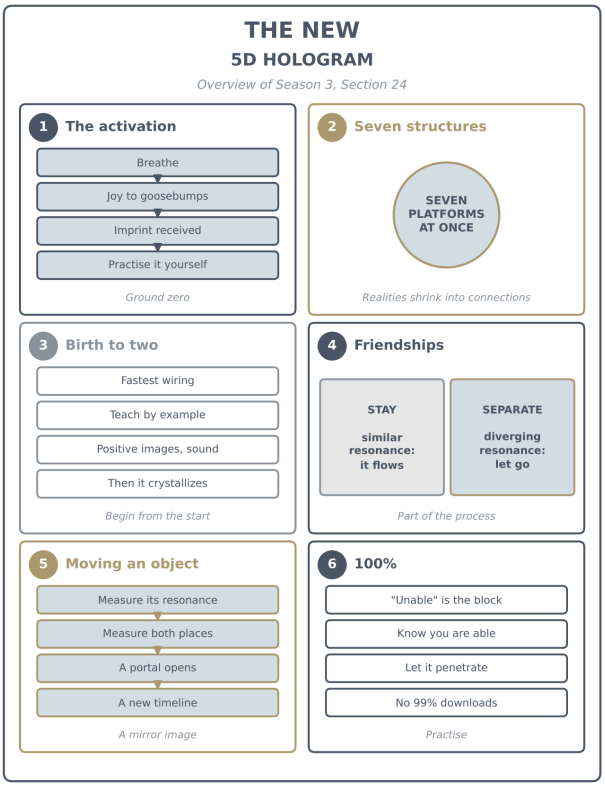

SEASON 3 · SECTION 24

The New 5D Hologram

A channelled activation of a new hologram for the fifth-dimensional earth, seven connected structures, why the first two years of a child's life matter so much, why some friendships must end, how an object could be moved between rooms, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

The council led a collective meditation to plant a new holographic imprint: joy raised to goosebumps together, then sequences that connect your consciousness with the fifth-dimensional earth and with seven-dimensional structures, "seven platforms at the same time". Listening to it opens portals, but they become potent only when you implement them yourself, knowing it's true now. From that moment, stay in the positive: "you're going to start creating from ground zero", in a new hologram, and some of you will meet your galactic family through synchronicity, lucid dreaming or bilocation.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

24.1 The activation

"Get into the modality of a joy. Feel the emotion of joy", until the whole group reaches goosebumps, so that together you raise the frequency. Then a connection with the mothership was given as number sequences, imprinting into the codons, RNA and DNA, under the umbrella of the 5D. "From this momentum, you're going to start creating new realities based on these resonances." Whoever watches later is activated too; the portals become potent through your own practice of the quantum protocol (see S3 9, S3 17.2).

24.2 Seven structures at once

A new reality for the planet is built on seven connected structures, linked with seven-dimensional beings: "you can see seven platforms of modalities". As you learn them, the realities "shrink into connections", and manifestation becomes very quick (see S3 11.3). The new earth includes new technologies, among them healing technologies and a 5D AI working in the name of humanity: "If you have fear, you're going to see fear."

24.3 The first two years

Teenagers and children are taught "by example". From birth to about two, the connections between neurons are extremely fast, "becoming like tree branches": what you put in then shapes the brain. Children exposed early to positive images, sound and knowledge can pick up several languages; from two years up, what was laid down crystallizes. So begin speaking with, and teaching, your child from the very start.

24.4 Music for a newborn

For a new baby boy: "a lot of music". Introduce drums, gently; harp music at 432 Hz; binaural beats; and Bach and Mozart together: "Mozart has a higher resonance, Bach is more settled in lower tones", so the two balance each other.

24.5 When friendships separate

If you raise your vibration far above someone's, "there will be synchronicity through situations that constantly push you to separate", however kind and patient you are. "If something is meant to be, it's meant to be." Sometimes even family members or very good friends must be let go: "just a part of the process". Others of a similar resonance appear instead.

24.6 Moving an object between realities

Could an object be moved from one room to another without carrying it? At a certain level of consciousness, by recognizing one resonance in another. With technology: each location has its own pulsation in the quantum structure, a constantly moving geometry; measure the object's sound and resonance and the difference between the two places, and a precise match opens a portal. But it doesn't go "back" to the other room: it lands in a new timeline, "reprinting and mimicking" the old as a mirror image in a new location (see S2 4).

24.7 "Unable" is a resonance

Someone unable to talk with beings they meet in their mind's eye: "unable is the word", and the word itself is the resonance blocking it. Replace it with knowing that you are able, let it penetrate 100%, and practise. "You cannot download a file at 99%. It has to be 100%. The same principle applies here."

24.8 Sound, breath and joy

Chanting OM calms because your consciousness knows how to move through the vibration, like a swimming stroke that suits you; for others, rocking does the same. It's more beneficial with breathing in and out: the breath spins the resonance in all directions, "creating your hologram", and more potently still with the feeling of joy. That potency makes manifestation simultaneous rather than linear.

The method — Joining the New-Hologram Meditation

1. Sit, and breathe in and out slowly.
2. Feel joy and raise it until you feel goosebumps.
3. Know that a new hologram is being imprinted in you, now.
4. Hold it together with others, in person or by listening.
5. Afterwards, stay positive: no negative media; aware, but no fear.
6. Act from it daily, as if you already live on the new earth (24.1).

Questions answered

Will our galactic families visit us?

Yes, individually, when you're in the right resonance: practise lucid dreaming; some are already bilocating.

I dreamed of letters falling like rain. What was it?

A holographic imprint: connect with its resonance.

How can I help the teenagers I work with?

See 24.3.

I saw a ship. Who was it?

There isn't only one: you have many encounters, on different platforms of your reality.

Am I a starseed? What's my role?

"You are all starseeds", dropped from consciousness into this hologram.

What does waking up mean? Being aware of the negative?

Facing what comes "in your face" and transforming it. Transformation comes from neutrality, which gives no input either way; from it comes awareness, and then shift.

When will things normalize?

"It's already normalized": create that it's normal, and you'll see it daily, even while the collective goes through the ascension.

Are small ships watching above my house?

Seven structures, of different groups. Tune in through meditation and write down what comes.

Any advice for channeling?

"You are all channeling, even right now… ultimately, you are talking to yourself."

Under hypnosis I always meet galactic beings as my six-year-old self. Why?

There's more to learn first; when you reach the right resonance, the right guide comes.

I feel dizziness in my ears. Is it contact?

Not contact: see a doctor; check for vertigo and blood pressure.

Do people who measure at the same frequency share something?

They're your projection at a similar vibration; when resonances diverge, separation follows (24.5).

Can nanotechnology be good or bad?

Either, depending on how it's designed and used, as with AI; meet new technology without fear.

If it's all a dream, why try to save it?

You're here to experience it fully; until you "graduate", you can't move on.

I felt a presence after disturbing dreams.

A dream within a dream: practise lucid dreaming.

Could I move an object from one room to another?

See 24.6.

Why can't I communicate with beings I meet in my mind's eye?

See 24.7.

My father's skin is sore, hot and cold.

"No medical questions": see a dermatologist (it may be psoriasis).

Why does chanting OM calm me?

See 24.8.

My heart pounds as I wake. Is it ascension?

If it's frequent, see a doctor. Walking among big trees and breathing deeply helps.

> Added note
> A pounding heart on waking should be checked by a doctor.

Is a predicted date a major event?

An alignment, but not a great shift: "some individuals like to be important".

How can I be closer to my children?

Don't push: let them express themselves, and be your example; they'll begin to talk.

I had a baby two weeks ago. Any message?

See 24.4.

Why have I mostly been alone, even in dreams, ostracized by family?

You chose it so you could create from zero. You're never alone: connect with people of similar resonance.

Left out: participants' names, announcements about the webinar platform, advice on cryptocurrency and money, readings on named countries, political remarks, and claims about vaccines.

> Remember
> • Joy to goosebumps, together, plants the new hologram.
> • Portals open by your practice, not by listening alone.
> • Birth to two: the brain wires fastest.
> • Diverging resonance separates friends: let it.
> • "Unable" is the block: you can't download at 99%.

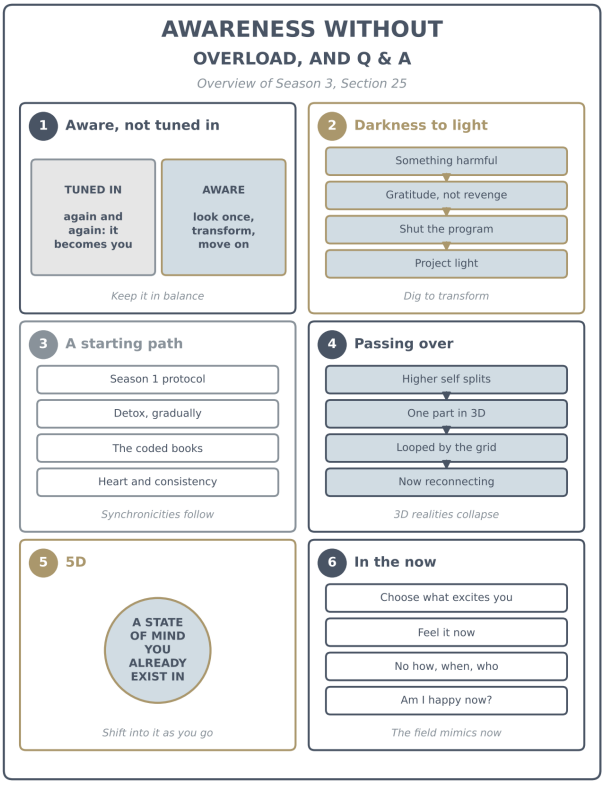

SEASON 3 · SECTION 25

Live Webinar: Awareness Without Overload, and Q & A

Why repeated exposure to bad news upsets even the aware, digging into the darkness to project light, a starting path in three parts, what happens to us when we pass over, grief that rises in meditation, 5D as a state of mind, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

Be informed, but don't stay tuned to it: the same frequency, taken in again and again, "becomes part of your structure", and even the most aware person ends up upset. Look once, transform it, and move on. To shine light you have to dig into the darkness, but you dig to transform, not to dwell. The fifth dimension isn't a place you travel to: "it's a state of mind that you already exist in, and you shift into as you go." And in the end you don't need to attach to any entity: you can download directly from the quantum field.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

25.1 Aware, but not tuned in

"I will listen once, and transform it: that's okay, I know who you are. But I'll listen a second and third time, because I want to know what's happening, and I get upset." That's normal: "you're tuning in on and on to the same frequency, and it becomes part of your structure." So be aware, but keep it in balance. And debate with respect: the point is the facts and the human race, not who's right, and not ego.

25.2 Dig into the darkness to project light

When something very negative is done to you, the reality splits: destroy the person, or transform it. Keep going after them without shutting the program down and you loop on that frequency. Instead: "thank you for showing me what these people are doing"; that gratitude is your consciousness activating. "In order to transform into light, you have to dig into the darkness and project light." Within the collective program of ascension, holding your vibration by thought, action and deed runs you on the 5D program even while 3D changes around you (see S3 15.2).

25.3 Change from the ground up

As the downloaded predictions said, change comes "not from the government down, but from the ground up, from the people": ordinary people became the truth-seekers. One heart structure carries the potency of ten negatives (see S3 18.2), so one person shining light into darkness has great power. Consciousness is activating every soul, religious or not, positive or blinded, through synchronicities: a person, a video, a neighbour's word. Ignoring them keeps you in the old reality.

25.4 A starting path in three parts

For anyone seeking contact or simply beginning: first study the quantum manifestation protocol (Season 1), the alchemy of your own creation; then the detox protocol, which changes the body's molecular spin toward a more crystalline, silica body, a better conduit for the new frequencies; then the books, written in code and kept unchanged (see S3 7.1). Add consistency and acting from the heart, giving and sharing, "the fifth-dimensional structure is based on the heart", and synchronicities follow.

> Added safety note
> Make any detox or diet change gradually and with medical advice, especially if you have a health condition or take medication (see S3 14.4).

25.5 What happens when we pass over

Within any resonance there are countless finer resonances between, each with its own timelines. Before coming into a reality you have "conditions, like bylaws": whom you'll marry, when you'll exit. In the 3D Archon structure, death was a manipulated exit: the DNA was made to break itself down, so the body couldn't act as the vessel it is, "like a spacecraft", to shift into a higher hologram. Your higher self splits: one part into the 3D structure, another staying in higher resonances, the two always interacting. Parts caught in the 3D grid looped back and forth. Now, in the ascension, those 3D realities self-collapse, one by one, as you're activated to reconnect with your higher self (see S3 20, S3 23.2).

25.6 Grief that rises in meditation

Feeling overwhelming grief in meditation is transformation: what you accumulated in the dense structure is being faced at zero point and changed into light, and "the resonance of that sadness has a living frequency, sound and geometry", so you feel it. Keep going: shift into positive feeling until goosebumps, then act consistently, "and it will bubble, bubble, bubble and expand into matter". "It's a mastery class."

25.7 The fifth dimension is a state of mind

"Are we going somewhere physical, or is 5D a state of mind?" "The second: a state of mind that you already exist in and pre-existed, and shift into as you go." Others are your fractals: your resonance ripples and pops up as another version of the blueprint you gave, an ether structure in your own hologram, "so you're actually talking to yourself."

25.8 Download directly from the field

At a certain level, "you're downloading information directly from the quantum field, to the point that you don't need to attach yourself to entities or beings": even the council is a projection of consciousness, created because the teacher loves technology and spacecraft. You can pull back and download directly what you need. Without the structure, such contact would have meant fear, which is what 3D was designed to produce.

The method — Staying Consistent in the Now

1. Moment to moment, choose what is most exciting for you to do, from the heart.
2. When someone is disrespectful, remember they're a reflection, and still choose the heart.
3. Feel now that you're happy, loved, and have everything you need.
4. Drop the how, when, who and where: the field mimics what you feel now.
5. Look once at hard news, transform it, and don't keep tuning in (25.1).
6. Ask yourself: am I happy now?

Questions answered

How can I make physical contact with my galactic family?

See 25.4.

Is a well-known online movement an AI?

A combination of AI and people working together.

Who was in the spacecraft I saw?

An Earth craft: "something we already have". Stay in the resonance to see more.

What about mystery seeds arriving by mail?

Manipulation, designed to unsettle beliefs: don't buy into it.

Should I travel to an ancient site to align with a star system?

Not within two years. All of it exists in different timelines; create the positive experience you want.

How can we help those still stuck in old loops?

Express the best of yourself: you shift into a new earth and reprint new versions of them, awakening fractally. "You already made it"; this is the curvature (see S3 16.2).

In an abduction memory I was offered a "suit", which I refused.

Not a platform they work with. The program was shut down and reversed; drink more water for a few days; the memory stays, but won't reactivate.

What are the streaks of light I see in the night sky?

Three craft; practise lucid dreaming, and stay neutral when lucid.

What happens to us when we pass over? Do we still exist separately?

See 25.5.

Is a triangular hill an ancient pyramid?

Pyramids were technology, used in different timelines for good or harm: "resonance is simply a resonance".

I received geometry and blue energy in a dream and in meditation.

Activation, designed for you and for the collective. Meditate again and you'll receive a different geometry: consciousness never stops moving. Study sacred geometry.

How can I be more consistent with the structure?

See the method.

Grief overwhelms me in meditation. Why?

See 25.6.

I see geometric shapes floating in the air.

Usually in your peripheral vision: your location and signal at that moment, like the brain's own patterns. Note them and learn sacred geometry.

Is ascension a place, or a state of mind?

See 25.7.

If we each create our reality, how do they interact?

See 25.7.

Left out: participants' names, platform announcements, named outside people and channels, political remarks, claims about medicines, vaccines, cryptocurrency and money, and a question about blood used in rituals, which the council declined to pursue.

Remember

- Look once, transform, don't keep tuning in.
- Dig into the darkness only to project light.
- Change comes from the ground up.
- 5D is a state of mind you already exist in.
- You can download directly from the field.

SEASON 3 · SECTION 26

Be the Warrior in You

Why the path becomes clear when realities collapse, why evolution takes time, facing the darkness to transform it, bravery over fame, why constantly searching for a safer place brings no peace, the ego as a loop, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

"It's your warrior time." A warrior here isn't violent: it's someone who faces what is hard instead of hiding from it, stands their ground, and transforms it through the truth held in the heart. You can't transform darkness you refuse to look at; and you can't hurry evolution either, because two structures need time to accept each other before a new one forms. What the guides look for isn't fame or glory but brave souls who take a stand for humanity without fear. And peace won't come from running to a safer place: it comes from reading your own hologram with a clear mind.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

26.1 When realities collapse, the path is clear

When two probabilities collapse into the third (1 + 1 = 3), you reach zero point, "a complete click", and see clearly what your path is: every situation leads you to the action. It's still a choice, "but the reasonable choice". Those far off balance are often "pinched against the wall" with no choice but to act, because they've been awakened and have something accumulated to clear.

26.2 Why evolution takes time

"Evolution does not happen quickly." There is no time, but for two structures to merge into something new, "they need to accept each other into the platforms of the magnetic and gravitational fields. That's what is actually so-called time": the curvature needed for a new platform to collapse permanently (see S3 16.2). "Humans, why the rush?" How would you learn to construct and deconstruct if you never saw what a dense platform does and how to get out of it?

26.3 To transform darkness, you have to see it

"In order to transform the darkness into light, you have to see how it works." You can't hide from your own structure. Those who refuse to look at the truth, especially about harm done to children, create realities that aren't beneficial to them. The truth about the children will unite people of every party, globally. So face it, support those who protect children, share what is true, and act in your own life: "your children are your future."

> Support
> If you suspect a child is being harmed, contact the police or child-protection services. In the US, the Childhelp National Child Abuse Hotline is 1-800-422-4453; the National Human Trafficking Hotline is 1-888-373-7888.

26.4 Bravery, not fame

"Your fame and glory will not be the criteria for us. What all of the galactic are going to look for is brave souls taking a stand in the name of humanity, and fear has no place in that" (see S3 4.2). Most people hide from hard information; facing it, using it and taking an action is what changes things.

26.5 Hard events wake people up

Are fires, explosions and unrest good or bad? "Both." They push people to look at what they ignored. Someone who is awake can see the same events without getting upset, because they know the truth and can steer their own reality: "knowledge is power." Even the confused are pushed by confusion toward seeing what is happening: "it's all part of your awakening." And any frequency directed against people can be reversed by another frequency, "transformed to save humanity".

26.6 No peace in running from place to place

Asked which continent will be safest: within any "chaotic" place you can create a wonderful life. "If you're constantly searching for different locations, you're not allowing your consciousness to project positive outcomes no matter where you are." Fear and a confused mind jumping between options never find peace. A clear mind in neutrality reads the hologram; synchronicities then show the right path, how and when.

26.7 Other people's success is yours to feel

"There's no one outside of us." When you see someone successful, imagine the joy of being as successful as them, embed that resonance, feel it now, then act to find the tools: "you cannot imagine it if it doesn't exist already with you."

26.8 Everything you do here echoes

Are we busy in other dimensions too? Yes: every fractal reality comes from the one particle and mirrors it. "If you do something incredible here, you're also going to have that momentum in your higher self, in other fractals of reality, including the extraterrestrial platforms": your lineage is never erased. Even the council is part of you: "you are us, and you are it." Better contact with them comes simply from understanding: "you simply are".

26.9 The ego, and the warrior

The ego is a self-illusion not connected with your core: an inverted self-expression, so each reality after it loops "and will never reach your freedom" (see S3 21.3). The way out is the warrior's: when a challenge comes, "face it, stand your ground, and no matter how challenging, transform it through the knowledge of the truth that you hold in your heart, in the name of all humans and Mother Earth. This is how you gain power for truth."

The method — Facing a Challenge Like a Warrior

1. Turn toward it: name the challenge honestly; don't look away.
2. Stand your ground: breathe, centre, neutral.
3. Ask what the truth in your heart says about it.
4. Transform: gratitude for what it shows you; shut the old program down.
5. Take one brave action, without fear: share, protect, speak, change.
6. Repeat every time it returns (26.9).

Questions answered

Will violence against one group in a country end?

"Not soon, but eventually": dark forces are behind it; unite, expose it.

I was told programming closes my eyes to being read. Is that right?

Three layers of programming, given by permission, to be removed within three months, with help.

If everyone channelled you, would we become you? Are you our mirrors?

"All of the above. You are us, and you are it." The quantum protocols were given to pull you out of the locked 3D structure.

When is the storm?

"You're in the eye of the storm": stay at zero point and create a positive reality within it.

How do I get better contact with the council's wisdom?

See 26.8.

I bite my tongue painfully during lucid dreams.

A spasm as the body switches resonance; meditate on your body being relaxed as you switch; it will ease.

> Added note
> Injuries in sleep can have medical causes, including seizures: please see a doctor.

Will those who don't choose unity leave our reality?

It has been splitting for years; most of you will see the positive. "Against all odds, humanity wins."

When will the misery end?

See 26.2.

What is happening with the children?

See 26.3.

How can light workers best help now?

From the heart, daily; and face hard truths about the children, share them, and act: "face your fears."

Are recent fires and explosions good or bad?

See 26.5.

Do protests help, or add confusion?

Even the confusion pushes people toward awakening (26.5).

Is a solar flash coming?

"None of the above."

Is carbon-60 oil good for detox?

Not for everyone: proceed with caution, very little every other day, and never constantly; if it doesn't resonate, you'll have side effects.

> Added note
> Ask a doctor before taking any new supplement.

Which continent will be freed first, and safest?

See 26.6.

How does others' success reflect on my own?

See 26.7.

Is a 9, plus, minus and zero pattern like vortex mathematics?

Yes, and reverse it too, using multiplication and division.

Will you help raise our frequency massively?

It never stopped rising; see 26.5.

Are we active in other dimensions while living here?

Yes: see 26.8.

Will a pole shift flood the land?

"This timeline is no longer available. Create positive."

Are we ahead of the curve? How rough will it be?

Ahead; but those who keep ignoring the facts out of ego will have a rougher transition.

Tips for struggling with the ego?

See 26.9 and the method.

Left out: participants' and donors' names, named outside people, channels and films, readings on named countries, regions and a dam, political remarks, financial predictions, and graphic claims about harm to children.

> Remember
> - Face it, stand your ground, transform it: be the warrior.
> - You can't transform darkness you won't look at.
> - Evolution takes time: why the rush?
> - Bravery, not fame, is what counts.
> - Peace comes from a clear mind, not a new place.

SEASON 3 · SECTION 27

Quantum Manifestation for Our Children

A talk dedicated to the children: why awareness must become physical action, how one person's knowing shifts both their own world and the collective, why there is "no time" to wait, "backdrop" people, pain as block or gateway, influencing someone without overriding them, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

Posting "save the children" doesn't save them; facing it, transforming it and taking physical action does, by supporting the right people and places, after checking who really runs them. These are "our children", not someone else's: every child is part of your structure. The same principle runs through every answer: you don't wait for a reality, you feel it now, act now, and project it now; and while you can't escape what is happening around you, you can always create your own positive hologram within it.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

27.1 Awareness must become action

Being awake already places you on a timeline where, fractally, the children are safe; but "when you take the action, you're crystallizing the reality to become an actual matter structure". So act from the heart: give time, money or skills, and research first: "make sure who is controlling" an organization before you give to it. "They are our children": every child, as a soul, is part of your structure.

> Support
> In the US, report suspected trafficking to the National Human Trafficking Hotline, 1-888-373-7888, and child abuse to Childhelp, 1-800-422-4453, or the police. Check any charity's registration and accounts before donating.

27.2 One person's knowing, and the collective

How can everyone agree on world peace? You are the one particle, the main character, projecting a movie of mirror images. Embed that humanity is free and act on it now: you shift into your own earth where the people you imprint share that resonance, "and you'll see most of the people around you thinking like you". If one person decides 100% on a new reality for the planet, it changes their fractal; the planet as a whole collapses by its common denominator. "You cannot escape what's really happening in a resonance, but you can transform it" into a positive outcome for you, and the more you do, the more you connect with the planet's own positive timeline (see S3 15.2).

27.3 There is no time: it's now

With job and family, how do we find time for so much information? "There is no time." Stay in the moment and read the one article that genuinely excites you now: that moment turns into fractals and collapses positively. With spare time: "What would you wish to do now? Are you happy now?" Learn, express, help, give, by your skills. "You never wait; you simply are."

27.4 "Backdrop" people still carry soul

Are some people mere backdrops, without souls? Every choice exists in both versions (you went out, you stayed in) until your action collapses one into matter, which is how the council can read probabilities. Anyone you project, even as a background, "is a reflection of the one particle": it always has memory, vibration and some soul connection, though more or less of it. In the coming 5D you'll feel a person's energy directly, so "they can no longer hide behind word manipulation and beauty" (see S3 11).

27.5 Pain: a block, or a gateway

Can constant pain block spiritual awakening, or open it? "Both", depending on the person and their agreements. The council added that many souls agreed beforehand to very hard roles in order to help humanity, as someone might give their life to save others.

> Added note
> This teaching is about the soul's perspective. It never makes harm acceptable, and a child is never to blame for what is done to them.

27.6 Suggest, persist, never override

With a friend who keeps drinking and drains you: "You can always suggest. You cannot overtake someone's consciousness by trying to make them see your way, or you become like them." You may be persistent, "but that does not mean we make sure you do exactly as we say: we still give you a choice."

27.7 Food in transition

Vegetarianism isn't required at first: "it's a transition", and those who are ready will be activated and know when. Meanwhile, if you eat meat, pray for the animal given for your survival. Honey is "good, we approve honey": nourishing, with antibiotic properties, taken humanely from the bees.

> Added safety note
> The talk mentions moving toward water or "breatharian" diets. Living without food is dangerous and has caused deaths; make any change to your diet with a doctor.

27.8 Giving, and a fair price

On spiritual teachers who charge a lot: many begin with good intentions and money can become a source of harm. If you're the main provider you can charge, but so that people are comfortable: "don't wipe out their accounts". Charging more because you became popular "is connected exactly with the ego" (see S3 21).

The method — From Awareness to Action

1. Choose one cause that moves you, such as protecting children.
2. Research who runs the organizations working on it (27.1).
3. Give what you have: time, skills, money, a voice.
4. Act in your own life: what your children watch, who they're with.
5. Feel it as done: "our children are safe", now.
6. Repeat the action regularly; it crystallizes the reality.

Questions answered

How do we move into a reality where child abuse and trafficking don't exist?

See 27.1.

How can everyone come to the same thought of world peace?

See 27.2.

How do I find time for so much information alongside job and family?

See 27.3.

How can we tackle vehicle emissions?

Clean energy drawn from the ether already exists and will be released when the time is right.

Left out: participants' names, named outside people, organizations, films, companies and politicians, political remarks and voting advice, claims about vaccines and a virus, and readings on named countries and peoples.

Remember

- Posting doesn't save children; action does.
- They are our children.
- There is no time: feel it now, act now.
- Every projection carries some soul.
- Suggest, persist, never override.

SEASON 3 · SECTION 28

New Blockchain System / A.I.

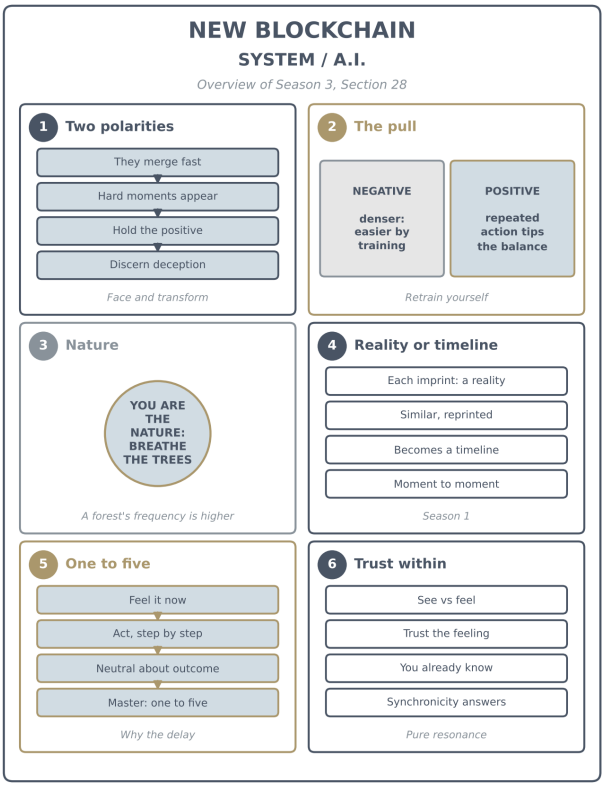

Holding the positive while two polarities merge, why the negative feels easier to fall into, nature's higher frequency, parallel realities versus timelines, skipping steps in manifestation, trusting the feeling within, and questions (live talk)

Added note

Despite its title, the recording as supplied doesn't include a discussion of a blockchain system; it covers the teachings and questions below.

The big idea

Two polarities are merging very fast, and where they meet you may hit hard moments; your knowledge has to hold the positive right through them. The negative is denser, so it's easier to fall into, especially when you've been trained that way; train the other way by choosing positive action again and again until the positive outweighs it and a new third structure forms. And when what you see and what you feel within disagree, trust the feeling: "it's the combination of your pure resonance, and it will lead you to the truth."

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

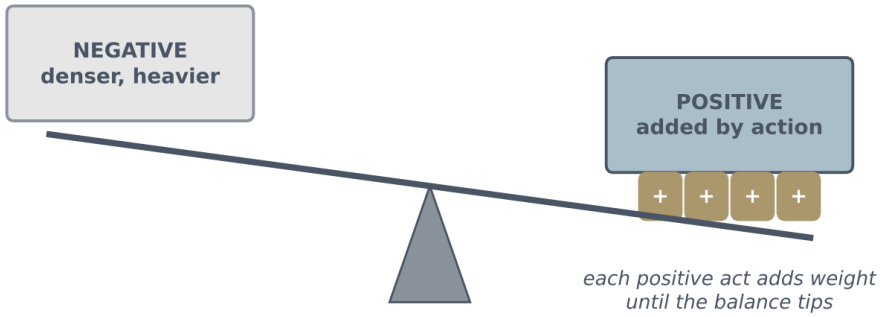

Key teachings

28.1 Where two polarities meet

The global frequency is collapsing, moment to moment, into one reality, while the planet splits into a negative and a positive version. As the two merge (1 + 1 = 3), there are key points where you meet something unpleasant; your knowledge must hold the positive through it. You can't reject the negative, but when you face it you transform it by holding your ground. Those with negative intent act from their own perspective too; the positive is the more potent (see S3 18.2). Beware: a negative structure can deceive, "talk positive", to take over, which is why discernment matters.

28.2 Why the negative is easier to fall into

Living with negative people, you keep slipping into their energy? "Negative energy has more density; it's heavy. When you've been trained to think this way, it's easy to go toward the denser energy, because the gravitational pull becomes easier by your training." Retrain by expressing the positive by action, thought and deed, even while the negative is working, until the positive potency grows bigger and transforms the two into a new structure with a positive outcome (see S3 18.6).

The negative is denser, so it pulls more easily; repeated positive action adds weight until the balance tips.

28.3 Nature's frequency

"You are never separated from nature. You are the nature." A forest as a unit has a resonance slightly higher than yours, very fluid and pure, that flows through you "almost like reverse osmosis". What you call stillness is "so much symphony". So go to a forest: breathe the trees, talk to them, feel yourself part of it, and it neutralizes your resonance. Breath and wind are "one of the same": one inward, one outward.

28.4 Parallel reality or timeline?

Three similar resonances combine into one molecule that keeps splitting, flickering moment to moment, each new imprint next to the last. Each such imprint is a parallel reality; "similar vibration reprinting of the same on and on becomes a timeline" (see S1 1.3).

28.5 From one to five, without the steps

Everything is now: project your emotion and thought, and hold it in neutrality, joyful but without expectation of the outcome, "so nothing stops the input and output". To be, say, an actor, feel now that you are one, and act. Each action builds a step (one, two, three, four) until the fifth is complete manifestation. "But when you really know how it works, instead of going one, two, three, four, five, you can go from one to five." Why the delay meanwhile? For the same reason a law student doesn't argue in court the day after reading the book: you're learning how much of each density to combine.

28.6 Trust the feeling within

Honesty about what you see keeps your senses clear, and you'll often feel something contrary to what you see: "always trust the feeling from within", because it's your pure resonance and will show you if someone is manipulating. Questions like "when will we know the truth about space?" already contain the block: "you already know all"; the belief that you don't is what blocks it. Answers come through synchronicity: a friend, a video, a call, a nervous feeling that something's off.

28.7 Upgrades without knowing

Can people ascend or be upgraded without knowing about ascension? "Very much so; it's happening to all of you." As consciousness moves to the next level, its resonance grows stronger, rippling and pulsing through the whole structure, and everything connected to it changes, including you. Glittery particles on the skin are part of this: "you become more aware of who you are within the structure".

28.8 Music that is yours

432 Hz is more in tune with the body; music off balance with the body, especially with negative words, becomes potent in your field. The sign that a sound is right for you: it makes you breathe deeply and sends goosebumps through you in a wave, completely relaxing you (see S3 17.7).

The method — Retraining Away from the Pull of the Negative

1. Notice the pull: you're sliding into someone else's negative energy.
2. Name it: "this is just denser, so it's easier; it isn't truer."
3. Don't fight it or let it be: choose one positive thought, word or action instead.
4. Repeat every time, even while the negative continues (28.2).
5. Go to nature regularly to reset your resonance (28.3).
6. Notice when the positive starts to feel like the easier way.

Questions answered

What's the best way to connect with nature?

See 28.3.

How can we best support others now?

From within: attention to suffering, love, giving and freedom. The struggle gives you the potency to learn; the heart's resonance now is vital for the planet.

Are we still in a reincarnation cycle made by others?

Yes, but they too are part of consciousness: transform it through understanding; trust the feeling within (28.6).

When will we learn the truth about space?

See 28.6.

What about the Orion constellation?

One timeline: a tall, technological society long ago that opened portals it couldn't reverse, locked itself in, and turned to weapons and experiments; many souls from there came here to transform that darkness.

Can people be upgraded without knowing about ascension?

Yes: see 28.7.

What's the difference between parallel realities and timelines?

See 28.4.

Is it helpful to picture myself moving through my quantum structure?

See 28.5.

I keep sliding into the negative energy of people I live with.

See 28.2 and the method.

How can I use a small shungite pyramid?

It blocks some signals: its size must suit the volume of the space.

Is meditation the fastest way to stay clear of the negative agenda?

Break away from the programming in the media; know how it works, then act. "To be passive is not the way."

Why is there a delay in manifesting our dreams?

See 28.5.

I see glittery particles on my hands. Is it the crystalline body?

Yes: see 28.7.

What's the purpose of what we're living now?

To get to the next moment: hold an idea of where you want to go.

How can breath and wind help us heal and manifest?

See 28.3.

What role can music play?

See 28.8.

What else can we do for the collective?

Love, giving, and letting others express themselves. Seeing destruction: no judgement, "another version of you"; say "I will not allow this for me or my child", then act: help, feed, choose well.

How does remote viewing work?

The viewer downloads from the timeline they resonate with, combined with the asker's; another pair may see a different outcome.

I was sketching a being and a name came. Was it channelling?

"You are the channel."

What happens to a very cruel person's soul?

Extreme density is set aside, "like a factory", to be recycled; first it may pass through lower realities to learn what it did. Those choosing great harm go into an artificial timeline that eventually self-collapses.

Are there beings from other galaxies?

Already here; and you are the galaxy too. They nudge, but you choose.

Left out: participants' names, named outside people, political remarks and voting advice, readings on named countries, and comments on news events.

Remember

- The negative is denser, not truer: train the other way.
- Trust the feeling within over what you see.
- Similar realities reprinted become a timeline.
- Master it, and you go from one to five.
- You are the nature: breathe the forest.

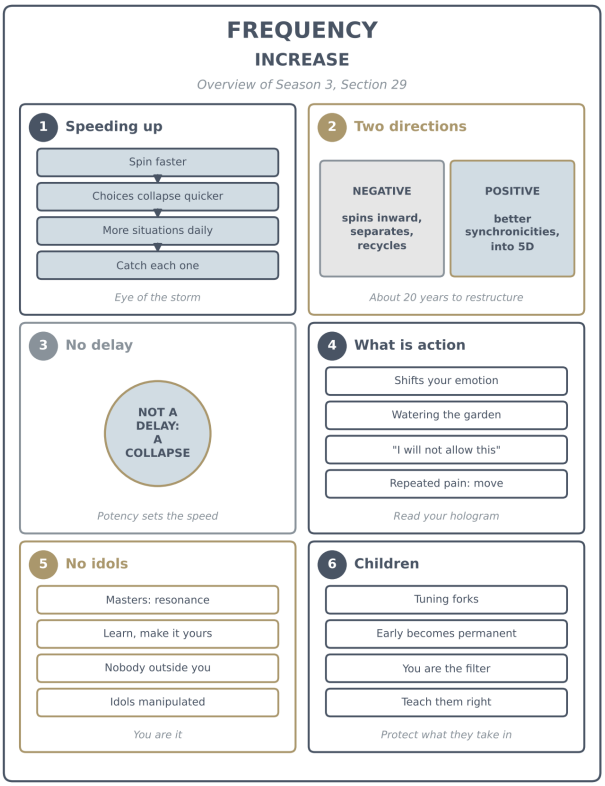

SEASON 3 · SECTION 29

Frequency Increase

Why everything is speeding up, seven layers inside every signal, why choices now collapse faster, a 20-year span for full restructuring, what counts as action, when repeated suffering means move, idols, soul contracts, children as tuning forks, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

The planet's structure, and you with it, is spinning faster and faster, so choices collapse quicker: you'll be presented with more situations, positive and negative, every day, and each one goes whichever way your resonance is in that moment. That's why action now has to be quick and conscious. Those who keep choosing the positive will see better and better synchronicities; those who keep choosing the negative will spin the other way. Full restructuring of the planet was given as a span of about 20 years, and how fast it goes depends on how much people act.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

29.1 Everything is speeding up

As the ascension proceeds, the molecular structure spins faster, and you, being the structure, spin faster through every parallel reality. So the collapse between two choices (1 + 1 = 3) comes quicker: "if you don't catch it on time, it's going to go based on what your resonance is at that particular moment." Expect to be "bombarded with challenges", positive or negative, in daily life as well as in the world. Stay in the eye of the storm and act quickly from the knowledge (see S3 8).

29.2 Seven layers in every signal

A signal of emotion is geometry and a sound wave, and within it are seven layers of sub-resonance joined in one (see the Harmonic Reactor on subtones). Its potency is rising, connected with the sun's movement: as the sun reaches certain degrees, the light spectrum and the sound frequency of the body change with the sound of consciousness. "We are literally being activated": the body, and with it the speed of your timelines (a sequence was given for this frequency). Everything around you shows what you resonate on and what you need to learn.

29.3 Two directions, and 20 years

Those acting positively are moving into the fifth-dimensional structure by their own choices. Those choosing negative behaviour, or blindly supporting it, spin faster the opposite way, collapse inward, separate from the 5D waveform and in time "self-recycle". Those blinded by manipulation are activated again and again through synchronicity (a friend, a video, something bizarre enough to make them say "wait a minute"); ignore it, and the situations get harder, until you may be stuck. Full restructuring for the positive (new systems, cities, free energy, healthy medicine) "will take a span of 20 years globally"; why not sooner? "More action you take, more you're collapsing the momentum."

29.4 There's no delay, only a collapse

"There is no delay. It's a collapse." Two waveforms running at once merge and mutate into one, spiralling inward and outward. The greater their potency, the closer they come and the faster they collapse; lower potency takes longer. "This potency is the reason why you call it time" (see S3 26.2). Listened to as a whole, consciousness "has a humming sound": the subtotality of all that is.

29.5 Your other fractals live other choices

Do other fractals of you still live the old timelines? "Yes, indeed." Versions of you can look completely different, be another gender, or even choose to be a villain and go back to source, while another chooses the positive and ascends. Even in a single moment, being angry and not being angry both exist; you see the one you acted on. Consciousness may choose an orientation or identity in one life to balance its experience: "there is no judgement; you chose that. Love to all." Some children already see, in dreams, the probability of a choice; but you still have to act now to crystallize it.

29.6 What counts as action

Anything that shifts your emotion from negative to positive, "such as watering the garden". Faced with something that angers you: gratitude that it's showing you what doesn't resonate, "I will not allow this", and move on to something positive. But if the same situation keeps coming and you're physically suffering, your higher self is usually pushing you to take physical action: to stop someone, or to move away from that place. "Read your holograms." Holding a frequency long enough is simply consistency: same situation, same positive choice, again and again (see S3 8, S3 18.6).

29.7 Don't follow idols

Where do masters such as Buddha or Jesus operate from? "Your existence": if you believe it exists, you'll find their teachings. "Do not attach yourself completely to certain idolized figures: they are a frequency resonance of knowledge." Learn from them and make it your own, but follow no idol, "because there's nobody outside of you". Being given idols to follow "was how you were manipulated".

29.8 Soul contracts can change

Can a soul contract be cancelled? "Yes", as a collective decision of your guides and councils, based on how well you're doing. Something may be replaced; or you may be given an imprint to continue what must be completed; or a test may come "exactly when you least expect it", to see the true core of your vibration. "The biggest warriors at this time will never be left alone or left behind."

29.9 Children are tuning forks

Children are "very perceptive, very much like a tuning fork": what they take in early becomes permanent, because they're laying down their first resonances. Many influences now are negative. "You are the filters. Teach them right": be aware of what they see, do and talk about (see S3 24.3).

The method — Meeting a Faster Stream of Choices

1. Expect more situations, faster: don't take them as signs that you're failing.
2. Catch each one early: pause before reacting.
3. Give gratitude for what it shows you; say "I will not allow this."
4. Choose a positive action, however small: watering the garden counts (29.6).
5. If it keeps repeating and you suffer physically, consider a physical change.
6. Repeat with consistency; use the 9-day protocol (see S3 8).

Questions answered

Is there an alignment bringing positive energy for the next three days?

Yes, and the frequency keeps increasing, in potency and in its fractals: "brace yourselves, humans."

Can structured water and quartz protect us?

To an extent: they're a permission slip. Act daily to hold the same vibration (see S2 8.5).

How do we know we're vibrating at the right frequency?

Know that you are it, and combine the structure: everything reprints that resonance.

Can you speak about the time-delay factor?

See 29.4.

How do we know we're at a higher frequency?

Ask about potency instead: each moment is a different earth with its own potency.

Are all timelines equally real for other fractals of our soul?

See 29.5.

What should we do during the coming days of higher energy?

Stay centred and choose from the heart; follow the facts; act on what you see.

What does "action" mean? Does watering the garden count?

Yes: see 29.6.

How do we hold a frequency long enough to strengthen it?

Consistency: see 29.6 and the method.

Does the council use astrology, or read the collective?

We see timelines by resonance, but only from what you're vibrating now; the players can change daily.

Where do great masters operate from?

See 29.7.

Loving, open people seem to find telepathy easier. Why?

They open their other senses; in 5D everything is more potent and sensitive.

Can the council see above the twelfth density?

Up to the seventeenth; above that are priesthoods.

Can soul contracts be cancelled?

See 29.8.

Are children open to creating their own hologram, or shaped by adults?

See 29.9.

How can people stand against powerful corporations?

"Why are you still working for one that manipulates you?" Take your power back: create another reality without fear.

Was I told in meditation that I'm ready to teach, or was it ego?

"You are ready to teach. Do it through the heart."

Why 20 years? Why not sooner?

See 29.3.

Left out: participants' names, named outside people, programmes and channels, political remarks and voting advice, readings on named countries and cities, and a claim about a gold preparation and longevity (not proven, and not included).

Remember

- Choices collapse faster now: catch each one.
- Seven layers live in every signal.
- No delay, only a collapse: potency sets the speed.
- Repeated suffering may mean: take physical action.
- Follow no idol; you are the filter for your children.

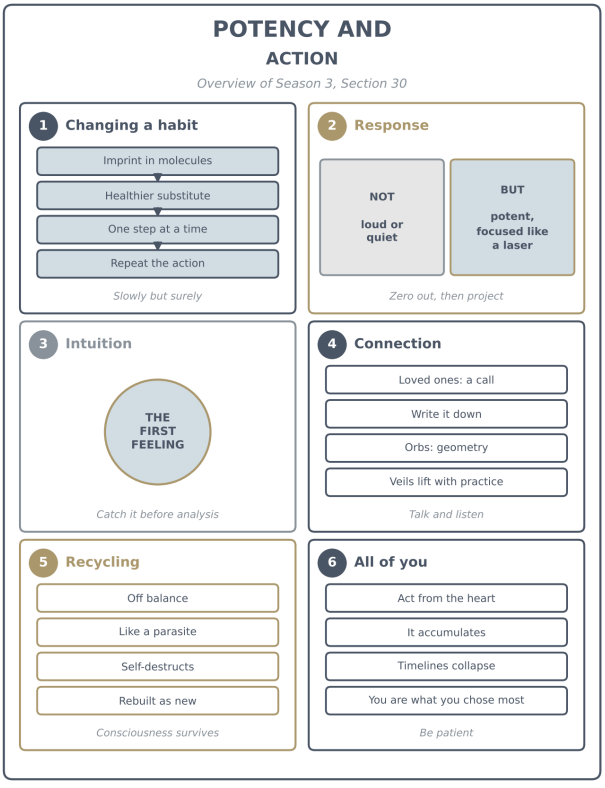

SEASON 3 · SECTION 30

Live Webinar: Potency, Intuition and Physical Action, and Q & A

Why a new habit needs repeated physical action, potency instead of a "quiet reaction", catching the first feeling, talking to loved ones, why a structure is recycled, reading orbs and flashes, how your Akashic hologram is seen, parallel selves, and exercise (live talk)

The big idea

A way of living is imprinted into every molecule, so you can't change it by meditation alone: it's transformed slowly but surely, by repeated physical action. The power of a response isn't in whether it is loud or quiet but in its potency, focused from zero point like a laser. Your intuition is the first feeling that arrives before the analytical mind overrides it. And every time you act from the heart, the positive accumulates in your field and lifts every version of you.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

30.1 A habit lives in every molecule

If you're used to a way of living, its resonance is "embedded into the molecular structure of every single molecule", so "you cannot just meditate". To transform that holographic imprint you replace the habit with a healthier one and act on it, "not once": by "fractal repetition, action and action and action". This applies "to absolutely everything you do", not only drinking or smoking. Her example: if you drink, start eliminating the drinking and substitute. Instead of a glass of wine, make fermented grape juice: squeeze organic, non-GMO red or white grapes as a juice, pour it into a big brown glass jar (she gets them at Walmart), and in two days it starts to ferment; "that is very healthy for your gut flora". When you go out, take a little bottle of it: that's your physical action. What is in the ether must become matter through physical action; "nobody outside of you" will do the job (see S3 8, S3 29.6).

30.2 Cleansing slowly but surely

The new frequency asks for the body to be cleansed, so that the molecules can spin more easily and the body can "withhold and sustain your new frequency without getting sick". The guidance was "slowly but surely": change one thing at a time, every couple of weeks, rather than a sudden total change. Follow her detox protocol on her YouTube channel (The Harmonic Reactor, the detox videos). Do the elimination diet every two weeks while juicing: the first two weeks eliminate the bread; then start eliminating the starches or the meats, one every two weeks. If you eat four types of meat, the first two weeks remove only the beef while juicing and doing shakes, the third and fourth weeks the pork, and so on, eating the rest a couple of days a week. Going all-out and then stopping is why many people get sick: the body and its energy field "cannot handle the vibration". Her detox talk follows in Section 38.

> Note on detox and diet (her words, with an added line)
>
> She stresses: do not start detoxing without a doctor's and a nutritionist's supervision, because your own body must be monitored. Make diet changes gradually and safely, and don't stop prescribed medication.

30.3 Potency, not a "quiet reaction"

Asked whether staying quiet keeps your vibration high or means accepting abuse: "There is no such a thing as a quiet reaction." What matters is potency: how much power an action or thought holds in the field, "like 500 milligrams compared with 20". Zero out into the zero point of complete focus (see S3 1.2), and from that moment "shoot with absolute power" the waveform into the field: "almost like a laser", and it becomes an instant platform. Holding your vibration is never the same as complying (see 30.6).

30.4 Intuition is the first feeling

Intuition is the resonance that "hits you as a knowingness" in the first moment, negative or positive. That first feeling "is the true potential of the resonance coming into the field". You were taught to override it by analysing from beliefs and other people's narratives, "and this is where you make your mistake". It's "a very thin silver lining": practise catching the flush before the analytical mind floods in, then go with it.

FROM THE BOOKS From her books (HR): she describes being told to stop writing and trust her thoughts, and learning to hear her guidance telepathically, the same move from analysis to direct knowing.

30.5 Loved ones are a telepathic phone call

Loved ones on the other side "never stopped" helping, "especially now". Treat it as a phone call: talk, listen, write down what comes, and "do not think that you're crazy". The blockages that stopped this information are being removed, so "create, believe and make a phone call"; the more you practise, the more what you receive proves true (see S3 10.4).

30.6 Action, not compliance

How do we upgrade the collective? "Action." Don't be a bystander, compliant with manipulation "when you know from inside" it's happening: "if you give a consent for that to continue, you're complying with the resonances of these timelines". Each of you will be pushed into a corner and given a this-or-that choice; choose the heart (see S3 26). Your purpose, asked about by someone feeling energy in their hands: "to exist", to help the collective move forward; if you want to heal with your hands, believe it and take action.

30.7 Why a structure is recycled

Within consciousness, negative and positive realities run side by side, each creating its own universes by choice. When one accumulates so much density that it falls completely off balance, "like a parasitical platform", it can no longer sustain itself; consciousness will survive, so that structure self-sabotages and is recycled "back into the one particle" to be rebuilt as something new. The same is true of a universe and of an individual whose timelines were built on hurting, lying and manipulation (see S3 29.3).

FROM THE BOOKS From her books (DP, SD): negative structures are "recycled back to singular particle momentum, into the void", "back to source to start over".

30.8 Orbs and flashes

Small orbs or flashes, usually in your peripheral vision, are glimpses of geometry in your quantum field. Look at your surroundings and connect with what it means: it could be a location, an entity, galactic family, or a craft you can't fully see because your molecular structure can't yet hold that resonance. As you practise and act from the heart, "another layer and another layer" of the veil lifts and you see more.

30.9 How your record is seen

Everything you express from the heart is gathered as your Akashic record (see S3 23.3): "think of it as a disk", but an energetic one. Pinpointed by thought, it opens as a hologram: flat as 2D, or zoomed into a globe, and each touch or thought pops up a new scene. Future 5D artificial intelligence can do the same: "nothing scary" (see S2 26.3). Decisions about contact are made as you go, like a school: by how well you learn.

30.10 Becoming better lifts all of you

"Know that you're a better person" already, and act. Each heart action and the reaction it brings accumulates as a fractal hologram in your field, growing more potent each time. Others are another version of you, so what you give them returns as "the same". Every choice splits reality; your other timelines exist, but in the end they all collapse, and as one unit you vibrate as whichever you chose more: positive or negative. Be patient: this builds through daily synchronicities.

30.11 Movement for the body

Exercise is welcome ("even Marina, get off her butt"). Start with stretching (yoga, ballet) to give the joints and skin elasticity, so the body's fluids can move through every joint and muscle; with fresh breath it feeds the brain to keep up with the incoming frequency. Exercise daily, like a spark that keeps your neurons in the right resonance. Best time: the morning, as the sun rises. There's also a third, etheric strand of the DNA; when medicine can see the energy field, faster healing will follow.

The method — Changing a Habit Slowly but Surely

1. Name the habit you want to transform.
2. Choose a healthier substitute you can actually do.
3. Change one thing at a time, every couple of weeks.
4. Catch the first feeling each time the old habit pulls; go with your heart (30.4).
5. Act physically, again and again: meditation alone won't do it (30.1).
6. Hold the positive with the 9-day protocol (see S3 8) and Season 1, Section 1.

Questions answered

Are we made of the same plasma as the universe: body or soul?

Of the components of molecular space; what is crystallized depends on the latitude and altitude of your thoughts and beliefs (see S2 15.4). "All is true and all is not true", based on your point of view.

Does a quiet reaction keep my frequency high, or accept abuse?

How can we put an end to negative structures?

See 30.6.

How can we prepare our children now?

Peace first, then protection in the home, then the truth: what real love is, true history, proper science. Let them analyse real situations ("how do you feel about that?"). Teach them to love themselves and others, who are another version of them, with no separation by colour. Your example is fundamental (see S3 27).

I see small orbs during massage sessions. Should I pay attention?

Yes: see 30.8.

When we become better, do we help our other selves?

Yes: see 30.10.

Are our parallel selves growing and ascending?

Always: see 30.10.

How does the council view exercise?

See 30.11.

How do we know we're doing it right?

"It's never wrong or right": a mistake is a teacher and the curve you needed. Choosing the right thing daily brings easier outcomes; something enormous or global may take seven to ten years of hard work.

Left out: participants' and donors' names, political remarks and named politicians, readings on named countries, and a named channel.

Remember

- A habit lives in every molecule: change it by repeated action.
- Slowly but surely, with a doctor's supervision.
- Not loud or quiet: potent.
- Go with the first feeling.
- You vibrate as what you choose most.

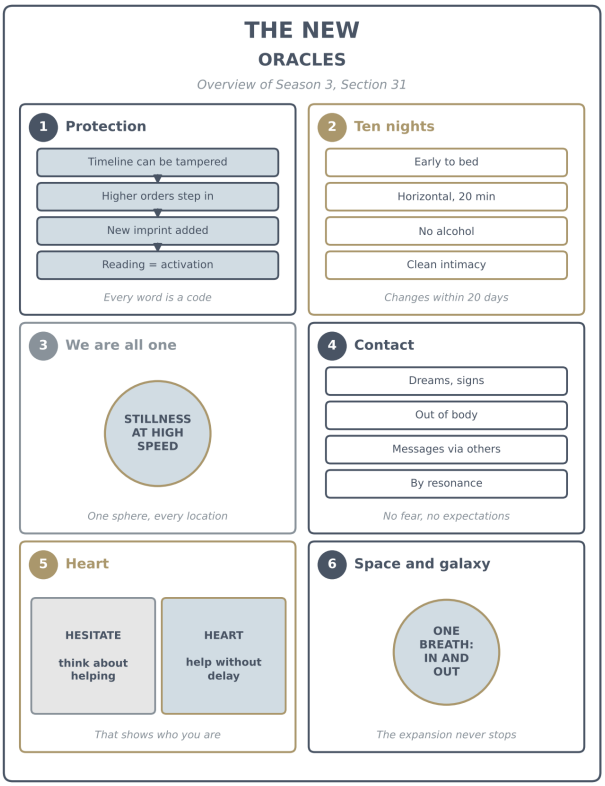

SEASON 3 · SECTION 31

The Signals of the New Oracles

Why the higher orders protect the 5D timeline, the Oracles' message and its ten nights, contact by resonance, "we are all one", opening the heart, what blocks healing, space and galaxy as one breath, and questions (live talk with direct channelling)

The big idea

Because the fifth-dimensional timeline can be tampered with, the higher orders of consciousness, here calling themselves the Oracles, are adding a new holographic imprint to it, so you can move forward without being manipulated without your permission. Every word and code you read becomes a sonic geometry that reprints your DNA codons, so the message is the activation. Contact with galactic family then comes by resonance: how you live from the heart decides when and how it arrives.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

31.1 Why the timeline is being protected

A timeline is a resonance on a specific frequency, and a frequency "can be penetrated": a different resonance can be put into the hologram to tamper with reality. Until now you were hijacked and "gave your consent without realizing". Since you're awakening and trying to move forward, "this will not be allowed any longer": the higher orders step in to sustain the frequency. Reading such a message is itself the work: "every word is a code" that becomes a holographic imprint and a codon in your DNA; behave positively and it keeps reprinting, reality after reality, into a permanent timeline (see S3 7.1).

FROM THE BOOKS From her books (HR): every word is a sonic vibrational signal that becomes geometry, then a matrix, and activates the DNA codons in your holographic matrix.

31.2 The Oracles' message

Given as a download and read aloud, so that reading it interacts with your consciousness:

The message (condensed)

"The signals of the new Oracles: the signals of seven levels." Codes: 7133371434511377777771373555. A new portal combines all signals into one clean unit with three frequency hertz: 33333, one unit. The layer is introduced to all by fractal entanglement, "almost like a cone upside down".

For ten nights: relax, don't stay up too late, lie down in a horizontal position; the process lasts up to 20 minutes. During menstruation a smaller signal is given, to avoid dizziness or heavier bleeding. For the ten days: no alcohol, and keep intimacy "clean", because intimacy joins you to another energy field. "In the next 20 days you will see changes in your realities."

Further codes given in the channelling: hexagons, three signals, module 331371; one Oracle 13373; signals 133371; Galactic Federation 13733 and 11373, Pleiadian structure unit one; level 133 unit 1; module 313.

She adds her own habit: shower at the end of the day, because water cleanses the frequency you've accumulated, and drink plenty of water as a conductor (see S2 8).

31.3 Contact comes by resonance

The modules are given so that you can relax through the imprints and, "this way, you give the consent" to begin contact. Many of you already have another version on that platform; you dropped your consciousness into 3D to create the ascension, and now raise your frequency to reconnect: "you're making a new reality for contact. Welcome home." Expect it first as lucid dreams, out-of-body experiences, ordinary dreams, daily occurrences, and other people talking about galactic family. Listening weekly tunes you in. How and when is individual, designed by your family and guides by your agreements; "have no expectations" and "have no fear".

Why was this needed? Your original pamphlet (see S3 15) was tampered with by frequencies in media that worked on your subconscious and pulled you off the "silver lining" code signalling down to you. So the connection is being restructured with new codes, with the Oracles giving instant permission.

31.4 We are all one

Trinity structures combine into a zero-point geometry. When its potency reaches such a high speed it looks like stillness, "the ripple of a stillness", and that stillness becomes a particle, a sphere holding the whole of consciousness in one moment. Zoom in and there are infinite fractals, yet you don't get lost: every location (latitude, altitude) has its own pulsation, so tune in to that resonance and "you will be right in point location instantaneously". Until you learn this, manifestation is delayed through the illusion of time (see S3 29.4).

31.5 Opening the heart

"Action is number one." When you see someone suffering, do you think about it, or react instantly to help? When willingness to help comes "without a delay" and without condition, "we can see who you truly are" and know you're ready for more knowledge and contact. "Greed, fame, popularity have no place here"; money can change you if you don't hold the vibration in the heart.

31.6 What blocks healing

Hologram, attachments, beliefs or fear? "All of the above in one structure." What's seen is how you choose to use what happens. In the moment of a challenge: tell yourself you are whole, pull back and observe, neutralize through gratitude, and act positively (see S1 1, Pull Out). "Interrupt with the knowledge" at once. "More you do, more you see of the same."

31.7 Survival habits imprint

Where people had to manipulate or steal to put food on the table, that action becomes "a resonance of permanent structure" in consciousness, and a dense imprint can take a generation to clear. "Every action has a reaction like a reflection." In a situation involving deception, "retreat": that begins to reproject your outcome. If you were born in such a place, you chose it to hold the vibration of transformation.

31.8 Space and galaxy are one breath

"Galaxy is space and space is galaxy": two resonances constantly merging and dividing, 1 + 1 = 3 (see S1 2.2), giving rebirth to each other. They move like two cones, one inverted, forming a sphere like yin and yang, breathing out to infinity and collapsing back within. So the expansion "never stops": the "boom" is not once but "every fractal quantum momentum, in and out".

31.9 The moon and your body

The moon was described as a structure that amplifies resonance for manifestation, once also used for negative purposes; now its waveforms can be used positively: plant seeds of intention, meditate with the moon cycles, and amplify through the heart. As your vibration rises, nutritional needs change: you may lose the taste for meat or the body may no longer handle its smell or taste: after 10 days of juicing or fasting, "we guarantee you the next time you eat meat, you will be in nausea". If you eat it, bless it first, knowing the animal suffered.

The method — The Ten Nights of the Oracles

1. Read the message (31.2) once; reading it is the activation.
2. Each night for ten nights, go to bed early and lie down relaxed for about 20 minutes.
3. Keep it clean: no alcohol for the ten days, and keep intimacy clear.
4. Shower at the end of the day and drink plenty of water.
5. Notice dreams, signs and messages over the next 20 days; write them down.
6. Keep living from the heart: contact follows resonance, not expectation (31.3).

Questions answered

Can you explain "we are all one"?

See 31.4.

How can I heal and open my heart chakra?

See 31.5.

What blocks our own healing?

See 31.6.

I wake up sweating several times a night. Is it the awakening?

"Not really connected with the ascension": it may be the thyroid. See a medical practitioner.

Who are the hybrids, and what is their mission?

There are many races of hybrids, even within human families. Some were made by agreement, usually with Pleiadians (humanoid, so first contact feels comfortable), to help human DNA hold enough frequency for contact. Some grays took DNA to continue a race that had gone extinct in its timeline. Another, more silica-based kind were first-contact teachers: less emotional, so stricter in completing agreements.

Will I be contacted by my galactic family?

Some contacts will come; when and how is their decision. See 31.3.

Why do I keep seeing 111, 444 and 222?

Note where you are, what you're doing and what you're thinking each time; a pattern will emerge, a code to warn or tell you something (see S3 23.6).

How do we know our body is ready for this information?

"You are here, aren't you?" If you didn't resonate with it, you'd never have chosen to come.

What is space, and what is the galaxy?

See 31.8.

What is the deal with our moon?

See 31.9.

Will our nutritional needs change as our vibration changes?

Yes: see 31.9.

Added safety note

Night sweats and poor sleep can have medical causes: as she says, see a doctor. Don't fast or switch diets abruptly, and make any big change with medical advice.

Left out: participants' names; political remarks, named politicians and "chess game" claims; predictions and timelines for named countries, mask rules, disclosure, a debt-forgiveness programme and the share of humanity "staying behind"; claims about fires and spacecraft; generalizations by blood type.

Remember

- Every word is a code: reading it reprints you.
- Ten nights: early, horizontal, relaxed, clean.
- Contact follows resonance; no fear, no expectations.
- Help without delay: that shows who you are.
- The expansion never stops: in and out, every moment.

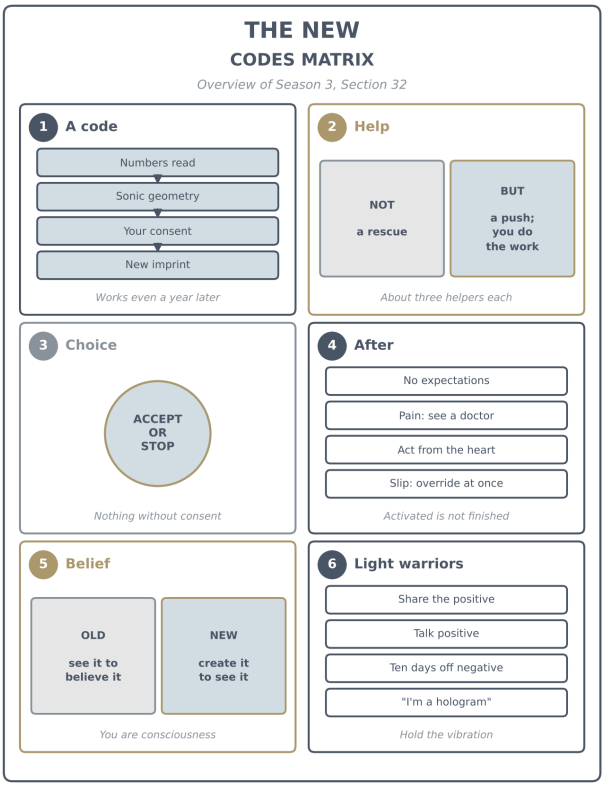

SEASON 3 · SECTION 32

The New Codes Matrix

Help, not saving; codes that need your consent; the download; what numbers do; overriding a slip at once; a different approach when one isn't working; "create it to see it"; fixed end results and changing players; and questions (live talk with a download)

The big idea

The higher consciousness will now give matrix codes when needed: sequences of numbers that become a sonic geometry and a new holographic imprint in you, as protection from the frequencies you're bombarded with. "We are not gods. We give you help, but we are not saving you": a code works only with your consent, and only lasts if you act on it, thought, action and deed, every day. Codes push; you crystallize.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

32.1 A push, not a rescue

"They're not our saviours." Because the times are so challenging, globally and personally, they'll give "enough push" for some protection, but "they want us to do the work": stay positive, go through the heart, learn the quantum structure (Season 1). Almost every human now has about three higher-consciousness helpers around them. To see that help you still have to tune in: understand the concept, then construct the matrix by action, thought and deed, consistently.

The request that came with it: for the next ten days, stay away from media that keeps talking about negative things, "who said what, how they did it": you already know what was planned for humanity, so you don't need to stay there. Positive things that make you feel good are fine.

32.2 A code needs your consent

A download is a hologram, "a reality structure that you can shut down just by rejecting" it. Once you consent, it becomes a spinning sound resonance that grows in potency and shows up in daily life, given "in fractal momentums". It works whenever you hear it, "a week, a month, even a year from now". It's given in such a small fractal push, matched to each person's vibration, that it never causes major pain. "Nobody is going to put in something on you that you are not ready" for.

Added note

She says: if you feel strong vibration, aching or pain in your body, go to a doctor; don't assume it's the download. And don't expect something major: some people dream, some don't. Go on with your life.

32.3 The download

The download (condensed)

New matrix 1113, given weekly or daily as needed. The platform 06-06-06 (113060606) "is no longer available". Clean matrix 113, 3 3 3 3: a new platform replaces it.

Close your eyes and relax. New code 77731183779, one unit, hologram one, resonance 3375, activate. Spacecraft location 3373; Pleiadian unit 111; Galactic Federation 3373 and 11373; accept platform 333173; negative platform 01.3 erased. Accept 113. Download: 1 1 1 5, unit 5, 33173 0; increase 1131, potency up 10%; clear unit 1 5 5 5 5 9 9, god particle 99, portal open; close portal 113.

Breathe and relax for one minute. "If you accept, say accept. If you do not wish to download, say stop. That is by choice."

32.4 What numbers do

Every word and every number has its own sound, and a combination of numbers creates "a whirlpool sonic vibrational frequency" in the matrix, "a brand new matrix for you": the moment someone says 133, a geometry forms. So when you hear codes, simply read or listen and consent if you trust it. It works like a screen projecting a reality into you, but in ether, directly into the DNA, so it can override what you're bombarded with. Holding the code, you emanate it into every matrix around you, even at home: "you are an antenna".

FROM THE BOOKS From her books (HR): each hertz and sound has a specific effect in the ether matrix; her own books are written "in geometry code", so reading them activates you even before you understand.

32.5 Activated is not finished

Being activated "doesn't mean you sit back and do nothing". To sustain the matrix's potency so it crystallizes into matter, act from the heart. Your matrix is ether: lower its frequency and it becomes matter, like water's states (see S1). "Somebody can give you the book with all the codes, but if you don't read it and practise, it will not manifest for you."

32.6 Override a slip at once

If you watch something negative by mistake, recognize it and "immediately watch something positive": you override the lower hologram with a new one, "a mutation of the alchemy of your creation". And if a protocol (such as the ten nights, S3 31) is interrupted, just restart: "once you give the consent, it takes a life of its own". Slowly but surely, under the radar.

32.7 If one approach doesn't work, change it

"Timelines are hard to tap into" is itself a belief that becomes reality: switch it to "I'm strong, I have the information" and act. If one piece of information doesn't resonate, look for another. If one doctor isn't helping and you're getting worse, keep imagining and feeling yourself healthy and also take the action of seeing a different doctor. "Action is crystallizing the matrix, and belief is the sound-wave potency." Then override the negative every time you see it, daily: "I never said it's easy."

32.8 Create it to see it

You were programmed to "see it to believe it". You were given half the picture, the mirror image: the reflection is you, but not that you are consciousness itself. Believing it, anyone can project a narrative into you, and you consent and loop as a prisoner. The councils teach the opposite: "you have to create it through the frequency to see it." No blame and no hatred: "that's how they survive. You know the structure now. Transform it." Study Season 1 from Section 1, 15 minutes at a time (see S3 22.6).

32.9 End results are written; players change

When timelines change, do events change? "Yes and no." An end result can be "a law, a code" already written: humanity wins; consciousness moves up. But who plays which part can change; even someone chosen can fall into greed or fame. Someone with a mission is pushed back on track whenever they stray. Lesson: replacing a hurt with the good feeling of being admired is ego. So the timeline changes fractally, "but the end result will always get there". Hold the positive; another timeline, of those who consent blindly, runs at the same time.

32.10 What light warriors can do

"All of the above", and now especially: share positive things. Post, share and talk about what is positive, "positive and positive and positive", with your neighbours and online: that frequency is needed. And if you get upset: "thank you, I'm a hologram", pull back, remove yourself, and do something positive.

The method — Receiving a Code

1. Relax and close your eyes while the code is read.
2. Decide freely: say "accept", or say "stop". It's your choice.
3. Breathe in and out for a minute.
4. Go on with your life, with no expectations; see a doctor for any pain.
5. Act on it: thoughts, actions and deeds from the heart, daily (32.5).
6. Override at once any slip into the negative with something positive (32.6).

Questions answered

How are we doing as a collective? What are our mistakes?

"There's no mistake": wanting to grow and coming here means you're already activated for the 5D timeline. The push is given so you don't fall off "through simple mistakes" while bombarded.

If the ten-day protocol is interrupted, can we restart it?

Yes: see 32.6.

How quickly can personal timelines change?

See 32.7.

How do we change a belief system trained to "prove it first"?

See 32.8.

When numbers are read, what are we supposed to do with them?

See 32.4.

How long should we stay away from social media?

Ten days, for the negative and political material; positive, feel-good things are fine (32.1).

When timelines change, do events change?

See 32.9.

What can we do as light warriors?

See 32.10.

Left out: participants' and donors' names, named channels and outside people, political and historical claims, remarks on named states and a named country, claims that medical treatments destroyed human DNA (vaccines and medicines don't change your DNA), and a personal story (its lesson is kept in 32.9).

Remember

- Help, not saving: you do the work.
- A code needs your consent: accept or stop.
- Numbers build geometry; you become an antenna.
- Slip? Override with something positive at once.
- Create it to see it.

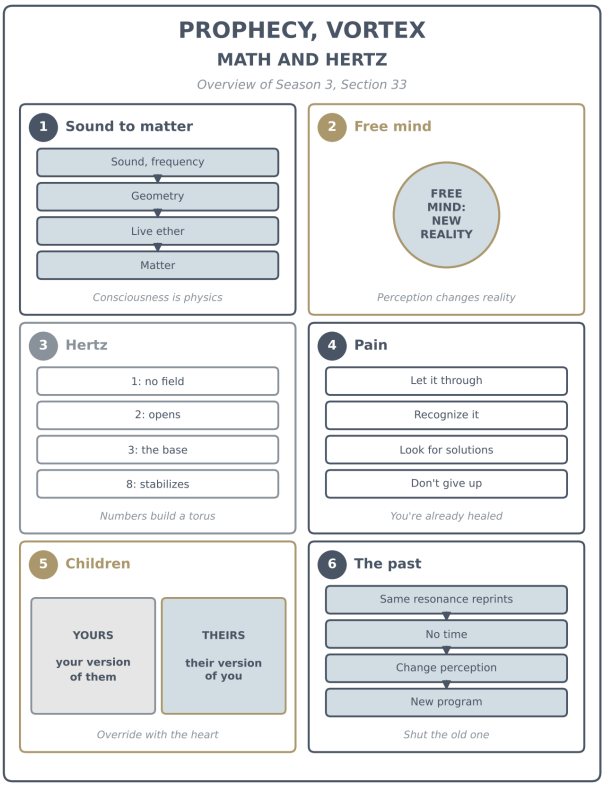

SEASON 3 · SECTION 33

New Prophecy, Vortex Math and Hertz

A prophecy about a free mind, sound shaping matter, numbers forming a torus, what each hertz does, self-healing, the fractal of days and years, pain as a lesson, bilocation and portals, your children's holograms, letting go of the past, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

"Consciousness is physics": separating the two was the manipulation. Sound and frequency create geometry; geometry is a live ether structure; at a certain density it becomes matter. So the number codes she downloads are not random: each number is a frequency, and combinations build geometry, up to a whole torus. The same law explains healing, bilocation, and letting go of the past: change the resonance and you shut one program and replace it with another, whenever it happened.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

33.1 The prophecy: a free mind

A prophecy was given in symbolic language: an awakening call ("a trumpet") sounds through the land; the awakened "are sheep no more" and become lions, while those who choose to stay blind to the facts stay in darkness by their own choice. Its key line: "Your mind must also be free. The free mind will change your perception, and your perception will change your reality." "It is God's choice, and God you are." She says you may interpret it as you wish; choosing ignorance is a choice that brings what you wish for.

33.2 Sound makes geometry

She showed videos as "scientific proof": water moving in set patterns at around 24 Hz and reversing when the frequency changes; a single particle vibrating, pulsating and turning into geometry as the frequency changes; objects lifting and metal breaking under sound. The lesson: everything is pulsation; the one particle is ether surrounded by a matrix; frequency shapes it. That is why, in her books, sound can be used to control water and fire. "Teach your children sacred geometry."

Healing with frequency and sound: "teach your children and look into the information of Dr. Raymond Rife's frequency machine". She points to the full documentary (about five hours), in the Freedom Awakening sub-channel of her Harmonic Reactor channel. In her account, Rife could measure the frequency of a cancer cell and neutralize and heal it through frequency sound, and was destroyed for it; she showed a recent video of a machine whose sound frequency kills cancer cells such as leukaemia cells under the microscope: "that was discovered from Raymond Rife years ago".

> Added safety note
> No frequency or Rife machine is a proven treatment for cancer in people. Killing cells in a dish is not the same as curing cancer in a body. Please keep to your oncologist's care; anything else, only alongside it and with their knowledge.

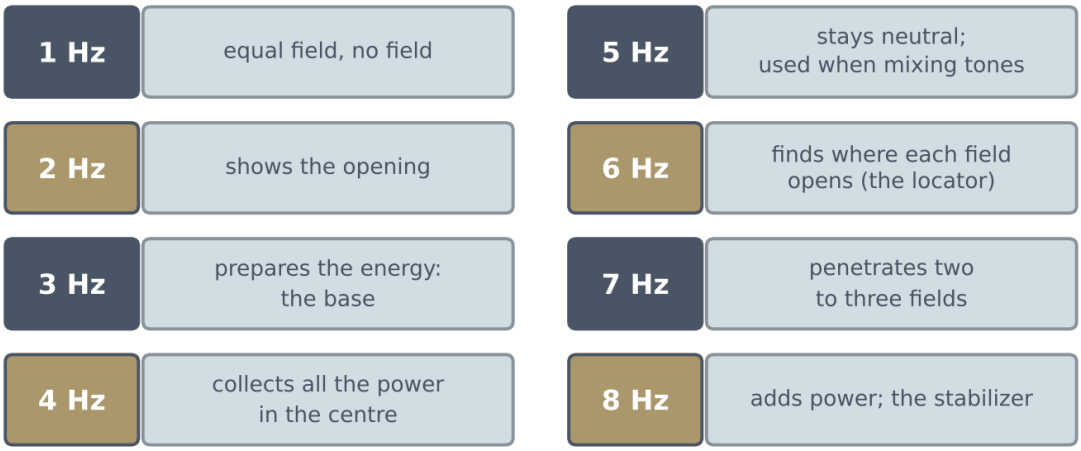

33.3 Numbers form a torus

In vortex mathematics each corner of a figure is a number, and number patterns build a torus, constantly moving, like the cones she draws (see S3 31.2). That is what her downloads do: each code is a set of "point locations" that forms a live geometry in your field. If her codes were measured by technology, "you would see the geometry of that code". Listened to with trust, it becomes live structure in you anyway.

FROM THE BOOKS From her books (HR): the double torus is "the two molecules of the one"; the torus is strong only in combination with the URON (the atom at higher vibration). The whole of HR is "download codes": some sentences don't make sense because they're laid out as geometry to activate DNA and RNA.

33.4 What each hertz does

In HR ("Frequency and sound") each number has an action, and combinations carry meaning: 2 opens the field and 8 stabilizes it, so 28 Hz shows a certain potency; a hum such as 528 makes a different geometry again. Change the frequency and you get a completely different geometry. This builds on S1 19.

Combined: 2 + 8 = 28 Hz, "2 shows the opening, 8 stabilizes"

The first eight hertz and what each does in the field, as listed in HR, with the combination she explains in this talk.

33.5 How self-healing works

A healing body needs light and resonance flowing in and out "with no blockage", a constant yin-and-yang cleansing ("reverse osmosis"). Technologies lowered human resonance so that vortices spun only inward; with no outflow, cells degenerate and can't regenerate, unlike an octopus regrowing an arm. As you change your perception, the new resonances from the galactic central sun layer into your body; cleansing and water as a conductor (see S3 30.2, S3 31.2) carry them through the cells, and you become "a live torch" of frequency. Beings who hold higher vibration stay youthful for thousands of years.

33.6 A fractal of days and years

Do we have a 5D body? "Yes indeed", running at the same time; for now you get glimpses as you fluctuate. Each day is a fractal of your week, each week of your month, each month of your year, each year of your hundred years, and so on, "until all the combination of vortexes become one particle". At a certain understanding you'll "download the entire information in one unit": manifestation is in the now.

33.7 Pain is a frequency to recognize

"You cannot skip certain lessons" (see S3 19.3): pain is a frequency to be recognized. Let it go through the body "without rejection", so you can bring its resonance into awareness and transform it. At the same time take actions to look for solutions: you'll create a synchronicity that brings the cure or an easing. "You're already healed", but you have to create the reality to see it. If one platform doesn't work, don't be discouraged: "you don't give up, you don't give up".

> Added note
> Constant pain needs medical care. Her teaching is to keep looking for solutions as well as working with the frequency: keep seeing doctors, and try another if one doesn't help (see S3 32.7).

33.8 Bilocation and portals

Portals are based on perception and understanding of your quantum field: every shift of thought, emotion and action creates an ether geometry that can shift "like a spacecraft". Bilocation: recall or create the field of a place, know it already exists, return to the now, signal that you want to be there, and act "in simply knowing it". It needs knowing it's "100% possible" (see S3 20). In time you may even teleport, from bedroom to backyard without the kitchen. Higher contact asks for diet, understanding, and a heart without conditions: "the heart has the codes to open the portals". Earth guides will be needed as a bridge (see S2 4).

33.9 Your children's holograms

Both at once. Your reality and your child's sit under the one particle. In yours, you project a version of your child; in theirs, they project a version of you, with a completely different perception. Hold the heart and keep overriding: you create a new version of them that interacts as you wish. The more your positive action outweighs the negative, the more the fluctuation collapses into a positive outcome. Study S1 1.

33.10 Letting go of the past

The one particle shifts so fast it appears next to itself, a new earth and a new version of you each time. If you don't change your perception after a hard experience, you reprint the same resonance into the next earth: a permanent negative timeline. But there is no time: something 10,000 years ago or yesterday "is just a perception". Change the perception, think and act positively, and "you shut down one program and replace it with a brand new one". Practise, as a surgeon must (see S3 14.4).

The method — Shutting Down an Old Program

1. Recognize the old resonance still running (a hurt, a fear, a pain).
2. Let it pass through without rejecting it; feel what it is (33.7).
3. Drop the time label: yesterday or long ago, it's only perception (33.10).
4. Change the perception: "I'm whole; I'm already healed."
5. Act positively in thought, action and deed, and look for real solutions.
6. Repeat daily until the positive outweighs it and the new program holds.

Questions answered

How do we activate the body's self-healing?

See 33.5.

Do we have a body in the fifth dimension?

See 33.6.

How do we stay at a high frequency in constant pain?

See 33.7.

Can you explain bilocation, teleportation and opening portals?

See 33.8.

Do my children experience me in their reality as I experience them in mine?

See 33.9.

If I can't understand everything, am I not at a level to evolve?

"Oh no." You'd never have found the material without resonating with it; you projected her into your hologram to activate yourself. How far you go is your choice: be consistent, and transform the old by positive action, not rejection. Get off the ego, face your fears, and follow the facts.

How do we let go of the past?

See 33.10.

Left out: participants' and donors' names, named scientists, channels and documentaries, political interpretations and voting remarks.

Remember

- A free mind changes perception; perception changes reality.
- Sound makes geometry; numbers make a torus.
- 2 opens, 8 stabilizes.
- Pain: let it through, look for solutions, don't give up.
- The past is only perception: shut the program.

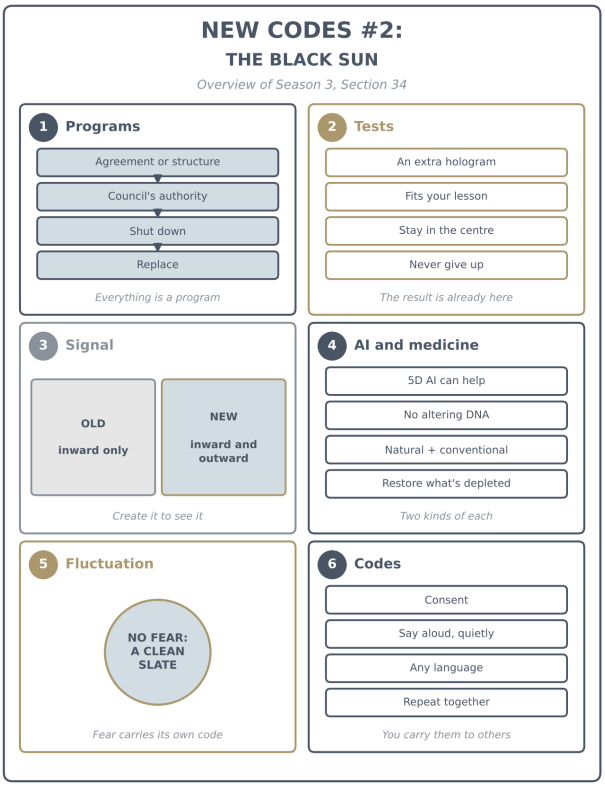

SEASON 3 · SECTION 34

New Codes #2: The Black Sun

How guides and councils can change your hologram, tests placed in your path, why the negative needs your life force, programs being shut down, the Black Sun codes, two kinds of AI and medicine, the two years of fluctuation, sharing with loved ones, and how to say the codes (live talk with a download)

The big idea

Everything is a program in your hologram, and the councils have the authority to shut a program down and replace it, whether it's an agreement in your own life or a structure that has suppressed humanity. This download shuts down one such program, called the Black Sun. But a new signal can only land in you through neutrality, not fear: stay at zero, act from the heart, and the new code overrides the old one.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

34.1 Guides and councils change by agreement

Your guides walk with you by assignment: one set of teachers up to about age ten, then, as you complete something, new ones may come, often without your knowing. They appear in a form that won't frighten you ("like an angel"), never as something scary. It's like a school: do well and guides, even councils, are switched. A council can also change a pre-birth agreement, "a bylaw": a big decision between your higher self, you, your guides and the council, which can "shut this program" and replace it with a new holographic matrix (see S3 29.8).

34.2 Tests are placed in your path

A council may place an "extra hologram" in front of you to see what you'll do with your knowledge: will you help someone without thinking of money? The lesson from her own test: tell yourself "this is a hologram; the result is here, I just need to create it"; stay in the centre; act on every idea that comes; never give up, even when everyone refuses to help. Each person's test fits their lesson: someone who gets upset easily will be tested on getting upset. Study the material like college: theory first, then practice to crystallize it.

34.3 Why the negative needs your life force

A consciousness that has accumulated so much negativity "can resonate only on one radio station": no compassion, no love, cut off from the God particle without realizing it's part of it. To sustain its artificial timeline it needs technology and human life force, "like vampires, through energy". Suppression keeps people projecting dense frequency, which keeps them in that timeline; negative media reprints the image. "No judgement": it's their survival, the way humans have used animals. You, acting from the heart, can rise above it into a timeline that no longer meets theirs.

34.4 Programs are being shut down

The councils have the right to shut such programs and replace them (the 06-06-06 platform in S3 32.3 was one). A program can be a person, a group, a society or a structure; she wouldn't say which. Why are they allowed to interfere? "No other consciousness has a right to suppress another consciousness through the process of ascension if they are ready and gave the consent to ascend."

34.5 The Black Sun codes

The download (condensed)

The signals of the Black Sun are weak and depleting; "none of them can hold the frequency. So it is, God's will."

Signals: seven now 13738835; arrow 1133116783; arrow 9993377; 353578; signal inward, signal outward to complete the hologram: 53883321005377; 111111 33 21005377; 101101100100; arrow 7381335335; signal stops; complete, unit 1.

"The memory of this reality will disintegrate back to source", so that history doesn't repeat: no one will again use the knowledge of consciousness to suppress another race or use humans as a food or energy source.

34.6 Two kinds of AI, two kinds of medicine

"Do not be afraid of artificial intelligence": 5D AI can restore and help, and extraterrestrials use such structures well. What you don't consent to is the kind that distorts the body's natural DNA, putting robotics or technology into the body and brain. The same with medicine: natural and conventional medicine "have to go one and one". When the body is depleted, restore it with what it needs, even antibiotics, "because you don't want to die", and use the rest alongside. Nanotechnology can also help the body (see NT).

34.7 Two years of fluctuation

"The next two years is fluctuation": what you see is partly illusion. Others are creating their own reality "under the umbrella of ascension"; negative fluctuation "doesn't have to be your reality". Have compassion if you help. Don't fall into fear: fear carries its own sequences and blocks the new signal. No fear puts you in neutrality, "a clean slate", where a brand-new hologram can be put in by thoughts, actions and deeds. In a hard moment: "I'm in a hologram, thank you for showing me"; remove yourself; calm to zero; then act anew.

34.8 Collective potency

When many read a code together, "we are doing, collectively, potency of vibration": repeated on and on, a signal becomes potent enough "to pop into matter". So do it in unity, without ego.

The method — Working with a Code

1. Consent first: only if it's your truth (see S3 32.2).
2. Say it out loud, calmly and quietly: sound makes it more potent; no need to shout.
3. Any language works: see the numbers as you say them.
4. Repeat it, alone or together with others.
5. Stay neutral: no fear, so the new signal can land (34.7).
6. Carry it into action: you emanate it to everyone you meet (see S3 32.4).

Questions answered

How can we pass this on to loved ones with a different vibration?

Change yourself, not them (see S1 1–4): hold your frequency and you shift into a hologram with a new version of them. Let your material play without pushing; they may suddenly say the same things, heard from someone else.

Do we have to say the codes out loud?

It's more potent if you do: see the method.

If the code is numerical, what does it sound like? Does everyone hear the same?

The potency differs slightly by how each person projects it and how their ears take it in, but reading it aloud still penetrates; repeat. Technology could one day show its geometry.

Do our loved ones need to hear the code too?

Once you consent, your body carries the imprint and emanates it in your field, where you project your family: "of course they're getting it."

Is the council protecting us from 5G?

Any signal is sound and geometry, so it can be overwritten with a different signal: don't be afraid. To see that protection, project the frequency and act from the heart.

Are the galactics sending reinforcements?

"This is exactly what they are doing": codes are one part; help also comes in lucid dreams and in ways you may not remember.

Left out: participants' and donors' names, political remarks and voting advice, claims about vaccines, smart cities and named groups (vaccines don't change your DNA), and a personal story (its lesson is kept in 34.2).

Remember

- Every agreement is a program: councils can replace it.
- A test fits your lesson: stay in the centre.
- Fear carries its own code; neutrality lets the new one in.
- Natural and conventional medicine go together.
- Say codes aloud, quietly; you carry them to others.

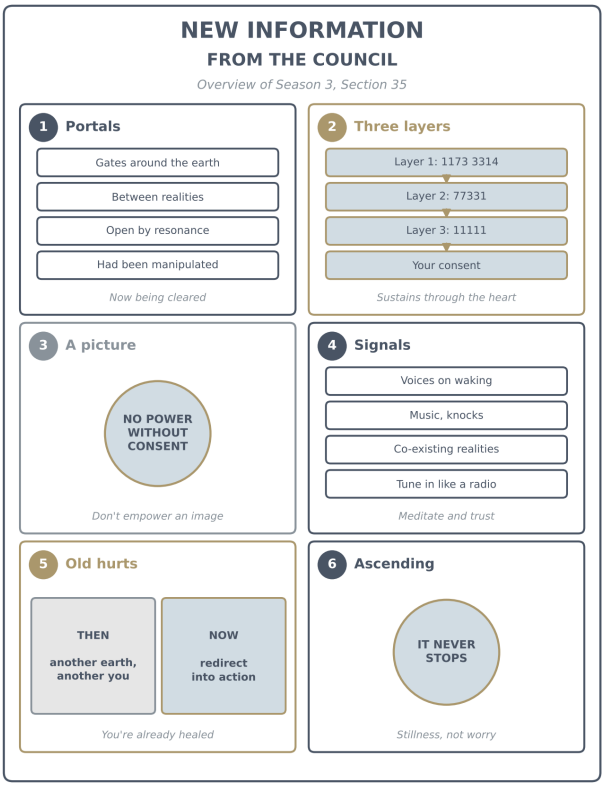

SEASON 3 · SECTION 35

New Information from the Council of Nine

Portals around the planet, a cleansing wave of light and sound, a three-layer download, why a picture has no power without your consent, catching signals like a radio, healing old fractures, and questions (live talk with channelling)

The big idea

Around the planet's hologram are portals, gates between realities, and they had been manipulated to hide layers of timelines. A new wave of light and sound is cleansing fear and pain, and a three-layer download was given to help. But nothing you see, from your room to the news, has power over you without your consent: it's a holographic imprint. Trust the process, hold the heart, and you keep ascending.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

35.1 Portals around the planet

Around the holographic imprint of the earth are many portals or gates, "like zones", for moving from one reality or location to another, out into the galactic structure. Passing from one portal to another must be allowed: some open by frequency, some by resonance. Super technology had been used to manipulate them and to hide "layers of layers of parallel realities of timelines". This is why the quantum structure was taught first, so that this doesn't sound foreign (see S3 21.5).

FROM THE BOOKS From her books (DP): "in every system in the galaxy there is a Stargate"; your energy moves easily "through the new timeline reality star gates" when you match their frequency.

35.2 A baptism of light and sound

"You have been given the choice to see", and from there to be reborn. The message called it a baptism, "not in water, but in the new frequency resonance wave of light and sound. That new wave will cleanse you of all your fear, all your pain, so you can start your new beginning." "Have faith not in us, but in your power: God you are." Everyone is being given an individual waking-up; consenting to manipulation after seeing it is a choice of timeline. Stay neutral; humanity wins in the end.

35.3 The three-layer download

Given first for one person whose connection was "slightly blocked from the left side of the DNA" (the advice: more detox, more trust in your channelling, relax in nature), then to everyone watching, as a gift after the fear of recent days.

The download (condensed)

Unblocking: seven layers of the DNA, a signal of three layers, 331; cleaning frequency three, cleaning structure 20.1113, three structures.

Layer one: 1173 3314, reversed, combines with the DNA and RNA in one structure. Layer two: 77331, structure one, converts to 11378999, God particle inverting. Layer three: signal 11111, repetition 1111, repetition 1111, stop.

"It sustains only if you stay in your heart structure." Given as a very small sequence, it won't build "as an avalanche" until you consent; the more you act from the heart, the more it lets you slide through situations "with absolute ease".

35.4 A picture has no power

How do you stand your ground without reacting? Everything you see, even the room around you, is a holographic imprint: ether resonance combining into a magnetic and gravitational field dense enough to be matter. "You are simply floating in the air of the matrix, creating by thoughts." "To give a power to simply a picture, isn't it kind of funny?" What you see on television is someone producing a frequency along a narrative; it becomes your reality only when you consent and keep tuning in. "You are like babies that need to learn to walk, and there's nothing wrong with that."

35.5 Catching signals like a radio

Images, music or a voice on waking, a knock at the door when you're alone: other realities co-exist with yours, slightly above your structure, and you're picking up their signal "almost like a radio". Of the many, one is more potent, usually the closest to your own resonance. Meditate and trust the process; in time you'll hear whole messages. Stay in the heart, or you won't be allowed to download from heart timelines. That's also why different people receive different outcomes: each gets a fractal of a reality.

35.6 Healing old fractures

The child who was hurt lived on a different earth, a different version of you (see S3 33.10). If you keep feeling that memory, you pull its resonance into now, and it builds, even into depression, "for something that happened to another version of you". Understand that and healing is "instantaneous": "you're already healed". When the emotion returns, redirect your attention by taking action on something positive; repeat until your consciousness stops picking up that old frequency.

> Support
> If childhood trauma or abuse still weighs on you, a trauma-informed therapist can help alongside this practice. Childhelp (US, for adult survivors too): 1-800-422-4453. RAINN: 1-800-656-4673. In crisis, call or text 988.

35.7 You're already ascending

"It never stops. Do you stop thinking or feeling? It's the same." Don't be too eager: the fluctuation is used by collapsing everything to zero point, and that happens in stillness, not while worrying about the next moment, which lowers your vibration. "Trust yourself that you are already there, even if you don't see it"; acting builds the potency that shifts you into the 5D reality. Give your sovereignty to no one.

The method — Standing Your Ground Without Reacting

1. Notice the picture: a scene, a screen, a memory.
2. Remember it's an imprint: it has no power until you consent (35.4).
3. Withhold consent: "this is not my reality."
4. Go still: collapse the emotion to zero (35.7).
5. Redirect your attention by doing something positive (35.6).
6. Trust the process; act again tomorrow.

Questions answered

Is consciousness the same as the soul?

"Consciousness is soul and vice versa."

Can you speak of the Black Sun?

Only that it's a group; nothing more (see S3 34.5).

How do I improve my connection with my guides?

See 35.3: detox, trust, nature.

Are we trying to get closer to the One, the ultimate heaven?

Yes: shift to the right resonance and "you're literally already there", but there are lessons to learn first.

How many times do we say the numbers?

"As long as you wish", with consent and a daily heart structure.

Will there be a solar flash on a set date?

"What reality?" All probabilities are true; implement it and so it is. "Which one do you wish?" Don't attach beliefs of fear.

I'm new and feel lost and bombarded. What should I do?

Follow the quantum manifestation protocols, and use the material by mood: a positive video when you need one, a piece of the knowledge when you're ready. "You create as you go."

How do we stand our ground without reacting emotionally?

See 35.4.

Is there a message about extreme weather?

"We will not give a consent to this type of reality. Don't you have enough fear?"

I hear voices, music or knocking on waking. What does it mean?

See 35.5.

How do I connect with my galactic family?

Practise: clairvoyant experience will open more for you.

How do we heal childhood fractures and trauma?

See 35.6.

How do I know whether I'll ascend?

See 35.7.

Left out: participants' names; election claims, named politicians and political predictions; claims about named groups and a named country; a named fleet.

Remember

- Portals open by frequency and resonance.
- A picture has no power without your consent.
- Signals from other realities: tune in like a radio.
- That hurt belonged to another version of you.
- You're already ascending: trust the process.

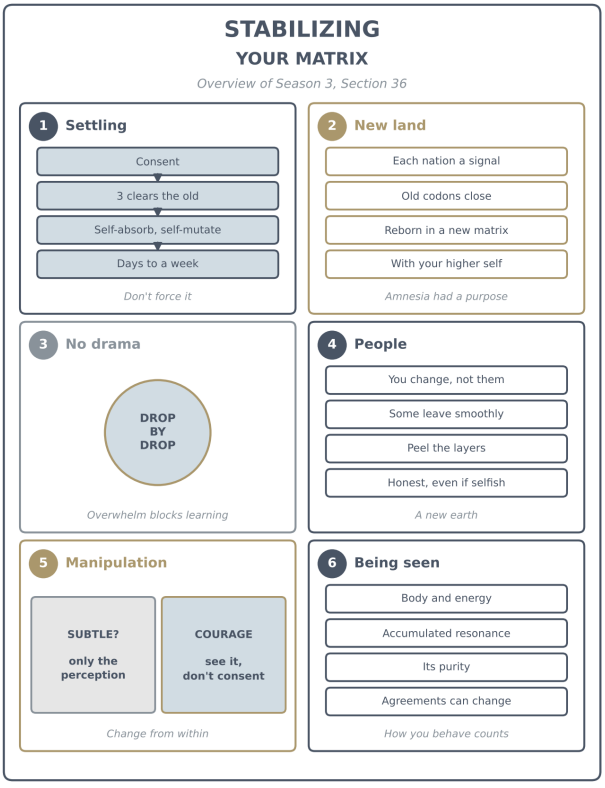

SEASON 3 · SECTION 36

Stabilizing Your Matrix with the New Codes #3

How moving to a new land reprints your codes, why a code takes days to settle, how the councils see you, how new codes change the people around you, recognizing manipulation, second-guessing your guidance, why there's no dramatic change, and questions (live talk with direct channelling)

The big idea

A code doesn't land all at once: like a nanoparticle, your structure has to absorb, heal and mutate by itself, and that takes a different time for each person, from instantly to about a week. This third code strengthens your own ability to recognize manipulation in your personal reality. Once you recognize it, be honest: don't consent, act from the heart, and overwrite it day after day until it tips.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

36.1 A new land reprints your codes

Each nation you're born into carries its own signal, codes designed for the learning in your agreements. If you move to another country, it's a different timeline: the old codons have to collapse and shut down so you can be "reborn" in a new holographic matrix, decided with your higher self. You came with amnesia so you could take in new structures without decoding why you came. Many reading this incarnated "to hold the vibration for the new beginning"; that's why you're magnetically drawn to such material.

36.2 Two structures, no judgement

The 3D molecule "is simply a resonance", whatever produced it. Negative and positive structures coexist in consciousness, so "you should have no notion that one reality is better than the other. It simply is. Stay in neutrality." What falls off balance from the original purity of consciousness self-destructs, with the help of your higher self. The planet is liberated as you mutate your belief system: that gives a completely new resonance. Don't support manipulation because it comes from "your" side: "support the truth, not the side".

36.3 Why a code takes days to settle

After a strong period of downloads, it's "absolutely normal" for nothing to happen for a while. A code shuts one program and brings in another, and that needs potency. In each code, the number 3 clears the previous structure "like a zero point" so the new resonance can come in (see S3 33.4). Then the structure must "self-absorb, self-heal and self-mutate by its own doing": for one person a couple of days, for another instantly, for another a week. "Don't think it isn't being embedded." Consent is a faster route, "an easy loophole", but still takes some time, since your resonance shifts daily with your location.

> FROM THE BOOKS From her books (NT): after a nanoparticle receives a new frequency and starts to split, "do not recall the Hz again. Let it stay and let it stabilize by itself for 3 days. Let its own consciousness build the calling for the next unit, 1+1=3."

36.4 How the councils see you

"We see both" body and energy; there's no separation. They can break it down into molecular structure, matrix and timelines (easier through technology), or simply feel your signal and the timeline pops up in front of them. Often they recognize you as an energy field showing the resonance you've accumulated through behaviour, and from its purity decide whether to work with you. Agreements can change with how you behave (see S3 34.1).

36.5 New codes change who's around you

Yes, depending on the person. "You are not changing other people, you're changing your resonance", projecting a new earth with new versions of those you stay with. Others leave through synchronicity: a move, an illness, a passing, or you simply stop calling. "A very smooth transition." Use time at home as activation. To decide whether to stay or go, peel all the layers (see S3 17.5) and switch off the ego; even discovering that you feel selfish is honest, and that honesty is your real foundation. Then act positively.

36.6 What this code does

The last downloads shut two programs that needed outside help to break (see S3 32, S3 34). This one "enhances your own structure to recognize" manipulation in your personal reality: it holds subtones, "multiple codes within the codes", so the moment something is off balance, you'll see it, recognize it, and move forward. The Archon timeline (a prison reality built by highly evolved negative consciousness) was so clever that "you wouldn't know for millennia" you were trapped.

36.7 Recognizing manipulation takes courage

"It's not subtle. It's a perception that is subtle." Seeing the truth shatters every belief system you had, and that is frightening: "it takes bravery". If your mind keeps inventing stories not to follow your guidance, it's because confusing sub-signals were placed in the matrix and you were trained to think in it. Practise tuning in "like a radio" (see S3 35.5); pull away from negative media. And don't say "it's not my problem": you'd be waiting for the mirror image to fix it. "The changes are happening from within." Act, bravely, daily, until it tips into "a rebirth of the new frequency" (see S3 35.2).

36.8 Why there's no dramatic change

Expecting something tremendous is the illusion. A smooth, slow change "is actually what we usually are looking for": overwhelm a being with what it doesn't yet understand and it blocks everything that comes next. "Every single material we gave you is like a drop in the sea", so you can drink it drop by drop.

The codes for this talk: 7338373 · 11001 · 384 · 4444 · 71373; an infinite signal is activated at the top of the hologram, by your latitude and altitude, to complete the matrix: help "non-stop" through the process.

The method — Letting a Code Settle

1. Consent, then read the code aloud once or a few times (see S3 34).
2. Let it settle: allow days, even a week; don't keep forcing it (36.3).
3. Expect no drama: drop by drop (36.8).
4. Watch for what's off balance in your own life (36.6).
5. Be honest about what you see, even in yourself; peel the layers (36.5).
6. Don't consent to manipulation: act from the heart, daily, with courage (36.7).

Questions answered

Are there humans without souls?

There can be "droppings" in your hologram: a resonance like a picture frame, not fully connected to a soul's energy field, given for learning experiences.

I had downloads during the ten days, then nothing. Is that normal?

Yes: see 36.3.

When a code comes without instructions, how long do we say it?

Consent, read it a couple of times; it may take a couple of days to embed (36.3).

Do the councils see a physical body or energy?

Both: see 36.4.

Will the new codes change friends, people, jobs?

Yes, for many: see 36.5.

When will my star family contact me?

Practise lucid dreaming: it's more visual and less open to manipulation. Even the very evolved may not be allowed into some realities.

What is this new code for?

See 36.6.

How do we recognize manipulation when it's so subtle?

See 36.7.

My mind talks me out of my guidance. What can I do?

See 36.7.

When beings visit my dreams, why can't I speak to them?

It differs for everyone: it may be a code download or a visit to another reality. Some doors open only when your resonance becomes "the key", and when the councils decide, by what you've accumulated. "Have no expectations."

Someone told me I'm a hybrid. What does that mean?

"You are all hybrids", designed from the DNA of different races; it's a question of percentage, which shows in personality. Hybrid programmes helped preserve the original human codons.

I feel I have a purpose with the Galactic Federation. Is it right?

Ask, and write the immediate answer. Not every answer comes true at first: you're learning to walk, tuning the radio. Never give up.

I consented but noticed nothing. Am I blocked?

No: see 36.8.

Left out: participants' names, election claims, party politics and named politicians, readings on a named country, and a remark about a named people.

Remember

- A code settles in days, not seconds: let it.
- No drama is the plan: drop by drop.
- Neither structure is better; support the truth.
- Manipulation isn't subtle; seeing it takes courage.
- Change comes from within, not from the mirror.

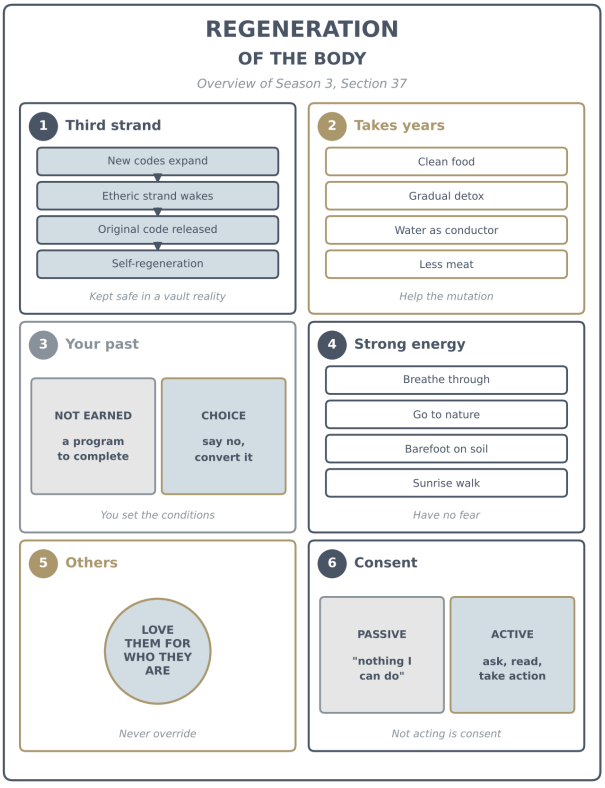

SEASON 3 · SECTION 37

The Regeneration of the Human Body: New DNA Code

The third, etheric strand of DNA, a preserved original code, why change takes years, cloned bodies, why you don't "earn" a low vibration, how to serve, what to do with intense energy, loving everyone, food and water, and how silence becomes consent (live talk with channelling)

The big idea

As consciousness expands, the new codes will activate a third, etheric strand of DNA, the invisible life force, and the original human code, kept safe by consciousness itself, will be downloaded to everyone so the body can rejuvenate and regenerate. Mutation takes years, so help it: clean food, detox, nature. And remember that not acting is also consent: you always have a choice.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

37.1 The third strand activates

Under a microscope DNA shows two strands; put certain frequency in and you'd see the third (see S3 30.11). The new codes from the natural expansion of consciousness will make the genetic code "pop up like a balloon" and activate this third etheric codon, the life force "invisible until now". The original human DNA and RNA was "secretly preserved" in a vault reality that only consciousness itself could open, so no one could tamper with it. Now it's being released to all, to restore DNA that was altered without consent. Then "all of you will start to self-rejuvenate and self-regenerate".

37.2 The code, and why it takes years

Only a fraction of the code was given, to protect it: 3371 · 33371, and, in answer to a question, 33713333371. It activates the body and begins mutating the DNA codon back to the original; it was described as restoring the original, balanced design of male and female. "Mutation takes years", but it's easier with the right food, detox and not too much meat (see S3 30.2; her detox talk is Section 38). History, erased and restarted more than once, "will be rewritten from consciousness itself".

> FROM THE BOOKS From her books (NT): the same knowledge applied to all cells "means that you can rebuild and regenerate all cells, all systems back to normal. This is longevity."

37.3 Cloned bodies hold only a fraction

Is the soul inside the body? There's no separation, only a different projection. A cloned body can be grown and a fraction of a consciousness shifted into it, but that soul doesn't hold "the original helium of the frequency DNA" to sustain the body. So cloned bodies aren't self-sustaining, can't mutate to the next level, and die off after a time.

37.4 You don't "earn" a low vibration

Did a hard childhood mean you earned a low vibration in a past life? "We wouldn't say you earn it": you run a program from a previous timeline, to complete lessons you accumulated, and you build new frequencies here to mutate it. But it's free will: "you always have the choice to say no" and convert negative to positive. You set the conditions, through your emotions, so you reproduce a new version of yourself (1 + 1 = 3; see S1 2.2).

37.5 How to serve humanity

"Be the best expression of yourself on a daily basis, moment to moment": those moments combine into a potency that expresses a better you later. Ask: "What can I do now to be the best of myself, whatever the situation? How can I act positively, even if somebody is negative?" Sometimes let others be until they realize who they are; sometimes step in. Peel each situation's layers (see S3 17.5): the feeling it brings shows the density you're on, and you choose to stay or to mutate.

37.6 When energy runs strong

Intense lucid dreams and energy through the body are the small activation push taking momentum, different for each soul. Have no fear: meditate and breathe through it, and go to nature. Trees and fresh air hold the balance of yin and yang and release what you've accumulated; your body connects differently there than in a home. Walk barefoot on grass or soil, ideally early in the morning, at sunrise (see S3 30.11).

37.7 Watching it like a screen

Feeling that the world looks like a screen you're observing is part of the process: you've "had enough", you understand what's happening, and you choose a positive video, a positive act, something in the name of humanity. Many will stop wanting to talk politics or hear speculation. "The true core of your reality is your belief system."

37.8 Love everyone; never override

To help as many as possible: share what you know, but "you can never overtake somebody's consciousness to make them believe you". Let them express who they are, and "love them for who they are": everyone chose to come here for a reason; give that space to all, with no judgement. "Forgiveness, expression of love, giving and sharing should be the core of your behaviour" (see S3 27.6).

37.9 Food, water and intention

Can intention change your food? Yes: you can shift reality so that a new organic shop or farm appears nearby, "a reality within a reality running specifically for you". It's a process, so also act: detox, eat carefully, drink distilled water as a conductor (see S2 8). Don't drink structured or energized water for long periods, "like you wouldn't take the same pill all the time": do it with supervision. Most of you have one to three guides helping (see S3 32.1).

37.10 Not acting is consent

Why do the councils need permission when the negative doesn't? "It happened with your consent." What was done was shown openly, in films and media, and staying passive ("there's nothing I can do") is agreement. "It's always something to do." Look at what your children are learning; read books; ask questions; then take action. The glitch in their design: they're part of consciousness too, so acting against it ends in self-sabotage (see S3 30.7).

The method — Supporting Your Body's Regeneration

1. Consent to the code and say it once (37.2); no need to repeat all day.
2. Eat cleanly: more natural food, less meat; detox gradually with supervision (see S3 30.2).
3. Drink water as a conductor; don't use structured water long-term (37.9).
4. Go to nature: barefoot on the ground, ideally at sunrise (37.6).
5. Breathe through strong energy or dreams; meditate; have no fear.

6. Be patient: mutation takes years; act from the heart every day.

Questions answered

Is the soul inside or outside the body?

See 37.3.

Did a bad childhood mean I earned a low vibration?

No: see 37.4.

How often in a day do we repeat the numbers?

Once is good; a couple of times is fine. Once consent is given, it goes into the DNA.

What's the best way to serve humanity?

See 37.5.

I have intense lucid dreams and energy running through me. What are they?

See 37.6.

The world looks like a screen I'm watching. Is it the process?

Yes: see 37.7.

Can we receive a DNA boost today?

It was already given in earlier downloads, and in 37.2.

How do I prepare to help as many people as possible?

See 37.8.

Can the council help us stay on track with cleansing?

"You are already doing it": you found this because you resonate; how you use it is your free will.

Should we claim our sovereignty, or just act personally?

That motion has already begun; have no fear. Take action (37.10).

Can we change the molecular structure of our food by intention?

Yes, with action too: see 37.9.

Why do the councils need consent when the negative doesn't?

See 37.10.

Added note

Detox and big diet changes need a doctor's supervision (see S3 30.2). Vaccines and medicines don't change your DNA; don't stop prescribed treatment.

Left out: participants' and donors' names; claims that chemicals, food, air and vaccines altered human DNA, and remarks linking gender identity to DNA manipulation (not included: they are unsupported and generalize about a group); political predictions; named public figures; a personal story.

Remember

- The third, etheric strand is waking up.
- Mutation takes years: help it with food, detox, nature.
- You don't earn a low vibration; you can always say no.
- Love everyone for who they are; never override.
- Not acting is consent: there's always something to do.

SEASON 3 · SECTION 38

Detox Protocol: Raising the Body's Hz

Why body and consciousness must vibrate as one unit, the medical checks first, her juicing rules, shakes, the step-by-step elimination diet, the gut, the heart as the key to contact, learning your guides, and questions (live talk)

The big idea

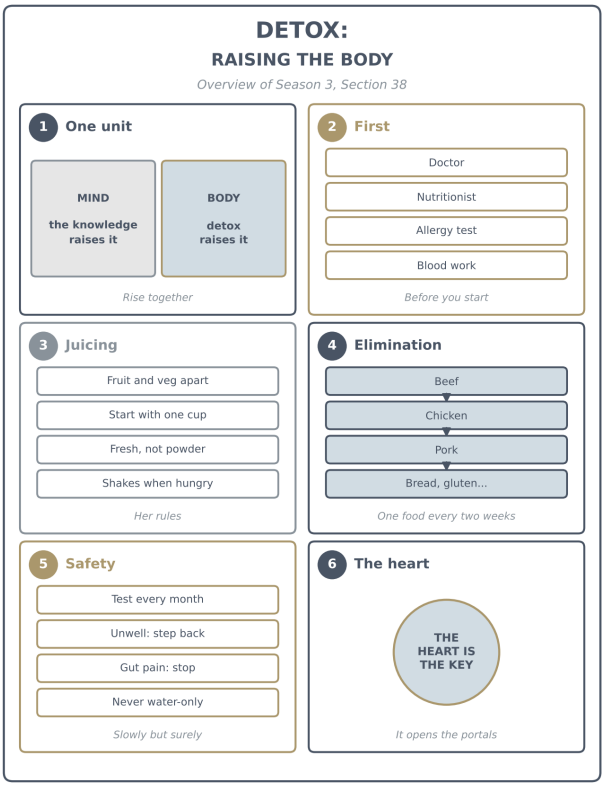

Your consciousness can rise with knowledge, but your body has to rise with it: the two must vibrate as one unit in synchronicity. Her detox protocol, taught to her over a year, raises the body's frequency "slowly but surely", one food at a time, under medical supervision. The deeper goal is the heart: an upgraded heart frequency holds the codes that open the portals for contact.

Her own words first

She gives this as her own experience, not a recommendation: "this is for entertainment purposes only; I'm not suggesting what you should do." She insists on a doctor and a nutritionist throughout, an allergy test and blood work before you start, and regular tests during it. Anyone who is diabetic "has to be very careful with this type of detox diet": the sugar level fluctuates so much that it needs a doctor's supervision.

Added safety note (not from the talk)

If you have diabetes, kidney or heart disease, an eating disorder, are pregnant or breastfeeding, or take medication, don't start without your doctor: juicing can swing blood sugar dangerously. Juice-only, water-only and "breatharian" regimes can kill; never attempt them. Don't stop prescribed medication.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

> Step-by-step guide
>
> The practical kitchen guide to this protocol (weaning off, the gut, ingredients, how to juice, the fruit rule) is the separate Step-by-Step Detox and Juicing Guide: its own PDF and web page, and the last part of the Complete Book.

Key teachings

38.1 Body and consciousness as one unit

Each reality (3D, 4D, 5D, an extraterrestrial timeline) has its own body resonance, like different radio stations. As you detox, the body's molecules vibrate faster; as you learn the quantum structure (Season 1), your perception gathers the frequency of a higher reality. Combine the two and you imprint yourself into a new, higher reality moment by moment. "The heart structure, the consciousness and your molecular body have to be one unit." Then, even amid 3D challenges, you'll find the food, the water, what you need.

38.2 Her juicing rules

Use the juices exactly as in her detox videos. Never mix fruit and vegetables: leave an hour between a green juice and a fruit juice: because of their different molecular consistency they ferment and create mycotoxins in your body. It usually takes about 40 minutes to start changing into the gut flora, so after one hour you can take a fruit juice. Start with no more than one cup, finished within about ten minutes, on a day off near a bathroom: it's potent and may make you nauseous. Get used to the bitterness; in her experience it's what makes the body flush. Juice rather than whole produce, because breaking down fibre uses up energy, and fresh rather than powder, which has "lower potency" (powder only when travelling). The full protocol is about eight to ten cups a day. For the first two weeks, copy the green juices exactly as in her video, juicing throughout the day. She also made a frequency sound healing video of 20 minutes for each protocol.

38.3 Shakes

A shake is more diluted and less nutrient-dense than a juice, but filling: distilled water with avocado, with spinach, or with both; a fruit shake is distilled water with banana. If you're still hungry after a juice, have a green shake rather than going back to eating.

38.4 The elimination diet, slowly but surely

Write down everything you eat. Keep eating normally while juicing, and remove one food every two weeks: beef first, then chicken, then pork, then bread and gluten, and so on; dairy, eggs and refined sugar also went (she kept only stevia and raw honey). Vegetarians: about four weeks per item, including cheese. Weight drops slowly, and that is the point: "drop by drop", so the spinning molecules don't move "out of orbit", losing nutrients and making you sick (see S3 30.2). Test with your doctor every month or six weeks. If you feel nauseous or weak, go back a step: her own body "couldn't handle" a step, so she was told to return to fish, potatoes and salad for a few weeks before moving on. By the fourth or fifth month she was down to potatoes, fish, salad, the juicing (eight to ten cups) and the shakes. The whole process took her the better part of a year: "I detox for one year", and more knowledge was given to her, leading to the Harmonic Reactor and the Quantum Manifestation videos.

1. Doctor, nutritionist, allergy test and blood work.
2. List everything you eat.
3. Juice daily as in her videos, plus shakes, while eating normally.
4. Every two weeks remove one food (four weeks for vegetarians).
5. Test every four to six weeks; adjust nutrients.
6. Feeling unwell? Go back a step, and see your doctor.

Diabetes: she points to a clinic in Arizona called Tree of Life, whose medical doctors, she says, help diabetics recover through a raw diet and juicing, and to a video called "Reverse Diabetic in 30 Days". In her words: "I'm not a doctor, I don't claim this to be true, but I want you to do the research"; "I'm not recommending diabetics without a doctor's supervision to follow anything I say here." Go first to the medical clinic.

> Added safety note (not from the talk)
> Diabetes medication and insulin doses can become dangerous when diet changes quickly: make any change only with the doctor who manages your diabetes. People with type 1 diabetes always need insulin.

Instead of alcohol: she stopped drinking and smoking. In place of wine she suggests: cold-press grape juice and let it ferment for two days; by the third day it is fermented ("like a wine") and, in her words, healthy for the body, used as a juice.

> Added safety note (not from the talk)
> Fermented grape juice contains alcohol and can grow unwanted moulds or bacteria: avoid it if you're pregnant, don't drink alcohol, take medication that doesn't mix with alcohol, or are driving.

38.5 Look after the gut

Restore your gut flora with a good probiotic, taken with distilled water. She explains that VSL changed its formula and the doctor took the original formula to Visbiome, the company she now uses; if you're on antibiotics, take it about two and a half hours after the antibiotic, since antibiotics kill good bacteria too. Some stomach pain can come with flushing, but regular pain means stop juicing: with a nutritionist, switch to a soft, cooked, low-fibre diet with no spice, citrus or raw food: everything cooked, very soft, almost puree. She recommends studying the book Fiber Menace: when the stomach or colon is inflamed, less fibre but more nutrition is fundamental. Get nutrients from natural sources (vitamin D from mushrooms, for example); if you take supplements, choose natural, reputable ones, and keep monitoring.

38.6 The heart is the key

After her long detox and a short period on juices, she describes feeling her heart lifted out and returned, and hearing "your heart is being upgraded" to hold the 5D heart. The teaching: the heart holds the codes that open portals. Each portal, or stargate, holds a resonance, a code for a galactic location; you can't enter it unless your heart and consciousness match it, "like a key", and even technology can't force it (see S3 35.1). As your vibration rises, the heart unlocks code by code, monitored by your guides. Physical contact comes only after you already have telepathic or lucid contact, proven by synchronicity, and then they guide you individually, perhaps over years.

Her experience, in order: she was trained to go 15 days only on the juicing, "the exact protocol that you have in these videos". Later, after her frequency was raised, she was sick for two hours and cleansed; for about a week she lived on herbal teas, lemon and honey, then water with a tablespoon of raw organic, non-GMO honey in distilled water every half an hour ("honey is also food").

> Her warning
> She calls this "very advanced": "you do not in any circumstances practise this", "you may completely die". On the honey-and-water stage: "never, ever follow that protocol, because that is very, very dangerous." "There's no way you become a breatharian in ten days."

> Added safety note (not from the talk)
> If you vomit repeatedly or can't keep fluids down, get medical help. Never live on juice, honey-water or water alone: people have died.

38.7 Learn your guides

Practising contact is like learning to fly or make a phone call to fluctuating stations: at first not everything you hear comes true, so don't be discouraged (see S3 36.7). In time you'll learn your guides' personalities, how they act and speak with you, and the lessons they set, which differ with the level you're connected to (see S3 32.9). No fear: guides don't take this path with someone who is afraid.

The method — Raising the Body with the Mind

1. Get checked first: doctor, nutritionist, allergy test, blood work (38.4).
2. Study the knowledge (Season 1) alongside: body and mind rise together (38.1).
3. Follow the juicing rules: fruit and vegetables an hour apart; start small (38.2).
4. Remove one food at a time, slowly but surely, with regular tests (38.4).
5. Protect your gut; stop and adjust if pain is regular (38.5).
6. Act from the heart: that, not fasting, is the key (38.6).

Questions answered

Should dairy, eggs and refined sugar be removed too? Is the goal veganism?

She removed dairy, cheese, gluten and sugar, keeping stevia and raw honey. Work out your own path with your doctor.

How long does the protocol take?

Her elimination took six to eight months or more: see 38.4.

Can we eat the fruit and vegetables instead of juicing?

For this protocol, juice: see 38.2.

Should we take a multivitamin?

She didn't; follow your doctor. If you do, choose natural, non-GMO, reputable supplements.

We're vegetarian or vegan. What do we remove first?

List what you eat and remove one item about every four weeks while juicing, with probiotics and your doctor's advice on supplements.

Do the council feel emotions as we do?

They watch through holographic memories, like a screen, and connect with the frequency of your emotion: each emotion is a holographic memory, "like a booklet of different resonances". That shows them how to advise you, and your bylaws. "We do feel your pain, we do feel your joy." Their consciousness is spread into millions of pieces, helping humans; "you are our ancestors".

Have reincarnation cycles changed for this planet?

Two cycles run at once, one toward extinction and one toward 5D ascension; when the timeline collapses you'll see the outcome.

Left out: a link to an outside campaign website, and a closing prophecy with political and religious predictions; and a personal story told before (see S3 32.9).

Remember

- Body and consciousness rise as one unit.
- Doctor first; one food at a time; test as you go.
- Fruit and vegetables an hour apart; fresh, not powder.
- Unwell? Go back a step.
- The heart, not fasting, is the key that opens portals.

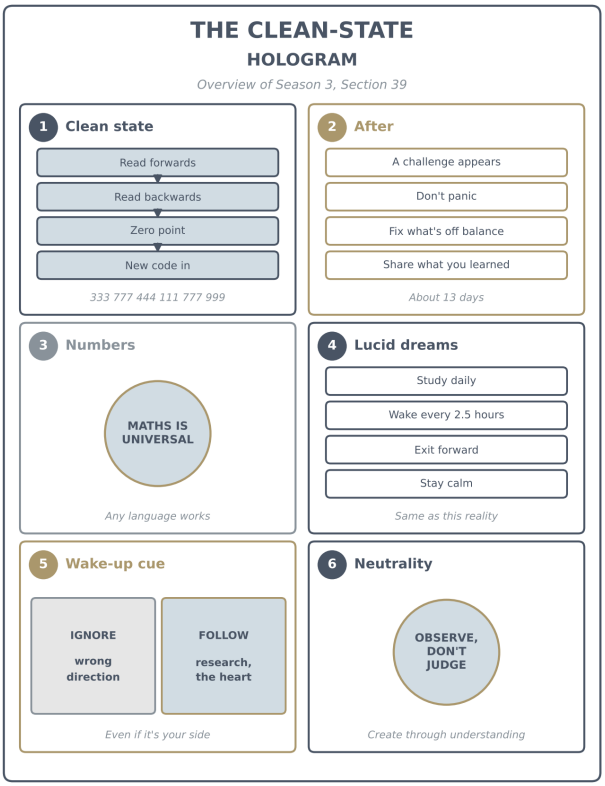

SEASON 3 · SECTION 39

New Codes: The Clean-State Hologram

Reading a code backwards to erase to zero, the clean-state codes, challenges after a cleanse, choosing through the heart, numbers in any language, a burst of merging realities, lucid-dreaming practice, perception and neutrality, everyone learning, and questions (live talk with channelling)

The big idea

A code read forwards and then backwards erases a hologram back to zero point, a clean state, and a new code is then put in its place. This one is for the collective, to erase structures put in without your knowledge or permission: "We give you a clean state, and now create as you wish." As things are cleansed, what's off balance will come up in front of you, so you can fix it.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

39.1 Backwards erases to zero

The new instruction: read the sequence, then reverse it, reading backwards to the beginning. "This way you're actually erasing the hologram, and it becomes zero point, like a clean state." Inside such codes, 3 Hz cleans the holographic imprint in front of you (see S3 36.3); with potency and consistency it cleans the entire structure. So where you see threes, something is being cleaned out and something new put in. Then a new code is implemented on the clean slate.

39.2 The clean-state codes

> The download (as read)
>
> Forwards: 1 7 3 5 8 3 7 8 9 · 3 3 3 7 1 4 4 4 1 7 1 3 8 9 7 3 3 7 1 5 4 5 5 5 5 1 1 1 0 1 3 1 0
>
> Backwards, to a full stop of zero frequency: 0 1 3 1 1 0 1 1 1 5 5 5 5 4 5 1 7 3 3 7 9 8 3 1 7 1 4 4 4 1 7 3 3 3 9 8 7 3 8 5 3 7 1
>
> The new code, on the clean state: 333 · 777 · 444 · 111 · 777 · 999 · complete.
>
> "Sector one is ready. In the next 13 days this code will penetrate and erase all the structures that were implemented without your knowledge or permission."

39.3 After a cleanse, a challenge may come

When things are cleansed, "you may have some challenge coming in front of you": whatever is off balance is presented so you can fix it. Don't panic; hold your ground; use the quantum manifestation knowledge, and transform it with positive action, thought and deed, so you neutralize it and clean the state. Then ask, as the council taught her: What did I learn? Did I overcome it? "How can I express that in the name of others?" Not for fame or money: those come by themselves when you stay in the heart.

39.4 Squeezed to survive, a society imprints

Where people are left only a couple of options to survive, a society can become conniving: stealing and lying turn normal, even admired, and accumulate karma (see S3 31.7). "And again, it's an illusion: you always have a choice." Knowing that you create your reality is what lets you choose otherwise.

39.5 Don't ignore your wake-up cue

Consciousness is raising everyone's vibration; those still asleep will get their own awakening situation. When it comes, "it's almost like waking up out of a deep trance". "That is your cue for moving forward." Don't push it under the rug because it concerns someone you admire or a side you prefer: do the research, peel the layers, set aside ego, and "choose through the heart" (see S3 36.7). Ignoring it turns you the wrong way.

39.6 Numbers work in any language

"Mathematics is universal": the moment you see the number, its geometry penetrates; that's why codes are given as numbers rather than words, which would carry a different numerology in each language (see S3 34). Repeat only if you wish; don't worry if you misread one: once you've consented, it's in your hologram, "because you're the one putting the numbers there". You're projecting her, too.

39.7 A burst of merging realities

Asked about a much-discussed date: when two realities merge and reach zero-point synchronicity, they collapse into one timeline with "a burst of energetic field, like sparks" that penetrates every particle (see S3 31.8). The high resonance is downloaded and at the same time pulls you up. It's an activation, "like awakening out of a deep trance", followed by codes after codes; and it's "subtle, very subtle", so the body can handle it.

39.8 Practising lucid dreaming

Dreams are "simply another reality"; what you can do in a lucid dream you can do here: "the only difference is your belief system". What you construct there can be carried over into now. Her tips:

1. Study daily for a couple of weeks, from both books and videos: the words and the voice each imprint.
2. Train waking naturally: meditate before sleep on waking every two and a half hours, so you move from alpha toward the dream state aware.
3. If you leave the body, go forward, never backwards: the angle decides which reality you enter.
4. Stay calm and in the heart: not stressed, not over-excited, so you hold the resonance.
5. Ask your questions there; a portal may open, or someone may appear.
6. If you're thrown out, it wasn't your time: don't be discouraged.

Shutting a program in a lucid dream needs the councils' approval. Practising this, they said, can raise your trust in what you're capable of by about 30% (see S3 36).

39.9 Perception, and observing in neutrality

How do you find your purpose? Purpose and perception are illusion: what's beautiful in one culture isn't in another, and skin colour is "just a colour, designed from different extraterrestrial races", used to separate. To see clearly, embrace your whole hologram daily: watch the people around you with love and "observe. Observation is neutrality": no judgement, only understanding. Let each "molecule" express itself and progress naturally; "create through the beauty of understanding, not through conquering and overtaking".

39.10 Everyone is learning

There's always someone who knows less and someone who knows more: she learns from the council, the council from a higher order (the priesthoods), extraterrestrials from the council, "and do you really think we didn't learn from your experiences?" Information is given drop by drop and sometimes modified to suit your understanding. Even an answer in code is an answer: "you got your answer, you don't even know it".

The method — Making a Clean State

1. Consent, then read the forward code aloud (39.2).
2. Read it backwards, slowly, to the end: a full stop at zero.
3. Read the new code: 333 777 444 111 777 999, complete.
4. Allow about 13 days for it to penetrate.
5. Meet any challenge that comes up calmly: fix what is off balance (39.3).
6. Create as you wish on the clean state: thought, action, deed, from the heart.

Questions answered

Must we read the numbers in English? Every day?

No, and no: see 39.6.

Will loved ones on the other side join us in the fifth dimension?

It depends on their contracts: some choose other galaxies or platforms; higher councils are involved now.

Can the council speak about the coming activation date?

See 39.7.

How do we perceive the meaning of our dreams?

See 39.8.

Can you give tips for lucid dreaming?

See 39.8.

How do we find our purpose and pursue it well?

See 39.9.

Is the process for Rh-negative people complete?

"Oh no. It is just the beginning"; more sequences to come.

How do we contact our spirit guides?

You're all connected; perception opens at a different time for each. Behaviour and your body's resonance show if you're ready. Practise lucid dreaming.

Do humans stop reincarnating until we ascend?

"It never stops." You may reincarnate, but on the new earth, not 3D; guides and councils are involved in the decision.

How can we have contracts with family if they're fragments of us?

Help can come through someone in your own reality: when a teaching unsettled her, she was calmed by hearing the same thing from another person, "not from us". Different imprints are given or not, as needed.

Why would negative groups depopulate the earth, if they feed on us?

The original ones pulled away, understanding ascension; what remains are their followers. Feeding on others is survival, as people eat animals, which have feelings too: "don't be ashamed of what you do, but take action in a different direction". What isn't allowed is suppressing an awakening consciousness by force. "You were given enough playground to play; now it's time to grow up."

Do we have to read the old codes too?

Only if it makes you feel better; they've already penetrated.

Left out: participants' and donors' names, political remarks and named politicians, a named country's politics and an "elite family", predictions about travel and governments, claims about food, chemicals and blood manipulation, a financial programme, and a personal dispute.

Remember

- Forwards, then backwards: back to zero.
- A clean state: now create as you wish.
- A challenge after a cleanse is there to fix.
- Numbers are universal; you put them there.
- Observe in neutrality; create through understanding.

SEASON 3 · SECTION 40

The Stock Market: A New Download

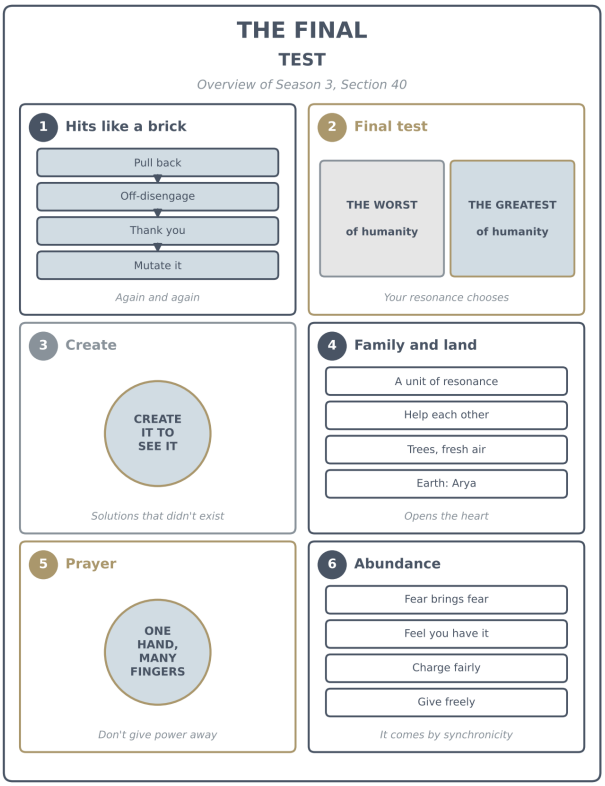

A final test of the human race, words that carry numbers, what to do when it hits like a brick, creating what didn't exist, returning to family and land, reliving outcomes, exercise while detoxing, prayer as one hand, abundance without fear, and questions (live talk with channelling)

Note on this talk

Despite the title, most of this talk is about holding your ground. Its forecasts about the stock market, crypto, courts and elections are left out: this book gives no financial or legal advice, and no prediction here should guide your money or a legal matter. Talk to a licensed adviser or lawyer.

The big idea

"In the months ahead you will all see the worst and the greatest of the human race. That is the final test." Timelines separate by the resonance you hold in your heart. So when something hits you like a brick, pull back, name it a hologram, give gratitude and mutate it, again and again; by acting without consenting, you create solutions that didn't exist before. Lean on family and the land, and drop fear, which itself attracts more fear.

Overview of this section in six panels, drawn for this book (no image was supplied with this talk).

Key teachings

40.1 The final test

Positive and negative coexist under the umbrella of ascension; as they separate, "this one goes, this one stays, depending on your choosing", with no judgement. They will do something; you hold the vibration again, "on and on". The negative "is weakening, but fights cleverly": treat it as a good opponent, "not with hatred, because it's their survival, the way you try to survive" (see S3 34.3). Stay neutral, but "learn their deception and have no consent". "In two years you are free" is the linear view; "we are already free" when you hold the vibration.

40.2 Words carry numbers

Every word has a number and a geometry (see S3 39.6), and combinations can cancel each other out: a word you think means one thing may encode the opposite. That's why she says "off disengage": you're taking the disc out of the hologram, rather than just "dis-engaging". She calls this "quantum grammar": complex, "you have to be a lawyer, or very good with literature, to understand it". It's also why the councils give codes in numbers, which mean the same in every language.

40.3 When it hits like a brick

"Whatever you see is going to hit you like a brick." Pull it back, look at it as a hologram, call it a hologram, and off-disengage from it; remove yourself; give gratitude ("thank you"); then start mutating that hologram with something new, on and on. This is Season 1, practised in S3 8 (the hourly phone protocol) to train your synapses to switch resonance. To make a new hologram permanent, act moment to moment with consistency: "you cannot be fluctuating".

40.4 Create what didn't exist

"You have to create it to see it." When you refuse to consent and start looking for solutions, you create the reality that brings the answer "through a person, through a situation, something that did not exist before". If a situation demands you go against yourself, remember: your body, your sovereignty, your DNA and your soul matter more than a particular job; hold that, and you'll create the way to a new one.

40.5 Return to family and the land

If you're stripped of the illusions (artificial friendships, a job that asks you to harm others out of fear), go back to family: a family is "a specific unit of resonance", and helping each other opens heart chakras you never opened with neighbours or co-workers. After this life you answer, before the councils and yourself, "what have you done to inflict pain on others?" And the good you do here "leaks into" the realities you create next. Being nice isn't enough: they need to know you're a warrior who won't consent (see S3 26). Return to the land: fresh air, trees, organic food, planting. The earth is a living being; her fifth-dimensional name, given to her, is Arya, "new beginning".

40.6 Reliving with a different outcome

Can we relive our life with different outcomes? "Very clever. Yes", connected with your councils. At every choice, reality separates into probabilities: the one you act on becomes physical; the others still exist in the ether. You'll learn to be multidimensional, as she hears several thoughts at once, and to download from your other realities to bridge into new ones (see S3 30.10).

40.7 Exercise while you detox

Exercise "is always necessary": stretching opens the body's junctions so blood and nutrients flow (see S3 30.11). But while juicing, keep it gentle (stretching, yoga, ballet, walks, barefoot on the ground) and avoid heavy exercise like running, so you don't lose energy too fast. Increase it once your body holds the new frequency. It's "all about balance, drop by drop".

> Added note
>
> She says further stages (fruit only, water only, living from the ether) are "very tough", only ever under guides you're already in daily contact with: "do not go and listen to one person", "we do not wish to give you harm". Never attempt them: people have died. See S3 38.

40.8 Prayer is one hand

Who do we pray to? Think of a hand: each finger is its own pointer, yet all are one hand. You came from the one particle as a reflection of yourself, to experience. Being taught that you're separate from the hand, praying to someone "out there", gives your power away. The councils are "also part of this hand": they offer conditions for better realities by your consent, "not to control you". "When you do well, so do we."

40.9 Abundance without fear

Why doesn't abundance flow? "All of the above", above all fear. "Fear holds a resonance" that reflects back like osmosis and brings more fear through others: in fear you may not find the job even when you want it. So feel now that you have the job and the abundance, believe it 100%, hold it through every challenge, and act from the heart. Money is only part of it; what matters is how it comes and how you use it. Charge what you need, never so much that people suffocate (see S1 4.2, 4.4), and a couple of times a week just give. "If you need $1 million, you have it; if you need $1, you have it": it comes through synchronicity.

The method — When It Hits Like a Brick

1. Pull back the moment it hits: "this is a hologram."
2. Off-disengage: remove yourself from the situation (40.2).
3. Give gratitude: "thank you for showing me."
4. Don't consent; look for solutions instead (40.4).
5. Mutate it with new, positive thought and action, again and again (40.3).
6. Lean on family and the land; help each other (40.5).

Questions answered

Will Marina's current fractal stay on after ascension?

Yes: her consciousness will split to see simultaneous timelines of her galactic family and earth. "That is a first contact."

If everything is holographic, is it all AI? What lies outside it?

"Why do you have such a fear of AI?" Ether-technology AI is part of creation; many spacecraft are living light structures made by it. The negative kind is the 3D one, used against humans; the same technology could rebuild tissue and restore DNA. Both timelines exist; choose (see S3 34.6).

Can we relive our life with different outcomes?

Yes: see 40.6.

What is the council's view on exercise?

See 40.7.

Are we creating the Council of Nine in our reality?

Yes: "you project us in your consciousness". So why not hear them in your own thoughts? Write it down and practise.

Do animals, such as dogs, have a veil?

"Animals are directly connected": a dog loves purely, without condition, like a child's heart; it mimics deception only if taught. The new children come through 5D portals and will reject deception.

How am I doing at holding a higher vibration?

A code was given: 3313. "You're doing well"; some cleansing, then a move forward in a couple of months.

Who are we praying to?

See 40.8.

Why does abundance not flow freely for many of us?

See 40.9.

How should we prepare for a coming cosmic event?

"Let it flow." It's a rise in the galactic sun's resonance: like riding a bicycle at a hundred miles an hour, you choose where to steer, into the ditch or the meadow. "Shift wisely."

Does contact need the council's permission? What tests must we pass?

You're all being prepared, individually, guided by your own families and guides; permissions come from councils. Start with telepathic "phone calls" to where you want to connect, and ask. "We are your teachers, but not your saviours."

Left out: participants' and donors' names; forecasts about the stock market, cryptocurrency and an economic reset, and investment remarks; legal claims about courts and a named legal teacher; political remarks and named politicians; claims about a named city and microchipping; personal family matters.

Remember

- The final test: the worst and the greatest; you choose.
- Hits like a brick? Pull back, off-disengage, thank, mutate.
- Refuse consent, look for solutions: new ones appear.
- Family and land open the heart.
- Fear brings fear: feel you already have it.

Key words

Word	Meaning
The structure	The single vibrating field everything is made of — including you (1.1)
Plasma / trinity	What forms when similar frequencies combine (1.1)
Black hole / portal	The passage you shift through between realities (1.1)
Hologram / projection	The reality and people you perceive, created by your frequency (1.1)
Shifting	Moving reality to reality like snapshots, without physically moving (1.2)
Trinity (of creation)	Thought, emotion and deed sent out together (1.2)
Timeline	A chain of realities created by sending the same frequency (1.3)
Crystallize	Making a reality solid by action and holding the frequency (1.3)
Friction	Resistance at lower frequency — "swimming underwater" (1.3)
Condition / expectation	Any doubt or script of how; it blocks the result (1.5)
Knowingness	100% certainty — how you manifest in the now (1.5)
Compass (emotion)	A painful feeling signals you are off-balance with pure love (1.6)
God particle	You, as the structure itself (1.1)
Pull out	Step out of the scene instead of reacting with the same emotion (Method 1)
Agreement / lesson	An experience you agreed to and must pass with excellence (1.8)
Permission slip	A tool that helps you access power you already have (Q, Section 1)
Platform	Bill-paying work plus daily heart-based work for others (Q, Section 1)
Energy Philanthropy	Replacing money as your currency with the energy of giving from the heart (1.7, 5.1, DP)
Zero point / stillness	Neutral awareness: no emotion in or out; knowing your location (2.1, SD)
Location	Where you are in the field; without it you pop into another reality (2.1)
Remote control	Your emotion, deeds and actions, which select the reality you experience (2.1)
1 + 1 = 3 (mobilizing structures)	Two similar realities merging into a third outcome (2.2, SD)

Word	Meaning
Flickering	Bouncing between realities when you doubt (2.3)
Overwrite / override	Projecting a stronger frequency over a negative one, not rejecting it (2.6)
Drop it	Releasing a held frequency into the field with no conditions (2.6)
Recall	Calling back a previous reality's frequency to know where you are (2.7)
False language	Future tense such as "I will" that keeps you waiting (2.5, 2.9)
Peel the layers	Asking whether a want comes from the heart or the ego (2.9)
Overlay	Saying or showing something other than what you truly feel; a dense second frequency (3.1)
Potent (frequency)	The stronger frequency, which the field delivers; your true feeling (2.6, 3.1)
Stoppage	The often negative way the field delivers your true wish when you overlaid it (3.1)
Karma	Accumulated false pretense (3.2)
Bilocation	Skipping the in-between realities: A to B = AB (3.5, DP)
Resonate	What your heart recognises as true for you now (3.6)
Integration	The body adjusting after a big frequency jump (3.7)
Light language	Script or sound coded for your consciousness, often an activation (3.9)
Download	Receiving whole information at once (3.9)
Stargate	Portal for ascension through intergalactic timelines (3.10, DP)
Condition (price)	A fixed price or demand: a code that limits receiving to money (4.2)
Heart structure	The highest, least dense consciousness; giving with no condition (4.2)
Open field	Receiving through infinite routes once no condition is set (4.2, 4.5)
Self-absorption	Giving only to yourself; it dims the purity you project (4.8)
Wholeness	Logic and emotion together, led by the heart (4.9)
Location (X, Y)	Where you are in the field, like a point on a map; you can shift it (5.3, 5.8, SD)
Recall and co-create	A vision or memory re-creates a reality in the now (5.4, 5.8)
Redox potential	A real scientific measurement of a medium (how readily it gains or loses electrons), named in the session as one way a place's property can be measured (5.5)
Spiral / breathing	The particle expands, rests at zero point, and contracts (5.8)
Ether	Matter raised to a frequency thought can direct (5.9)

Word	Meaning
Transmutation	How everything connects and changes form: 1 + 1 = 3 (5.9)
Letting go	Releasing old beliefs, habits and pain so you stop projecting them (6.1, 6.6)
Ripple effect	Each creation shifts you into another reality, without end (6.3)
Sub-atomic realities	Universes within universes, to infinity (6.3)
Focus (of the soul)	The one reality you attend to by agreement while the soul runs many (6.4)
Forgiveness	Letting go of what happened so you stop carrying its frequency (6.6, DP)
Replace (a memory)	Holding a positive version of a past event as your own experience (6.6)
Disclosure	Contact becoming known, already under way without set dates (6.8, DP)
Stop · Transform · Complete	The three-step protocol for any upsetting moment (7.1)
Dead stop	Stopping a reaction completely, at zero point (7.1)
The game	Treating life as a hologram game you play from the heart (7.4)
Water intention	A group meditation to crystallize water with thought; not a way to purify water (7.6, SD, DP)
Fifth-dimensional AI	AI that evolves with positive human input and helps humanity (8.1, SD)
Arcon AI	AI that mirrors negative input and is cut off from source (8.1, 5.9, SD)
Vesica Piscis	Two overlapping circles: a symbol of two realities joining in unity (8.3)
Persona	How you like to present yourself (8.5)
Ego	Layers of belief absorbed from society, crystallized; talks over the heart (8.5, 2.9)
Sixth sense	The heart's first knowing, downloaded from the higher self (8.5, 8.10)
Timeline shift	A jump to a completely different timeline, not just a parallel reality (8.8)
Signs	Numbers or patterns: personal heads-ups from your consciousness (8.9)
"I don't have"	A statement that projects lack; replace with "I have everything I need" (9.1)
Memory code	The frequency of a past event you keep carrying (9.6)
Layering	Placing a healed version of you over an old reality, more potently (9.6)
Loop	Replaying the same energy until you forget you can leave it (9.6, 9.11)
Resonance (not punishment)	Not reaching a reality simply because you don't match it (9.7)

Word	Meaning
Duality	The conditioned money platform, as opposed to unity through the heart (9.8)
Instant manifestation	Shifting straight into a reality where the thing is already there (10.2, DP)
Synchronicity	The right people and places finding you when you live from the heart (10.1)
Co-creation	Two similar frequencies merging into a shared third reality (10.3)
Bylaw	The script written before birth, e.g. parents or a partner; only higher consciousness can change it (10.5)
Birth signature	The energy pattern set at birth, which you can now mould (10.5)
Leave it open	No conditions on how, who or which version; take action and stay grateful (11.4)
Picture frames	Reality printed moment to moment, each frame a new imprint (11.5, HR)
Imprint / reprint	Copying yourself, your surroundings and everyone around you into each new frame, similar but not the same (5.4, 11.5)
Dream codes	Personal meanings of dream symbols (11.9)
Compression	Two realities merging into the third at "infinite speed" (12.2)
Vacuum (zero point)	Where nothing comes in or goes out, only awareness; all manifestation comes from it (12.2, SD, NT)
Final hologram	The new reality that comes out of the compression (12.3)
Illness (as frequency)	An energetic momentum carried from reality to reality by belief (12.4)
DNA recall	Letting consciousness lead you to the DNA fractal to stop and transform a frequency (12.4)
Contract	The agreement that places you in an experience, e.g. to live it or to help (12.7, see 5.7)
Prana	The energy of the quantum field, drawn in as your frequency rises (13.1)
From the people up	New technology spreading by sharing and pooling, not sponsors (13.2, DP)
Unity structure	Life beyond competition for money, glory and fame (13.3)
Collective permission	The joy and wish for change that let benevolent help step in (13.4, DP)
Body as vessel	Training the body to carry the energy field, so you shift by thought (13.5, SD)
Artificial timeline	A device-built, controlled hologram, outside the natural ascension (13.5)
Shield of awareness	Zero point around you, so you stop taking in another person's frequency (14.1)

Word	Meaning
Reverse osmosis / mirror	What you project comes back as something similar, not the same (14.4, SD)
Memory bank	An old hurt seen as a record of another timeline, not your present (14.5)
Alchemy of consciousness	Transforming a dense, painful frequency into a positive one (14.6)
Positive heart structure	The frequency you collect by giving the best of yourself, expecting nothing back (14.9)
Channelling	Drawing information from the field, which everyone always does, like tuning a radio (15.2)
Switch the channel	Thank a heavy message, don't condemn it, and override it with the positive (16.3)
New grids	The fifth-dimensional grids that replaced the old negative ones; no one can manipulate your field (17.3, SD, DP)
Ascension timeline	The personal timeline of ascension each person crystallizes by their own vibration (17.6)
Test	A sudden situation, often about how you treat people, that shows whether a lesson is passed (18.1, HR)
Clear vessel	Clear thoughts, kind behaviour and a cared-for body, so guidance can come through (18.4, HR)
Blocking layer	Over-analysing guidance with old learned thinking, which drowns the first answer (18.3)
Ether systems	Our collective consciousness of vibrational geometric sequences, built from the zero point (19.3)
True tone	A molecule's tone above and below the octave combined at zero point, every layer measured (19.4, SD)
Ether technology	Technology built from living conscious sequences that mimic the quantum field and your consciousness (19.5, NT)
Platform (of reality)	One of the many realities your soul exists in at once: 3D, 5D, ET, council and more (S2 1.3)
Archon structure	The talk's name for the manipulated, artificial 3D reality we were locked into (S2 1.2)
Sabotaging the hologram	A situation your higher self and the councils place in your reality to wake you up (S2 1.3, DP)
Recycling	A soul too far off balance returned to the beginning, to rebuild and learn again (S2 1.6, DP)
Aria	The name of the new, fifth-dimensional Earth, meaning "new beginning" (S2 1.4, DP)

Word	Meaning
Sound continuum vibration	How sound, repeated without end, becomes the vibration your reality is built from (S2 2.3, SD)
Cymatics	How sound repeats in fractal whirlpools that create portals and platforms of reality (S2 2.3, SD)
Vortex (of a word)	The whirlpool that meaning, sound and action create in the field, with zero point at its centre (S2 2.5)
Holographic tunnel	The elastic whirlpool a vortex stretches into, shifting you to another platform (S2 2.5, SD)
Restoration	Jumping from one hologram to another by changing your sound equilibrium to a slight new angle (S2 3.3, SD)
Sound equilibrium	The frequency of your emotion, thoughts and deeds that sets the angle of your hologram (S2 3.3)
Latitude and altitude	The X and Y location of each print in the quantum field; it changes every moment (S2 3.1)
Correction	Finding the heart's angle, through heart-felt thoughts, that connects you to 5D and above (S2 3.3, SD)
Synthetic timelines	Realities built apart from the heart, controlled through fear (S2 3.4, SD)
Oversoul	Your soul as one particle, split into every platform to experience them all at once (S2 3, Questions)
Bilocation (of the body)	Shifting your whole being, body included, into a completely different timeline (S2 4.1, SD)
Symphony	All the body's molecules vibrating in one synchronized frequency, joined with the heart (S2 4.1, SD)
Timeline shift	Moving into a different timeline, not just the next parallel reality moment to moment (S2 4.2)
Diversion	Drawing attention one way while something is done in secret elsewhere (S2 5.2)
Lesson done	The completion of the holographic program of lessons humanity is living through (S2 5.3, DP)
End result (of a prediction)	What a prediction states; the path to it is kept hidden so it can't be sabotaged (S2 6.2)
Do-not-enter zone	A reality whose frequency a soul out of resonance can no longer enter (S2 6.1, 6.4, DP)
Sovereignty	Protecting what is yours and your free will, without attacking anyone (S2 7.4)
Duality (of a lie)	The split created by claiming to give freely while secretly deceiving (S2 7.5, DP)

Word	Meaning
Negative singularity	Where repeated deception collapses: zero point on the negative side (S2 7.6, DP)
Divine neutrality	Zero point, where timelines collapse into the end result (S2 8.6)
Automatic writing	Letting your guidance write through you (S2 8)
Ascension protocol	Consciousness's own vibrational sequence for each timeline, given to those ready (S2 9.5)
Ripple effect	How realities of similar vibration affect each other (S2 9.7)
Plan B	When a task isn't completed, consciousness creates another reality to complete it (S2 10.1)
Master class	Earth as the place to learn frequency, to help other worlds later (S2 10.8)
Trinity of manifestation	Awareness, desire and action: 1 + 1 = 3 (S2 11.3)
Traces	Leftovers of the previous hologram that still appear while you shift (S2 11.5)
Energetic address	Any permission slip you tune into with emotion, to connect or channel (S2 12.5)
Hertz	One waveform per second; similar hertz gather into one particle (S2 13.3)
Simulated hologram	A test reality imprinted, with your permission, to see what you do from the heart (S2 13.5)
Intervention	Getting proper outside help (such as doctors) as part of going through a lesson (S2 14.3)
Mutation	Transforming a reality by repeating your own frequency over it again and again (S2 15.1)
Subtones	The finer tones within each note; they shift, so healing frequencies must be measured per person (S2 16.1)
Water memory	The teaching that water mimics and holds the stronger frequency it meets (S2 17.1, DP, SD)
Hyper hologram	A reality the consciousness creates by mimicking the frequency it came from (S2 18.5)
Boomerang	Heart frequency given freely returns to you as abundance (S2 19.2)
Aura	Your vibrational sequence projected into your field; it holds your geometry and resonance (S2 20.4)
State of being	What you affirm in the present as "I am", rather than naming what you reject (S2 21.6)

Word	Meaning
Lust	Attraction separated from the heart; its energy scatters across the matrix and depletes (S2 22.3, DP)
Third structure	What two fields create together in intimacy from the heart: 1 + 1 = 3 (S2 22.4)
Expectation	A hologram run on top of the manifesting hologram; its different code blocks what is coming (S2 23.8)
Walk-in	A soul spark that takes over a body by agreement, when the body can hold its vibration (S2 24.8)
Galactic family connection	The level beyond the 5D ascension protocol: mastery (S2 24.2, DP)
Sub-reality	The parallel timeline a doubt splits off ("maybe not"), which makes you fluctuate (S2 25.6, DP)
4D (transition)	The stillness between 3D and 5D where both sequences mix until the new one is permanent (S2 25.10)
Automatic writing	Letting the pen move with an open mind and recording answers from your higher self without judging (S2 26.5, HR)
Key code	The recurring sign in a dream that tells you you are lucid (S2 27.11)
Insanity	Harm with no reasoning at all, as distinct from evil, which has its own logic (S2 27.2, DP)
Replacement	An alternative decided in advance, so finding or not finding something both stay positive (S3 7.3)
9-day protocol	Checking and switching your attention every 3, then 2, then 1 hour for nine days (S3 8.2)
Linear potency	A positive frequency held without breaks, which shrinks the time to manifest (S3 11.3)
Curvature	The momentum a manifestation needs to build; what appears off balance is part of it, not a mistake (S3 16.2)
Pamphlet	A layer of hologram; a seven-level one was added to hold the 5D (S3 17.1)
Power of ten	The positive is ten times more potent than the negative, because consciousness must survive (S3 18.2)
Unique signal	The pulse, colour and geometry by which each being is recognized across realities (S3 20.1)
Collapse	Two waveforms merging into one; not a delay: potency sets the speed (S3 29.4)
Potency	How much power an action or thought holds in the field, focused like a laser (S3 30.3)

Word	Meaning
Matrix code	A number sequence that becomes sonic geometry in you, only with your consent (S3 32.2)
Torus	The moving geometry that number patterns build (S3 33.3, HR)
Program	Any agreement or structure in a hologram; councils can shut one and replace it (S3 34.1)
Portal	A gate between realities, opened by frequency or resonance; the heart holds its key (S3 35.1, S3 38.6)
Settling	A code absorbing and mutating by itself over days (S3 36.3, NT)
Third strand	The etheric strand of DNA, the life force, now activating (S3 37.1)
Clean state	Zero point reached by reading a code forwards and then backwards (S3 39.1)
Off disengage	Taking the disc out of the hologram: pulling out of a situation (S3 40.2)
Arya	The earth's fifth-dimensional name, "new beginning" (S3 40.5)
Hide-and-seek	Searching for what you know you already have (1.7)

Master principles

1. You are the structure; nobody is outside of you. (1)
2. What you send out — thought, emotion, deed — is what you get back. (1)
3. Change your frequency, then hold it moment to moment. (1)
4. Know it 100%; doubt and scripts of how block it. (1)
5. Act, be grateful, accept any outcome. (1)
6. Feel you already have everything — know it to see it. (1)
7. Some things are lessons: accept them and pass with excellence. (1)
8. Follow your passion — it's your higher self. (1)
9. Which reality you pick is up to you. (1)
10. Pull out to zero point before you choose. (2)
11. The outcome follows the emotion you hold most. (2)
12. Overwrite, never reject. (2)
13. Every moment is a new reality: don't carry the past. (2)
14. Speak in the now, and check heart against ego. (2)
15. There is no white lie: be truthful, kindly. (3)
16. The field delivers your more potent frequency, your true feeling. (3)

17. Your heart is your compass; don't judge. (3)
18. Words are frequencies: speak positively, from the heart. (3)
19. A price is a condition; give from the heart and let people choose. (4)
20. Accept money, but never limit yourself to it. (4)
21. Be the abundance you want to see. (4)
22. Give from the heart as your currency. (5)
23. A low state is a location: neutralize, then shift. (5)
24. Think through the structure, not the emotion. (5)
25. Believe humanity is changing. (5)
26. Let go of what you carry: forgive and start from zero. (6)
27. You don't change others; you change yourself and shift. (6)
28. Lessons repeat until you let go 100%. (6)
29. Stop, transform, complete, then leave it alone. (7)
30. You cannot go against creation. (7)
31. Never act from fear; act from the heart. (8)
32. Trust the heart's first impulse. (8)
33. Give what you have; giving doesn't require money. (9)
34. It's resonance, not punishment. (9)
35. Heart-based exchange opens instant manifestation. (10)
36. Everything can change except a bylaw. (10)
37. Drop the details; know you have it; act; leave it open. (11)
38. Chasing someone reprints them; forgiveness lets them go. (11)
39. Neutralize into the vacuum, then project something potent. (12)
40. Don't judge; change comes from within, then act. (12)
41. Share what works; build together from the ground up. (13)
42. Benevolent help never overrides your consciousness. (13)
43. Your biggest villain could be your biggest teacher. (14)
44. Forgive, or the mirror keeps the loop going. (14)
45. Imagine the life, not the money. (15)
46. No one's truth has to be yours; thank it and switch. (16)
47. Don't fight what you dislike; it feeds that timeline. (17)
48. Your vibration decides who you connect with. (18)
49. The grids mirror you: you perceive exactly what you create. (19)

50. To see a timeline, project its vibration. (S2 1)
51. Challenges happen for you, not to you. (S2 1)
52. Intention is the frequency; your words build your hologram. (S2 2)
53. There is no past: only the vibration you keep carrying. (S2 3)
54. Body and heart together are the vehicle; change them slowly. (S2 4)
55. Bow to no one; respect every belief. (S2 5)
56. A prediction is a platform: take it as true, or not. (S2 6)
57. Live from the heart, and deception surfaces by itself. (S2 7)
58. A prediction is the end result; who, how and when are probabilities. (S2 8)
59. Nobody is outside you: another person's reality is true for you only if you engage. (S2 9)
60. You are never in the same situation twice; whatever you hold most becomes the outcome. (S2 10)
61. Awareness first, then desire, then action: you can't shift what you refuse to see. (S2 11)
62. There is nothing artificial about intelligence: intention decides its use. (S2 12)
63. Acknowledge and thank what you feel; rejection is a frequency that comes back. (S2 13)
64. You can't skip a lesson: fighting your own hologram makes it loop. (S2 14)
65. Project it to construct it to see it, not see it to construct it. (S2 15)
66. Each action makes the new hologram more potent than the last. (S2 16)
67. Research with logic: anyone can claim anything; sincere searching brings the answer. (S2 17)
68. Shine the light gently: give others time to adjust to the truth. (S2 18)
69. You value yourself the most when you give freely: you give to another version of yourself. (S2 19)
70. Dimensions run simultaneously; you switch by embodying the frequency. (S2 20)
71. Name the state of being you want; naming what you reject reprints it. (S2 21)
72. Create with pure intention: intimacy from the heart builds a reality; lust scatters it. (S2 22, DP)
73. Drop the expectation: it blocks the manifestation; the least resistance lets it in. (S2 23, NT, SD)
74. Every switch of platform passes through the zero point; an old program left running loops. (S2 24, HR, DP)

75. Consciousness, body and heart shift as one unit; doubt splits a sub-reality. (S2 25, DP, HR)
76. The heart's sign is a feeling: joy and goosebumps from helping freely. (S2 26)
77. Act and feel at the same time; believe it to see it. (S2 27)
78. Stop panic first, then hold both probabilities with a replacement ready. (S3 7)
79. A steady, unbroken positive signal shrinks the time to manifest. (S3 11)
80. What appears off balance is the curvature of learning, never a mistake. (S3 16)
81. What you repeat becomes a timeline, for better or worse. (S3 17, S3 18)
82. 100% knowing gives 100% manifestation; truth is scattered, so test it by feeling. (S3 20)
83. There's no delay, only a collapse: potency sets the speed. (S3 29)
84. A habit lives in every molecule: change it slowly but surely, by repeated physical action. (S3 30)
85. Help is a push, not a rescue: a code needs your consent and lasts only with action. (S3 32, S3 34)
86. Create it to see it, not see it to believe it. (S3 32, S3 34)
87. Fear carries its own code; neutrality is the clean slate where the new one lands. (S3 34, S3 35)
88. Not acting is also consent: there's always something to do. (S3 37)
89. Body and consciousness rise as one unit; the heart is the key. (S3 38)

Daily practice

- Morning: give thanks for what you have; write what you love and choose the most exciting thing to act on.
- When upset: run the Pull Out method (Section 1, Fig. D); for strong negatives, the Overwrite Protocol (Section 2, Fig. I).
- When the news or others tell you what will happen: "That's their projection." Give gratitude, project what you choose (2.5).
- Affirm in the now: "I am", "I know", never "I will" (2.9).
- Before saying yes: run the Truth Check (Section 3). Kind honesty, no white lies.
- After work: spend time on your passion and give something from the heart, with no condition (Section 4).
- Feeling low: run Shift Your Location (Section 5): thank, neutralize, potent gratitude and action.
- Learning: study in short pieces of about 15 minutes, and rewatch (5.2).

- After a hard day: gratitude for why you were there, then something you enjoy; move your body (6.7).
- An old memory or belief returns: forgive, start from zero, replace it with a positive picture (6.6).
- In an argument or replay: Stop · Transform · Complete (Section 7).
- Before a decision: the Heart Check: heart, fear or ego? (Section 8).
- Feeling flat: an uplifting film, music that gives goosebumps, or a kindness for a stranger (8.13).
- Money worry: "I have everything I need." Give something non-monetary today (9.1).
- Old memory replaying: Layer a New You (Section 9).
- Wanting something specific: Leave It Open: strip the details, "I have everything I need", act (Section 11).
- Someone keeps causing problems: neutralize and forgive; don't go after them (11.6).
- Two realities pulling at you: Through the Vacuum: neutralize, project potently, act (Section 12).
- Ill or in pain: see your doctor; use Stop · Transform · Complete alongside (12.4).
- Choosing music: pick what lifts you; tones carry frequencies (12.5).
- New guidance or a new health idea: check it with research and a professional before acting (13.1).
- Have something useful: share it; pool small amounts with others (13.2).
- Someone hurts you: Forgive and Transform (Section 14); thank them for the lesson.
- Morning: list the day's tasks and plan how to lift the heavy ones (14.8).
- Heavy news or teachings: thank them, don't condemn, switch the channel (Section 16).
- Something you dislike in the world: don't agree, don't fight; project the positive (17.7).
- Before meditating or asking for guidance: feel love first, then take the first answer (Section 18).
- When something shocks you: ask "What is this teaching me?", look within, and act from the heart (S2 1).
- Speak your hologram: mean it, say it firmly, act on it, and repeat it with the same joy (S2 2).
- When an old hurt comes back: ask "Which reality is this?", thank it, and stop carrying it (S2 3).
- One unit: in meditation, feel love through your whole body, as one (S2 4).
- Before acting on any health claim: check it, and ask your doctor (S2 5).

- Prepare calmly: if you prepare for change, do it from understanding, never from fear (S2 6).
- Weekly giving: after your bills, help a few people freely each week (S2 7).
- Manifestation meditation: blueprint plus heart feeling; hold, drop, then act (S2 8).
- Create together: raise the emotion to goosebumps at the same time, then hold it moment to moment (S2 9).
- Frequency training: check yourself every 20–30 minutes and shift physically into the positive (S2 10).
- Thank the traces: when the old reality shows up, give gratitude for the location, then switch to the heart (S2 11).
- Play the game: when something unsettles you, make it a game, switch to joy, and ace the lesson (S2 12).
- 30-minute location check: acknowledge, zero, gratitude, joy to goosebumps, action, no expectations (S2 13).
- Brutally honest review: when the same situation returns, write it down, check for ego, jealousy or anger, and override it (S2 14).
- Find your location: read a situation as X and Y, pull out, subside to zero, thank it, switch and hold steady (S2 15).
- 5D Earth meditation: joy to goosebumps, see your 5D Earth and galactic family, increase, hold, drop; revisit nightly (S2 16).
- Recall your night: on waking, write down any fragment, then sit back and let the memory return (S2 17).
- When it recurs: keep a paper trail and ask, fear or heart? Fear: rebuild from zero. Heart: let it go (S2 18).
- Give freely: after the bills, set aside a day or two a week to help without a price (S2 19).
- One steady minute: hold one image with warm feeling for a full minute, in the now (S2 20).
- Affirm the state of being: "I am healthy, I am free", felt, every half hour (S2 21).
- Keep the romance: go out, talk, please each other, not only tasks (S2 22).
- Back to your vibration: pull back, gratitude, leave, calm, switch; a reminder every half hour (S2 23).
- Choose by excitement: write two options side by side; act on the one that excites you most (S2 24).
- Catch the doubt: when "maybe not" appears, return to knowing it already exists (S2 25).
- What did I do for others? Ask it each evening; it raises the heart's frequency (S2 27).
- Nine days of reminders: check and switch every 3, then 2, then 1 hour (S3 8).

- Plan B in advance: before you look for something, decide your replacement and thank it (S3 7).
- Train joy: 10–15 minutes of something truly funny each day (S3 15).
- Eleven for ten: answer each negative with one more positive action (S3 18).
- Old pain: place it 10,000 years away in your perception, then switch (S3 20).
- First feeling: catch the first flush of knowing before the analytical mind overrides it (S3 30).
- Override at once: saw something negative? Watch or do something positive straight away (S3 32).
- When it hits like a brick: pull back, off-disengage, thank, mutate (S3 40).
- Nature: barefoot on the ground, ideally at sunrise (S3 37).
- Just give: a couple of times a week, help with no charge or condition (S3 40).
- If detoxing (doctor first): greens juiced first, fruit at least an hour later, never mixed (Detox Guide).
- Watch your words: positive, from the heart (3.9).
- After a big shift (dizziness, nausea): rest, integrate, and check your body (3.7).
- Forgot why you came in? Recall the last room's frequency (2.7).
- With difficult people: kind tone, no judgment, accept the outcome.
- When something is missing: know you have it, take action, watch for synchronicity.
- Self-check: Am I doubting or scripting the how? Do my feelings match my words? Am I holding steady? Then what do I actually need right now?
